Mednicov, 2024-03-05 This volume focuses on Jewish American identity within the context of Pop art in New York City during the sixties to reveal the multivalent identities and selves often ignored in Pop scholarship Melissa L Mednicov establishes her study within the context of prominent Jewish artists dealers institutions and collectors in New York City in the Pop sixties Mednicov incorporates the historiography of Jewish identity in Pop art the ways by which identity is named or silenced to better understand how Pop art made or marked different modes of identity in the sixties By looking at a nexus of the art world in this period and the ways in which Jewish identity was registered or negated Mednicov is able to further consider questions about the ways mass culture influenced Pop art and its participants and to a larger extent formed further modes of identity The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history Jewish studies and American studies Jim Dine, Some Drawings Jim Dine, Stephanie Wiles, Vincent Katz, 2005 This book of 85 drawings by Jim Dine illustrates the range and mastery of the artist s draftsmanship over more than four decades The variety and breadth of the selection shows the intense way Dine observes the world around him and the excitement with which he records it on paper Dine has said that his ability to draw is both a privilege and the result of hard physical training compelling him to move inexorably forward to capture the next idea or the next psychological insight in drawings that are extraordinarily human The selection includes early tool pencil drawings and collages as well as powerful portrait and figure studies in a variety of media Also included are large painterly pastels executed with a bravura that places them somewhere between painting and drawing Dine sees his paintings and drawings as essentially conceived and developed in the same way requiring the same amount of time emotion and physicality of medium The only difference in the end is that the drawings are on paper Jim Dine Jim Dine, 2007 Aldo et moi is a record of the 115 etchings Jim Dine made from 1975 1997 with the printer Aldo Crommelynck in Paris In honor of their long friendship Jim Dine has given the Biblioth que Nationale de France a complete set of prints and the library will mount an exhibition of the donation from April as a homage to their 20 years collaboration Art and the Home Imogen Racz, 2015-01-26 Our homes contain us but they are also within us They can represent places to be ourselves to recollect childhood memories or to withdraw into adult spaces of intimacy they can be sites for developing rituals family relationships and acting out cultural expectations Like the personal social and cultural elements out of which they are constructed homes can be not only comforting but threatening too The home is a rich theme running through post war western art and it continues to engage contemporary artists today yet it has been the subject of relatively little critical writing Art and the Home Comfort Alienation and the Everyday is the first single authored up to date book on the subject Imogen Racz provides a theme led discussion about how the physical experience of the dwelling space and the psychological complexities of the domestic are manifested in art focusing mainly on sculpture installation and object based practice discussing the work and ideas of artists as diverse as Louise Bourgeois Gordon Matta Clark George Segal and Cornelia Parker within their artistic and cultural contexts Modern Art Museum of Fort Worth 110 Modern Art Museum of Fort Worth, Michael Auping, 2002 Together they present a broad range of styles and media from oil acrylic and mixed media paintings and drawings to photography sculpture installation art and video and digital imagery Ausstellung U.d.T.: L'odyssée de Jim Dine : Estampes 1985 - 2006 Jim Dine, Caroline Joubert, 2007 The practice of American artist Jim Dine has always included a diverse array of print media and this survey brings together more than 200 works covering a 20 year period Happenings Mildred L. Glimcher, 2012-02-21 In early October 1959 thirty two year old Allan Kaprow presented a performance piece entitled 18 Happenings in 6 Parts This unique conjunction of visual aural and physical events performed for an intimate art world audience by his friends and colleagues would change the course of art history The genre of artwork that evolved from this debut would become known as Happenings Author Mildred Glimcher an art historian author and close observer of contemporary art for more than fifty years provides a vivid and comprehensive look not only at the events but also at the culture and society that surrounded it This new volume provides a comprehensive look at this revolutionary art form Prepared in conjunction with an exhibition at the Pace Gallery in New York it focuses on the years that saw the movement's birth in New York and Provincetown Mass and the artists who made the genre a legend Red Grooms Allan Kaprow Robert Whitman Jim Dine Claes Oldenburg Simone Forti Carolee Schneemann Together they created a new and outrageous art form with an anything goes attitude one whose influence is still felt within the contemporary art world Glimcher visits the formative years of the movement in great detail describing each performance piece in words and photographs The radical nature of the time and the works is evidenced by Red Grooms's The Burning Building Claes Oldenburg's Ray Gun Spex Jim Dine's A Shining Bed and many more Happenings is heavily illustrated with photographs from the era many drawn from a previously unpublished cache by Robert McElroy Color Chart Ann Temkin, 2008 Color Chart celebrates a paradox the lush beauty that results when contemporary artists assign colour decisions to chance readymade source or arbitrary system Midway through the 20th century long held convictions regarding the spiritual truth or scientific validity of particular colours gave way to an excitement about colour as a mass produced and standardized commercial product The Romantic quest for personal expression instead became Andy Warhol's I want to be a machine the artistry of mixing pigments was eclipsed by Frank Stella's Straight out of the can it can't get better than that This book and the exhibition it accompanies is the first devoted to this pivotal transformation and features work by some forty artists ranging from Ellsworth Kelly and Gerhard
