Revelation, Scripture and Church Richard R. Topping,2016-04-08 How does God s involvement with the generation of Holy Scripture and its use in the life of the Christian church figure into the human work of Scripture interpretation This is the central question that this book seeks to address In critical conversation with the influential hermeneutic programs of James Barr Paul Ricoeur and Hans Frei Topping demonstrates how God s agency has been marginalized in the task of Scripture interpretation Divine involvement with the Bible is bracketed out Barr rendered in generic terms Ricoeur or left implicit Frei in these depictions of the hermeneutic field The result is that each of these hermeneutic programs is less than a realist interpretative proposal Talk of God is eclipsed by the terminal consideration of human realities Topping argues for the centrality of doctrinal description in a lively theological understanding of Scripture interpretation for the life of the church

Inspired Imperfection Gregory A. Boyd,2020-01-07 In Inspired Imperfection Gregory A Boyd adds another counterintuitive and provocative thesis to his corpus While conservative scholars and pastors have struggled for years to show that the Bible is without errors Boyd considers this a fool s errand Instead he says we should embrace the mistakes and contradictions in Scripture for they show that God chose to use fallible humans to communicate timeless truths Just as God ultimately came to save humanity in the form of a human God chose to impart truth through the imperfect medium of human writing Instead of the Bible s imperfections being a reason to attack its veracity these problems actually support the trustworthiness of Christian Scripture Inspired Imperfection is required reading for anyone who s questioned the Bible because of its contradictions

Scripture and Counseling Bob Kellemen, 2014-10-07 What role does Scripture play in counseling Today we face a weakening of confidence in the Bible This is just as true for the pastor offering counsel in his office as it is for the person in the pew talking with a struggling friend We need to regain our confidence in God's living Word as sufficient to address the real life issues we face today Scripture and Counseling will help you understand how the Bible equips us to grow in counseling competence as we use it to tackle the complex issues of life Divided into two sections Part One develops a robust biblical view of Scripture's sufficiency for life and godliness leading to increased confidence in God's Word Part Two teaches how to use Scripture in the counseling process This section demonstrates how a firm grasp of the sufficiency of Scripture leads to increased competence in the ancient art of personally ministering God's Word to others Part of the Biblical Counseling Coalition series Scripture and Counseling brings you the wisdom of twenty ministry leaders who write so you can have confidence that God's Word is sufficient necessary and relevant to equip God's people to address the complex issues of life in a broken world It blends theological wisdom with practical expertise and is accessible to pastors church leaders counseling practitioners and students equipping them to minister the truth and power of God's word in the context of biblical counseling soul care spiritual direction pastoral care and small group facilitation Paulist Biblical Commentary, The

The Crucifixion of the Warrior God Gregory A. Boyd, 2017-04-17 A dramatic tension confronts every Christian believer and interpreter of Scripture on the one hand we encounter images of God commanding and engaging in horrendous violence on the other hand we encounter the non violent teachings and example of Jesus whose loving self sacrificial death and resurrection is held up as the supreme revelation of God s character in the New Testament How do we reconcile the tension between these seemingly disparate depictions Are they even capable of reconciliation Throughout Christian history many different answers have been proposed ranging from the long rejected explanation that these contrasting depictions are of two entirely different gods to recent social and cultural theories of metaphor and narrative representation The Crucifixion of the Warrior God takes up this dramatic tension and the range of proposed answers in an epic constructive investigation Over two volumes renowned theologian and biblical scholar Gregory A Boyd argues that we must take seriously the full range of Scripture as inspired including its violent depictions of God At the same time we must take just as seriously the absolute centrality of the crucified and risen Christ as the supreme revelation of God Developing a theological interpretation of Scripture that he labels a cruciform hermeneutic Boyd demonstrates how Scripture s violent images of God are completely reframed and their violence subverted when they are interpreted through the lens of the cross and resurrection Indeed when read through this lens Boyd argues that these violent depictions can be shown to bear witness to the same self sacrificial character of God that was supremely revealed on the cross
