to the parachute Somewhere above and behind me were twelve other men my team of highly trained specialists in jungle warfare and survival and in all likelihood experiencing the same emotions and trepidation as I was Our mission was to locate and extract any survivors from a crashed American bomber that had been shot down by Japanese zeros yesterday If any survivors were found we would make our way to the coast for extraction by submarine that was hopefully heading towards the coordinates of the pickup point at this very moment Since I had jumped from the C47 I had been mentally counting down the seconds and with the jungle canopy now racing towards me at break neck speed I braced myself as I stalled the parachute to lessen the impact of colliding with the trees and branches any second As the sudden and violent impact drove the wind from my lungs I was unaware I had been holding my breath until I exhaled loudly I tried to curl myself into a ball to avoid injuring myself as I fell through the tree canopy with a loud crash and crack of breaking branches and covered my face with one arm as I was whipped and slashed by the passing branches and leaves The parachute finally became snagged in the high branches and I jerked to a sudden stop and hung suspended from my harness I fumbled for the quick release catches on my pack strapped to my front and letting it fall listened intently for the sound of impact with the ground Counting the seconds I was surprised to only count to five before I heard the dull thud I was closer to the ground than I would have thought and thanked my lucky stars the chute got caught up just when it did My next task was to release the chute harness and climb down the tree I was caught in without falling and injuring myself I had a small torch in one of the pockets of my flak jacket and when I shone it around and below me I saw what I was looking for Just off to my right and ten feet below was a stout branch that I hoped would support my weight I took a deep breath and then put the torch between my teeth before punching the quick release catch of my harness As I fell the branch flashed past me and I grabbed at it with both hands and hung onto it tightly for dear life My arms felt like they had been ripped from their sockets and I quickly swung a leg over the branch and hauled myself up onto it and sat astride it while I caught my breath and tried to calm my madly racing heart I adjusted the straps securing the Sten gun to my chest then began to slide and pull myself along the branch to the trunk of the massive rainforest tree Ten minutes later I was safely on the ground none the worse for my descent except for some skin missing off my left knee which must have happened when I first hit the branches plummeting through the canopy I removed the gun from around my neck and cocking it held it at the ready as I shone the torch about in case I had fallen into the midst of a Japanese patrol as had happened on one of my rescue missions several months ago Luckily the six Japanese soldiers at the time were so startled and terrified by my sudden and noisy appearance from above I had been able to quickly despatch them with my machine gun before they could even get a shot off Luckily I was alone and breathing a sigh of relief I then searched for my survival pack with my spare ammunition medical kit water and food rations Quickly locating it near the trunk I put it on my back then pulled my compass out from beneath my shirt I always hung it from my neck on a strong piece of leather thonging so I didnt lose it as it would be easy to get hopelessly lost in the dense jungle especially when it was

overcast From the coordinates sent out to base by the radio operator of the mortally hit bomber I knew I had to maintain a course of 280 degrees from my location and walk for at least a mile or so before hopefully finding the wrecked plane and any survivors But first I had to find all of my team members before beginning the search That was usually a difficult and time consuming task as we would be scattered across the jungle in a long line We had a method of finding each other that had worked perfectly on the hundreds of missions we had so far accomplished We each had a small round tin fox whistle hanging from the dog tags around our necks and when it was blown it made the sound of a rabbit in distress To the enemy it would be just another of the hundreds of animal noises to be heard in the jungle at night but to us it was like a beacon in the night as the shrill distinctive sound carried a long way The Dingo Boys George Manville Fenn, 2020-07-30 Reproduction of the original The Dingo Boys by George Manville Fenn Follow the Morning Star Di Morrissey, 2007-11-10 From Australia's favourite storyteller with new novel The Night Tide out now Queenie and TR return in Di Morrissey's sequel to the bestselling Heart of the Dreaming Queenie Hanlon has a perfect life She's the mother of two adoring children the wealthy owner of a thriving outback station and the wife of handsome bushman TR Hamilton Then one day Queenie's perfect life comes crashing down Her bitter and vengeful brother returns from Italy to lay claim to his inheritance Her precious daughter is seduced by her uncle into giving up all Queenie's strived for And her beloved TR injured in a riding accident can no longer recall the life they once shared Follow the Morning Star is a triumphant story of courage strength and a rare and beautiful love that endures the test of time Cautionary Tales for Excitable Girls Anne Casey-Hardy, 2022-09-07 Longlisted for the 2023 Indie Book Awards Excitable girls rush out to meet life what could go wrong A masterful debut about the terrifying thrills of innocence from a voice of experience Teenagers sneak out to the creek for a wild New Year's Eve party A sleep deprived woman who imagines she is pregnant to a Viking faces her scathing sixteen year old self A woman in love wakes up in a van Gogh painting These gem like stories are about the desire to rush out and meet life about getting in over your head about danger and damage and what it means to survive and not always survive the risk of being young They chart the borderlands between girls and women daughters and mothers freedom and fear Emerging fully formed and singing songs of both innocence and experience Anne Casey Hardy is the rarest of new voices at the same time reckless and entirely in control funny and frightening wise and full blooded Praise for Cautionary Tales for Excitable Girls I find myself haunted by this innocent menacing blackly funny and fabulous book Anne Casey Hardy's writing hums with a dangerous coiled energy in sly ghostly stories of girls and women striking back lying low busting out triumphing even while sinking Casey Hardy is a raw rare talent with an unforgettable voice Charlotte Wood author of The Weekend and The Natural Way of Things Cautionary Tales for Excitable Girls buzzes with energy Anne Casey Hardy is a wonderful fiction writer Her characters are brave and full of soul In mapping the lives and the places where stories thrive Casey Hardy also touches our hearts Such a gift Tony Birch author of Dark as Last Night and The White Girl Electric irreverent haunting heart breaking one of the best short story
