every day on my special journey of life He knows my every thought my every motivation my every deed he knows my ugly and he still loves me Not like the love from childhood where I had to be perfect to be accepted but an unconditional never ending love He walks hand in hand with me through every season no scales just a hand holding mine My purpose in writing is simply this that you who believe in God s Son will know beyond the shadow of a doubt that you have eternal life the reality and not the illusion And how bold and free we then become in his presence freely asking according to his will sure that he is listening And if we are confident that he is listening we know that what we have asked for is as good as ours 1 John 5 13 15
