Andreopoulos, 2002 Although the celebrations surrounding the fiftieth anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights UDHR highlighted some remarkable achievements in the human rights movement the international community must remain cognizant of a whole new array of unprecedented challenges These challenges relate to the relevance of the conceptual framework within which the human rights movement has been operating as well as to the need for effective strategies of promotion and protection Rights and Conflict Julie Mertus, Jeffrey W. Helsing, 2006 Human rights and conflict is divided into three parts each capturing the role played by human rights at a different stage in the conflict cycle Beyond Provincialism Mahmoud Suleiman, Tonya Huber, 2022-08-01 International Education Inquiries is a book series dedicated to realizing the global vision of Education 2030 This vision involves ensuring inclusive and equitable quality education and promoting lifelong learning opportunities for all The founding editors seek to provide a forum for the diverse voices of scholars and practitioners from across the globe asking questions about transforming the vision of Education 2030 into a reality Published chapters will reflect a variety of formats free of methodological restrictions involving disciplinary as well as interdisciplinary inquiries We expect the series will be a leading forum for pioneers redefining the global discussion about the people places and perspectives shaping Education 2030 outcomes ENDORSEMENTS The educational impact of the COVID 19 pandemic has created the most serious crisis in the history of public education Addressing this crisis effectively will require efforts aligned with an inclusive and sustainable vision of development such as articulated by the UN Education 2030 and the Sustainable Development Goals To build back better educators need to guide their practice by knowledge that is local as well as global in ways that help their students understand those interdependencies Beyond Provincialism is an invitation to such an exploration In this edited volume Professors Mahmoud Suleiman and Tonya Huber and their colleagues take the reader on a journey that illuminates the impact of hunger among college students in America how the SDGs can help turnaround high poverty schools the role of curriculum to promote cross national collaboration and how math and science instruction as well as study abroad can help students develop procedural and conceptual knowledge that makes visible the relevance of what they learn to the world around them and the impact of the pandemic on teacher preparation in Palestine The kaleidoscope of insights offered by this book will expand the global awareness and understanding of education as a global activity A timely and useful resource for teachers and teacher educators that will contribute to advance a transformational education that helps us build back better from the devastation created by the pandemic Fernando M Reimers Harvard Graduate School of Education Suleiman and Huber convene a dynamic group of scholars committed to transforming our schools Using the latest theories and methodological approaches Beyond Provincialism offers crucial frameworks to understand teaching and learning in a global perspective This groundbreaking volume wholeheartedly embraces the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs and calls upon all of us to simultaneously dismantle systemic inequality and promote equity and social justice in pre K 20 schools across nations and their institutions It's simply a must read book especially for practitioners educators reformers researchers and policy makers who seek to internationalize education and take it beyond its cursory provincial goals Gilberto Q Conchas Wayne K and Anita Woolfolk Hoy Pennsylvania State University At a time when proponents of diversity equity and inclusion are under attack it is valuable to examine Beyond Provincialism to see how far we still need to go to reform schools and invest in teacher educator and leader preparation Grounded in solid frameworks this timely and informative book astutely provides insights from forceful practitioners scholars and researchers whose fascinating experiences and models have practical implications for promoting global multicultural competencies needed to combat racist mindsets and provincial outlooks Based on Education 2030 vision the book provides a thoughtful blueprint for integrating international and global dimensions in teacher and educator preparation Ken Magdaleno Center for Leadership Equity and Research CLEAR
