worldviews and epistemologies throughout each stage of the research process A practical complementary text to the theoretical Indigenous Knowledge Systems and Research Methodologies Global Encounters Paoi Hwang □,2013-01-01 Taiwan's status as an island surrounded by powerful nation states has forced upon it a history of permeable borders and an ever fluctuating cultural subjectivity Originally inhabited by Austronesian tribal peoples the island has over the centuries fallen under the political economic and cultural influences of the Spanish Dutch Japanese and Chinese occupiers Globalization has further transformed and complicated Taiwan's vistas of political reforms cultural productions and ethnic re composition Such gradual but radical transformation has in countless ways encouraged the nation state identity and identification to vacillate between insularism and globalization This collection is an example of the multitude of voices that speak for Taiwan These selected essays contributed by scholars from different countries Canada Hong Kong Singapore Taiwan UK and USA engage with the debates on Taiwan's identity and nationhood while also attempting to step beyond the nationalistic frame Whereas the openness to new ideas may alter our perspectives this collection reminds us to embrace external influences without forgetting to celebrate our unbroken unique historical legacy Rautahi: The Maoris of New Zealand Joan Metge,2013-09-13 A comprehensive study of the Maori in New Zealand this book covers Maori history and culture language and art and includes chapters on the following Basic concepts in Maori culture Land Kinship Education Association Leadership social control The Marae Hui Maori and Pakeha Maori spelling and pronunciation There is an extensive glossary bibliography and index First published in 1967 This edition reprints the revised edition of 1976 Safe, Supportive, and Inclusive Learning Environments for Young People in Crisis and Trauma Patty Towl,Sheryl A. Hemphill,2020-06-02 Children and young people from diverse populations are statistically more at risk of exclusion however education providers can make a difference to all children and young persons learning outcomes no matter what their personal circumstances To achieve this not only must educators form closer and more authentic relationships with these children and their communities but the governments that fund learning environments must also be prepared to provide adequate resourcing and training opportunities Safe Supportive and Inclusive Learning Environments for Young People in Crisis and Trauma addresses both the general and specific issues that may prevent children and young people from diverse populations from being safe supported and included in learning environments Some chapters focus on general factors that contribute to both inclusion and exclusion at early childhood and in formal school environments while others present research based best practice and practical advice to enable good education outcomes for indigenous migrant and LGBTQI children and those who experience mental health problems drug misuse and abuse Lastly the book includes information about how to negotiate and set up programmes that have been shown to be effective with communities that differ from the dominant culture This book provides practitioners in education health and social work with information and practical advice on how to retain all children and young people in early childhood formal school education and tertiary settings Mediating

Across Difference Morgan J. Brigg, Roland Bleiker, 2011-01-31 Mediating Across Difference is based on a fundamental premise to deal adequately with conflict and particularly with conflict stemming from cultural and other differences requires genuine openness to different cultural practices and dialogue between different ways of knowing and being Equally essential is a shift away from understanding cultural difference as an inevitable source of conflict and the development of a more critical attitude toward previously under examined Western assumptions about conflict and its resolution To address the ensuing challenges this book introduces and explores some of the rich insights into conflict resolution emanating from Asia and Oceania Although often overlooked these local traditions offer a range of useful ways of thinking about and dealing with difference and conflict in a globalizing world To bring these traditions into exchange with mainstream Western conflict resolution the editors present the results of collaborative work between experienced scholars and culturally knowledgeable practitioners from numerous parts of Asia and Oceania The result is a series of interventions that challenge conventional Western notions of conflict resolution and provide academics policy makers diplomats mediators and local conflict workers with new possibilities to approach prevent and resolve conflict Contributors Roland Bleiker Volker Boege Morgan Brigg Stephen Chan Frans de Jalong Sr Lorraine Garasu Mary Graham Hoang Young ju Carwyn Jones Joy Kere Debra McDougall Norifumi Namatame Chengxin Pan Oliver Richmond Deborah Bird Rose Muhadi Sugiono Tarja V yrynen Polly O Walker Jacqueline Wasilewski

Gender and Power in the Pacific Katarina Ferro, Margit Wolfsberger, 2003 Women from the Pacific Islands are often perceived by Europeans as passive beauties dancing the hula with a flower in their hair as docile companions of European or local men or as naive personalities surrounded by an endangered environment But far from that male Western reception of women s status which can be found in documentaries motion pictures as well as travel and adventure literature women are active and resolute agents who self confidently shape their societies through their courageous and determined acting in public as well as in their communities The current volume of Novara Contributions to Research on the Pacific wants to deliver insights into the lives of women from the Pacific Islands and shows how they deal with shifting gender relations in changing societies Traditions and adjustment processes to changing living conditions of women and men in Papua New Guinea Palau and New Zealand present fascinating research fields which open up the view to new living models apart from Western gender concepts
