question of this book But the task of explaining Jesus is complicated For many nonbelievers skeptics or practitioners of non Jesus based religions or spiritualities it can be very strange to refer to a particular man who lived in the first century CE as someone who is still living Even for some believers this idea can be a difficult thing to understand even given the teachings of their faith Thus whether believer or nonbeliever or somewhere in between for the intellectually curious there is need for an explanation Explaining Jesus explores the possibilities of a secular interdisciplinary science based explanation for the phenomenon of Jesus

Inventing Christic Jesuses: Rules and Warrants for Theology Charles A. Wilson, 2018-11-01 In the first comprehensive proposal for revisionist theology's deployment of historical Jesus research, Inventing Christic Jesuses rejects positions that insulate theology from Jesus research. By setting out theological methods, warrants, and rules in dialogue with an analysis of the Jesus historians of the Third Quest, c. 1980-2010, the study charts a path toward a quested Christology positioned between categorical rejection and uncritical acceptance of historical results on Jesus. Volume 1: Method analyzes the methods and values of historical research on Jesus and identifies the retrojective activity of value production when historians in conversation with historical sources invent images of Jesus. Volume 2: Christological Recommendations gathers potential contributions of Jesus research for revisionist theology according to the cataphatic, apophatic, and eminent pattern of classical theology. By attending to the limits and opportunities afforded by historical research, both negative and positive, the argument retrieves for theology the complex way that historians shape same and different association and dissociation in the production of their Jesuses. Then it analyzes how values shape Jesuses in a pervasive Narcissus project to invent a self and a community through imaging Jesus. Proposing that the disciplined invention of Jesuses is highly useful for theology, the book ends with recommendations for a quested Christology.

John Gary M. Burge, 2000 The primary goal of the NIV Application Commentary Series is to help you with the difficult but vital task of bringing an ancient's message into a modern context.

A Black Theology of Liberation James H. Cone, 2010 With the publication of his two early works, Black Theology (1969) and A Black Theology of Liberation (1970), James Cone emerged as one of the most creative and provocative theological voices in North America. These books, which offered a searing indictment of white theology and society, introduced a radical reappraisal of the Christian message for our time. Combining the visions of Malcolm X and Martin Luther King Jr., Cone radically reappraised Christianity from the perspective of the oppressed black community in North America. Forty years later, his work retains its original power, enhanced now by reflections on the evolution of his own thinking and of black theology and on the needs of the present moment.

Words of Grace Scott Patty, 2018-03-01 Words of Grace: A 100 Day Devotional is a pastor's encouragement written with a congregation in mind to build a life centered on God's Word.

Mark's Gospel: An Actological Reading Malcolm Torrey, 2022-05-19 This might look like an ordinary commentary on Mark's Gospel, but it isn't one. It understands reality as Action: actions change, diversity, movement, and the dynamic rather than as Being: beings, the unchanging, the unitary, rest, and the static. And it reads Mark's Gospel in the light of that distinctive understanding of reality. It is all about action, change, and diversity, and it understands God, Jesus, and ourselves as action, change, and diversity. The initial chapter introduces the action-based understanding of reality as action in changing patterns, an actology rather than an ontology. Then follows a section-by-section close study of the Gospel. The result is a unique and somewhat unexpected reading of the text and a distinctive theology to match.
