Jesus And Me Teachers:

The Sunday Teacher's Treasury, 1864 Teachers' Notes on the Teachings of Jesus Christ Episcopal Church. Diocese of New York. Sunday School Commission, 1907 JESUS'S EPITHETS: "TEACHER" AND "PROPHET" Aurel-Onisim LEHACI, 2024-01-01 The book Jesus's Epithets Teacher and Prophet A Cognitive Semantics Approach to Social Roles is based on a completed PhD thesis from the Doctoral School of Languages and Cultural Identities at the University of Bucharest. It focuses on the interplay between Jesus's epithets specifically teacher and prophet using cognitive semantics as a framework for analysis. The book explores the complementarity of these roles highlighting their portrayal of Jesus's key attributes and his dual human/divine identity. Cognitive linguistics provides the perspective for delving into these social roles emphasizing their significance in understanding the complexity of Jesus's character. It shows that Jesus embodies two complementary epithets teacher and prophet representing distinct approaches to knowledge transmission either through human activity or divine intervention. The chapters systematically examine the roles of teacher and prophet employing cognitive semantics tools and exploring textual fragments. The analysis of parables as Jesus's preferred form of teaching uses metaphor and conceptual blending theories providing insights into his pedagogical endeavors. The examination of Jesus as a prophet draws upon Dahlgren's stereotypical model establishing compelling evidence for Jesus's prophetic role. The final chapter underscores the overlap between the teacher and prophet roles emphasizing the usefulness of the radial concept. It challenges the notion of sequential roles asserting that Jesus is simultaneously both a teacher and a prophet with the two functions coexisting. The book illustrates the intricate complexity of Jesus's character proving that Jesus not only fulfills but surpasses typical expectations in both roles consistently revealing his dual identity and the permanent truth of both epithets. the sunday school teachers' magazine, 1866 Teaching With Purpose "Shaping the Kingdom, One Mind At a Time" Ivory White, 2013-07-30 Teaching With Purpose allows us to recognize those teachable moments that we've missed in the past and brings to the forefront the teachable of the future. Shipton, E. Coetzee & R. Takeuchi, 2013 Christ's instruction to his disciples was to witness to others about his plan of salvation. This may be relatively easy when it involves our contemporaries and peers. But when we are working with people from a different cultural background or belief system it can be difficult or seemingly impossible. In Worldviews and Christian Education editors W. A. Shipton, E. Coetzee and R. Takeuchi have brought together works by experts in cross-cultural religious education. The authors and editors have a wealth of personal experience in presenting the gospel to individuals with various worldviews that differ greatly from those held by Christians who take the Bible as authoritative. They focus on the beliefs and issues associated with witnessing to seekers for truth coming from backgrounds as diverse as animism, Buddhism, Confucianism, Hinduism, Islam, Marxism, Taoism, and postmodernism. The emphasis is on educational settings, but the sensitivities highlighted and lessons learned are applicable to situations outside this area. Leaders, pastors, teachers, and laypersons will find valuable conceptual models, practical ideas, and bibliographic references presented here. Worldviews and Christian Education challenges all readers to be faithful to the biblical worldview and to approach everyone with sensitivity so that like the apostle Paul they may reach some.

Dispensing Truth Ron Girardin, 2020-01-22 Would you volunteer for open heart surgery, chemotherapy, or radiation treatments? Would you consider becoming severely depressed? Well, don't worry, you won't have to volunteer. Unfortunately, heart disease and cancer are the leading causes of death in the United States. If you live a normal life span, the chances are better than even money that you will experience one of the above conditions. And should you ever need to be in a hospital, will you be adequately insured, or will it be a trip to the poor house for you and your family? Even those who don't need to be hospitalized spend millions of dollars daily on prescription drugs, and yes, antidepressants are still listed among the top-selling prescription drugs in the country. If there is a loving God, then why do so many people find themselves in these kinds of situations? Would you prefer not to be in such a situation? If your doctor informed you that by reading just five or ten minutes a day for the next 30 days you could significantly lower your risk of experiencing these types of conditions, would you follow his or her advice? What if your doctor told you that your recovery was far more likely, would you listen then? Dispensing Truth addresses these issues from a biblical basis but with the unique perspective of one who is not only an ordained minister but a community pharmacist as well. The results reveal some amazing answers. Answers that provide truth, hope, and encouragement to the troubled, the sick, and to the dying. Discover for yourself a file of divine prescriptions that can restore and maintain good health.
