Key Concepts In Sufism 1:

Emerald Hills of the Heart M. Fethullah Gülen, 2007-04-01 This comprehensive study explores sufism as a form of self purification offering a deeper understanding of the sacred acts and a greater knowledge and love of the divine The first volume of the series presents such sufi concepts as repentance reflection self criticism asceticism piety abstinence self supervision and sincerity

Key Concepts in the Practice of Sufism Fethullah Gülen, 2004 his second compelling volume includes an introduction to the heart and its dynamics as well as detailed examination of such concepts as freedom altruism wisdom sainthood intoxication and sobriety wakefulness and the universal man

A Life in Tears Salih Yucel, 2018-12-01 Fethullah Gülen is a leading figure in the current Turkish socio political context Regardless of the impression different circles have about him he is universally acknowledged as an accomplished scholar and independent thinker who has had a life in tears dreaming of a golden generation but also a life spent in persecution and ongoing trials This book goes beyond the current controversy around his name and tries to explore Gülen as a scholar around his certain personal traits and some of the key concepts he has been emphasizing over the years to mobilize his audience Based on a research that covers over seventy books 564 sermons over 500 talks by Gülen more than fifty interviews of his close associates and friends aired on TV networks and the author's personal observations this book is a useful reference for those who study scholarly traditions of Islam in general and Fethullah Gülen in particular

A Map of the Divine Subtle Faculty Mehmet Yavuz Seker, 2015-04-07 The heart in the Islamic understanding is the expression of a human being's spiritual existence It is a Divine gift and Divine subtle faculty bestowed upon humanity It is a polished mirror reflecting God Like a general the heart commands all other bodily organs and faculties which are its troops Everything that comes from a human being whether good or bad is a product of the heart Mehmet Y. Seker a scholar of Sufism and tasawwuf studies the concept of the heart in the Islamic tradition looking at how it is approached by three prominent scholars and thinkers of Islam Ghazali Said Nursi and Fethullah Gülen Being the first in English to take as its focus the human heart from an Islamic spiritual this book comparatively analyzes classical and modern age interpretations and evaluations on the concept and adds to the rich literature of spirituality in the Islamic tradition

The Spirituality of Responsibility Simon Robinson, 2017-05-18 Turkish Islamic leader Fethullah Gülen offers a distinctive view of responsibility which is explored here for the first time Simon Robinson shows how Gülen's writings influenced by both orthodox Islam and the Sufi tradition contribute a dynamic holistic and interactive view of responsibility which locates personal identity agency and freedom in plural relationships The Spirituality of Responsibility also explores the practice of responsibility in Gülen's life and in the Hizmet movement which he founded Gülen has been at the centre of many controversies including in his Movement's relationship with the Turkish government Charting Gülen's response from the Israeli Gaza blockade through to more recent crises the book critiques aspects of both this practice and underlying ideas and argues that responsibility focused in dialogue and peace building is continuing to evolve in the leadership and practice of the movement providing a challenge to conventional views of governance and responsibility This book is an important contribution both to the theological and philosophical debate about responsibility but also to the practice of responsibility focused in creative action debates in business and contemporary society about responsible governance and enterprise

The Gulen Hizmet Movement and Its Transnational Activities Sophia Pandya,Nancy Gallagher,2012 This volume of essays on the Gulen or Hizmet service movement a Turkish Sufi Muslim and humanitarian civil society group looks at the recent activities of its followers to practice their form of Islam and carry out collective interfaith projects at the international level It adds to the newly burgeoning discourse by focusing on the ways in which participants challenge ideological and sectarian boundaries Included are essays which discuss how the movement is organized structured and institutionalized in many parts of the world explore Turkey s global influence evaluate criticisms of the movement and suggest directions for further research While most previous scholarly attention has focused on the theological and philosophical ideas of Fethullah Gulen the movement s inspirational figure less attention has been paid to the ways in which participants have interpreted and carried out Gulen s messages in the contemporary world

Islamic Spirituality Zeki Saritoprak,2017-11-30 Islamic Spirituality Theology and Practice for the Modern World examines and explores the inner dimension of Islam The writings of important figures in the historical development of Islamic spirituality are examined as well as the major sources of religious authority in Islam the Qur an and Hadith Both classical Sufis and Sufism are explored as well as contemporary mystics Key figures discussed include medieval Islamic theologian al Ghazali d 1111 and Said Nursi d 1960 arguably one of the most important modern theologians in the Islamic spiritual tradition Discussing both historical and contemporary dimensions of Islamic spirituality allows the author to ground classical Sufi texts in contemporary ideas and practices Exploring spirituality in relation to key contemporary issues such as ecology Zeki Saritoprak demonstrates how when and where people can practice Islamic spirituality in the Modern world Providing an overview of the intellectual and theological basis of Islamic spirituality and including the author s own translations of a selection of key texts this volume is ideal reading for courses exploring Islamic spirituality and mysticism and anyone interested in the spiritual practices of nearly a quarter of the world s population

Dreams Beyond Time Lee Irwin,2022-05-04 Dreams Beyond Time On Sacred Encounter and Spiritual Transformation offers readers an overview of dreams research as applied to non ordinary dreams Lee Irwin describes four basic types of dreaming normative mythic psychic and transpersonal and he illustrates each type with specific dream examples These types of dreaming are then used as a lens to look more closely at additional dream types that indicate dreaming as a process of creative discovery Through virtual dreaming encounters latent human potentials are revealed and suggest aspects for spiritual development based on dream recording interpretation and analysis In turn this leads to a metaphysical description that is pan sentient illustrating a vivid living universe of process becoming in which certain dream types reveal mythic psychic and transpersonal capacities as intrinsic to a deeper more awakened sense of intersubjective self awareness While dream theories from many diverse authors are explored the author uses an existential and phenomenological method to analyze dreaming contents in relationship to altered states of mind trance out of body and near death experience meditation imagination and stages of lucid self awareness Transpersonal dreams are given considerable attention in relationship to mystical traditions paranormal research and the comparative anthropology of self

The House of Service David Tittensor, 2014 David Tittensor offers a groundbreaking new perspective on the G len movement a Turkish Muslim educational activist network that emerged in the 1960s and has grown into a global empire with an estimated worth of 25 billion Named after its leader Fethullah G len the movement has established more than 1 000 secular educational institutions in over 140 countries aiming to provide holistic education that incorporates both spirituality and the secular sciences Despite the movement s success little is known about how its schools are run or how Islam is operationalized Drawing on thirteen months of ethnographic fieldwork in Turkey Tittensor explores the movement s ideo theology and how it is practiced in the schools His interviews with both teachers and graduates from Africa Indonesia Central Asia and Turkey show that the movement is a missionary organization but of a singular kind its goal is not simply widespread religious conversion but a quest to recoup those Muslims who have apparently lost their way and to show non Muslims that Muslims can embrace modernity and integrate into the wider community Tittensor also examines the movement s operational side and shows how the schools represent an example of Mohammad Yunus s social business model a business with a social cause at its heart The House of Service is an insightful exploration of one of the world s largest transnational Muslim associations and will be invaluable for those seeking to understand how Islam will be perceived and practiced in the future

Calling to Good Fethullah Gulen, 2024-02-09 Call to good and prevent wrong amr bil ma ruf wa nahy an al munkar Depending on the translations within the Qur anic contexts calling to good may be rendered as promoting the right just honorable righteous behavior and virtue whereas preventing wrong is forbidding what is evil dishonorable and vice The Qur an urges believers to embrace this duty individually and collectively and praises them when they practice this obligation Al Imran 3 104 110 This duty is meant to encourage righteous behavior and discourage immorality and aims to remove oppression from society and instead establish justice It should ideally be the distinguishing trait of a Muslim community as it applies to the moral social political and economic facets of life Calling to good and preventing wrong can be classified as a duty in the framework of teaching others about faith tabligh Literally meaning to reach out or to convey tabligh is directed to raise the consciousness among people about their responsibility towards religion It disseminates knowledge about living one s faith in a principled way Therefore any discourse or any act that conveys communicates reminds promotes or publishes the teachings and commands of God to the unknowing or to the less informed or any discourse or act that discourages or prevents people from being wrong unjust or evil comes under the meaning of this word tabligh Rooted deeply in the Qur an hadith and commentaries of notable scholars the book in your hands is a precious resource to comprehend the context and dynamics that make spiritual mentoring and guidance an important part of a faithful life The content of the book consists of transcripts of a series of sermons M Fethullah G len delivered early in his career as a preacher While presenting extensive commentary based on examples from the time of Prophet Muhammad peace be upon him and Rightly Guided Caliphs G len does so with awareness of the realities of the modern era especially with regards to being free from political interests and keeping the scope as wide as possible so to embrace the whole of humanity The book supports the idea that spiritual mentoring and guidance is an important duty and highlights some principles mentors should take into consideration While being an essential reference for mentors and counselors in the Muslim community the book offers many universal principles that all faith communities can benefit from and refer to in their services

Philosophical Sufism Mukhtar H. Ali, 2021-07-28 Analyzing the intersection between Sufism and philosophy this volume is a sweeping examination of the mystical philosophy of Mu y l D n Ibn al Arab d 637 1240 one of the most influential and original thinkers of the Islamic world This book systematically covers Ibn al Arab s ontology theology epistemology teleology spiritual anthropology and eschatology While philosophy uses deductive reasoning to discover the fundamental nature of existence and Sufism relies on spiritual experience it was not until the school of Ibn al Arab that philosophy and Sufism converged into a single framework by elaborating spiritual doctrines in precise philosophical language Contextualizing the historical development of Ibn al Arab s school the work draws from the earliest commentators of Ibn al Arab s oeuvre adr al D n al Q naw d 673 1274 Abd al Razz q al K sh n d ca 730 1330 and Daw d al Qay ar d 751 1350 but also draws from the medieval heirs of his doctrines Sayyid aydar mul d 787 1385 the pivotal intellectual and mystical figure of Persia who recast philosophical Sufism within the framework of Twelver Sh ism and Abd al Ra m n J m d 898 1492 the key figure in the dissemination of Ibn al Arab s ideas in the Persianate world as well as the Ottoman Empire India China and East Asia via Central Asia Lucidly written and comprehensive in scope with careful treatments of the key authors Philosophical Sufism is a highly accessible introductory text for students and researchers interested in Islam philosophy religion and the Middle East

Historical Dictionary of Sufism John Renard, 2015-11-19 The most broadly accepted explanation of Sufism i the etymological derivation of the term from the Arabic for wool uf associating practitioners with a preference for poor rough clothing This explanation clearly identifies Sufism with ascetical practice and the importance of manifesting spiritual poverty through material poverty In fact some of the earliest Western descriptions of individuals now widely associated with the larger phenomenon of Sufism identified them with the Arabic term faqir mendicant or its most common Persian equivalent darwish Sufism as presented here embraces a host of features including the ritual institutional psychological hermeneutical artistic literary ethical and epistemological This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Sufism contains a chronology an introduction a glossary and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 1 000 cross referenced entries on important personalities major historical figures and movements practices economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Sufism Gender and Medieval Mysticism from India to Europe Alexandra Verini, Abir Bazaz, 2023-09-29 This book opens up a dialogue between pre modern women identified as mystics in diverse locations from South Asia to Europe It considers how women from the disparate religious traditions of Hinduism Islam and Christianity expressed devotion in parallel ways The argument is that women s mysticism demands to be compared not because of any essential female experience of the divine but because the parallel positions of marginalization that pre modern women experienced led them to deploy intimate encounters with the divine to speak publicly and claim authority The topics covered range from the Sufi devotional tradition of Sidis Indians of African ancestry to the Bhakti poet M r ba and the nuns of Barking Abbey Collectively the chapters show how mysticism allowed premodern women to speak and act by unsettling traditional gender roles and expectations for religious behavior At the same time as uncovering connections the juxtaposition of women from different traditions serves to highlight distinctive features The book draws on a range of disciplinary expertise and will be of particular interest to scholars of medieval religion and theology as well as history and literary studies The Safavid World Rudi Matthee, 2021-07-21 The Safavid World brings together thirty chapters on many aspects of the complex Safavid state 1501 1722 With the latest insights and arguments some offer overviews of the period or topic at hand and others present new interpretations of old questions based on newly found sources In addition to political history and religious life the chapters in this volume cover economic conditions commercial links and activities social relations and artistic expressions They do so in ways that stretch both the temporal and geographical perimeters of the subject and contributors also examine Safavid Iran with an eye to both its Mongol and Timurid antecedents and its long afterlife following the fall of the dynasty Unlike traditional scholarship which tended to view the country as unique sui generis and barely affected by the outside world The Safavid World situates Iran in a wider regional or global context Examining the Safavids from their foundations in the fourteenth century to their relations with the rest of the world in the eighteenth century this study is essential reading for undergraduates postgraduates and scholars of the Safavid world and the history and culture of Iran and the Middle East

The Comfort of the Mystics Gerhard Böwering, Bilal Orfali, 2015-01-08 This critical Arabic text edition of Salwat al rif n wa uns al musht q n a manual of early Sufism by Ab Khalaf al abar d ca 470 1077 is based on a very old manuscript preserved in D r al Kutub al Mi r ya of Cairo Egypt and copied in 459 1067 It is introduced by a detailed analytical study of the author and his work Salwat al rif n forms an integral part of Sufi literature and reflects Islamic developments in Nishapur in northeastern Iran This crucial Arabic text published for the first time is especially valuable because of its great philological accuracy and sound textual tradition It represents an essential source for the intellectual history of Islam during the middle of the 4th 10th to the middle of the 5th 11th century Muslim Citizens of the Globalized World Robert Hunt, Yuksel Aslandogan, 2007-12-01 Exploring the response and contributions of Muslims and Turkish Muslims to globalization including areas such as democratization scientific revolution changing gender roles and religious diversity this study identifies the common values and visions of peace Muslims share This study places specific analysis on the Glen movement a growing approach to the reunification of faith and reason with hopes for a peaceful coexistence between liberal democracies and the religiously diverse

A Christian-Muslim Comparative Theology of Saints Hans A. Harmakaputra,2022-09-19 In A Christian Muslim Comparative Theology of Saints The Community of God s Friends Hans A Harmakaputra focuses on a question that emerges from today s multi faith context Is it possible for Christians to recognize non Christians as saints To answer affirmatively he offers a Christian perspective on an inclusive theology of saints through the lens of comparative theology that is based on the thought of Catholic Protestant and Muslim theologians Karl Rahner Jean Luc Marion Elizabeth Johnson Dietrich Bonhoeffer Paul Tillich and Ibn Arab As a result of this interreligious comparison three theological constructs emerge 1 saints as manifestations and revealers of God s self communication 2 the hiddenness of saints and 3 saints as companions These theological constructs redefine and reconfigure Christian understanding of saints on one hand and on the other hand provide theological reasoning to include non Christians in the Christian notion of the communion of saints

Fethullah Gulen Jon Pahl,2019-04-22 In this first critical biography of Fethullah Gulen in English historian Jon Pahl takes us on a journey where we discover wisdom and controversy from 1940 s Turkey to the U S in the twenty first century Pahl tells the story of a pious Muslim boy from a tiny and remote Turkish village who on the one hand has inspired a global movement of millions of individuals dedicated to literacy social enterprise and interreligious dialogue but who on the other hand has been monitored by Turkish police seen as a threat by autocrats and recently declared number one enemy by the current Turkish dictator With lively prose and extensive research Pahl traces Fethullah Gulen s life and thought in its contexts states clearly his own positions and then lets readers draw their own conclusions from the evidence about this undeniably significant historical figure

Sufi Political Thought Milad Milani,2017-11-06 Sufism is generally perceived as being spiritually focused and about the development of the self However Sufi orders have been involved historically as important civic and political actors in the Muslim world having participated extensively in inter faith dialogue and political challenges to religious orthodoxy This book presents a comprehensive overview of the Sufi political tradition both historically and in its present form It outlines how Sufi thought has developed examines how Sufism has been presented both by scholars and by Sufis themselves and considers Sufis active political roles It argues that Sufis frequently well educated well travelled and imaginative have been well placed to engage with other faiths and absorb their ideas into Islam but that they have also been because they understand other faiths well placed to understand the distinctiveness of Islam and thereby act as the guardians of Islam's core ideas and values
