Harrop, 2019-06-21 As leaders our capacity to hear is often muddled by an inability to acknowledge our own insufficiencies and emotions Jesus knew his God given purpose and emotional character so deeply that he was able to operate out of these foundations boldly and instinctively Jesus's infallible Intelligence Quotient IQ and Emotional Quotient EQ allowed him to focus on a third concept called Audience Quotient AQ an individual's ability to focus consistently completely and effectively on others As a church we are failing a twenty first century culture that is defined by an unprecedented interconnectedness and speed of information We are witnessing a scramble to manipulate and manage information that demands renewed integrity and yet the church is seen as hypocritical judgmental and irrelevant If we are going to earn a voice the future church cannot be about the components of church at all but instead the individual souls within the church pastors included The better we ground ourselves in the truth of who we were created to be IQ EQ and AQ the better able we will be to love God fully and love those around us as we love ourselves That after all is what Jesus commanded us to do It's All About Jesus Mike Stonecypher, 2022-08-04 Mike Stonecypher spent thirty seven years spreading the word of God in Africa and he shares his heartfelt testimony in this book In it you will read about his inspiring encounters with Nigerian and Nigerien Christians and missionaries from around the world He highlights times of victory and of testing and how God revealed the redemptive power of Jesus over and over again He recalls serving the Lord in three schools encouraging hundreds of students and dozens of teachers to find their faith He taught English the Bible drama and writing working side by side with Nigerians Nigeriens Cameroonians Congolese Canadians British Swiss French Germans Brazilians Koreans and Americans The theme throughout is that only Jesus leads us day by day year after year bringing into our lives the people and the events that shape us Only Jesus keeps our hearts tender to His voice and the needs of those around us Some of these stories will have you laughing and rejoicing while others will burden your heart and call you to prayer In every story you will be reminded of God's profound love for humanity Official Gazette Philippines, 1963 The Church School Journal, 1896 Be the Hands and Feet Nick Vujicic, 2018 Nothing in life is as exciting and satisfying as introducing Jesus to people who have never met him New York Times bestselling author and world renowned motivational speaker Nick Vujicic is known worldwide as the man without arms and legs who personifies a can do spirit Now in greater detail he explains how the example of Jesus Christ motivates him to travel and speak broadly because the good news of the Gospel is just too good to keep quiet. Although the world has so many problems, no challenge is too great for the God who promises to move mountains. Using compelling stories from his own experience, Nick shares the heart of his message, the motivation behind all he does, and something that he believes the world needs now more than ever before: A faith in Jesus Christ that moves people to act and make the world a better place.

The Weak Church Peter Ahn, 2025-08-07. Within the heart of the modern church, a quiet crisis brews: the steady decline in church attendance, a trend acutely visible among the Gen Z cohort who holds a deep-seated yearning for authentic connection and an aspiration to thrive within a transparent community. Enter the world of The Weak Church, a groundbreaking narrative that shuns the conventional pursuit of mega-sized congregations and toxic masculinity, inviting instead a resurgence of vibrant, genuine communities through a ministry philosophy of weakness. The essence of this book reaches far beyond the realm of numerical growth. It is grounded by a singular objective: to unravel the threads connecting our culture's obsession with strength while arming church leaders with a radical philosophy of weakness. This philosophy holds the profound potential to redefine every facet of the church. As the pages unfold, you'll encounter the resounding proclamation: "My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness" (2 Corinthians 12:9), echoing through the corridors of transformation.

The View from the Border John Kotre, 2017-07-28. In this unique psychological study, John Kotre provides some startling answers to the questions Catholics are now asking about those who abandon the church, those who remain in it, and those who attempt to create a new church within the church. A detailed examination of the borderline between membership and ex-membership in the Catholic Church as perceived by young adults reared within the Catholic educational system, the book provides an impressive substantive contribution to understanding not only of the modern church but of organizational change in general. Kotre himself, a product of the Catholic educational system, positions himself amid the tension and ambiguity between those who consider themselves in and those who consider themselves out of the Catholic Church He designed a systematic questionnaire covering four hundred variables about each subject's beliefs values perceptions of parents and reasons for being an insider or an outsider Using this questionnaire he individually interviewed one hundred graduates of Catholic colleges The surprising results of this important research show that in spite of sixteen years of formal Catholic education the attitudes of both the ins and the outs are not influenced by their Catholic upbringing so much as by their primary group relationships Recent research has shown that adult Americans are leaving their childhood faiths at ever increasing rates and that the Catholic Church is suffering the greatest losses Kotre's book offers an insightful psychological perspective on this dramatic movement It is a must read for professional psychologists and sociologists theologians and people interested in the psychology and sociology of religion
