In this companion book to Heaven and Hell David Pawson continues with the subject of the life to come which despite being integral to the Christian faith is too often neglected David considers the biblical teaching on the last things death judgment heaven and hell and the challenges posed to the Christian in the modern world In doing so he asks penetrating questions such as What does the Bible teach about resurrection What happens immediately after death Did Jesus really go to hell The book also features interviews with two professionals whose work has brought them face to face with bereavement a doctor and a funeral director In response to David's searching questions they offer candid first hand accounts and insights about the challenges faced by the Christian in secular work environments and reveal ways in which their faith informs their view of mortality They also share their observations about the effects of bereavement while revealing how their belief in the life to come provides solace David also responds to a series of questions from other Christians about the afterlife In doing so he goes straight to the heart of the Christian faith often covering subjects that are overlooked or ignored in churches Some of his answers may surprise you This book an invaluable resource for newcomers to the faith and more mature Christians alike

Mortal Subjects Christina Howells, 2013-05-02 This wide ranging and challenging book explores the relationship between subjectivity and mortality as it is understood by a number of twentieth century French philosophers including Sartre Lacan Levinas and Derrida Making intricate and sometimes unexpected connections Christina Howells draws together the work of prominent thinkers from the fields of phenomenology and existentialism religious thought psychoanalysis and deconstruction focussing in particular on the relations between body and soul love and death desire and passion From Aristotle through to contemporary analytic philosophy and neuroscience the relationship between mind and body psyche and soma consciousness and brain has been persistently recalcitrant to analysis and emotion or passion is the locus where the explanatory gap is most keenly identified This problematic forms the broad backdrop to the work s primary focus on contemporary French philosophy and its attempts to understand the intimate relationship between subjectivity and mortality in the light not only of the death of the classical subject but also of the very real frailty of the subject as it lives on finite desiring embodied open to alterity and always incomplete Ultimately Howells identifies this vulnerability and finitude as the paradoxical strength of the mortal subject and as what permits its transcendence Subtle beautifully written and cogently argued this book will be invaluable for students and scholars interested in contemporary theories of subjectivity as well as for readers intrigued by the perennial connections between love and death

The Arakmbut--mythology, Spirituality, and History Andrew Gray, 1996 The Arakmbut are an indigenous people who live in the Madre de Dios region of the southeastern Peruvian rain forest Since their first encounters with missionaries in the 1950s they have shown resilience and a determination to affirm their identity in the face of many difficulties During the last fifteen years Arakmbut survival has been under threat from a goldrush that has attracted hundreds of colonists onto their territories This trilogy of books traces the ways in which the Arakmbut overcome the dangers that surround them their mythology and cultural strength their social flexibility and their capacity to incorporate non indigenous concepts and activities into their defence strategies Each area is punctuated by the constant presence of the invisible spirit which provides a seamless theme connecting the books to each other Following the Arakmbuts recommendation the author uses their three greatest myths to introduce social cultural and historical aspects of their lives He ends with a discussion of the relationship between myth and history showing how the Arakmbut recreate their myths at the dramatic moments of their history
