Ken Mitchell Country Ken Mitchell, Robert Currie, 1984-01-01 Public Works for Water and Power Development and Energy Research Appropriations for Fiscal Year 1976 United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Appropriations, 1975 The Literary History of Saskatchewan David Carpenter, 2013-02 Saskatchewan's literary history is both colourful and complex. It is also mature enough to deserve a critical investigation of its roots and origins, its salient features, and its prominent players. This collection of scholarly essays conceptualized and compiled by well-known Saskatchewan novelist, essayist, and scholar David Carpenter examines the Saskatchewan literary scene from its early Aboriginal storytellers on through to the decades to the burgeoning 1970s. The dozen essays preceded by a David Carpenter introduction include such topics as Our New Storytellers, Cree Literature in Saskatchewan, The Literary Construction of Saskatchewan before 1905, Narratives of Trade Rebellion and Settlement, and The New Generation: The Seventies Remembered. Also included are special topics among them Playwriting in Saskatchewan, Feral Muse, Angelic Muse, The Poetry of Anne Szumigalski, and tribute pieces to John V. Hicks, R. D. Symons, Terrence Heath, and Alex Karras. Contributing scholars include the likes of Kristina Fagan, Jenny Kerber, Susan Gingell, Ken Mitchell, and Martin Winquist. Broadway North Mel Atkey, 2006-10-30 Did you know that the idea behind the Radio City Music Hall Rockettes was first tried out in Toronto? That Canada produced the world's longest running annual revue? Few people realize the Canadian influences that are at the heart of American and British culture. Author Mel Atkey's research for Broadway North included interviews with Norman and Elaine Campbell and Don Harron, creators of Anne of Green Gables; The Musical Mavor Moore, founder of the Charlottetown Festival; and of Spring Thaw. John Gray, author of Billy Bishop Goes to War; Ray Jessel, and Marian Grudeff, Spring Thaw writers who had success on Broadway with Baker Street; Dolores Claman, composer of the Hockey Night in Canada theme who also wrote the musicals Mr. Scrooge and Timber; and Galt MacDermot, the composer of Hair, who started out writing songs for the McGill University revue My Fur Lady. Included is the phenomenal success of The Drowsy Chaperone. Atkey also draws on his own experience as a writer and composer of musicals and tells the story of why a show that should have starred James Doohan, Star Trek's Scotty, didn't happen. Composer, lyricist, and author Mel Atkey is currently based in the U.K. Proud of his Canadian cultural roots, he has long been fascinated with the notion of a distinctive Canadian musical theatre.

"Collecting Stamps Would Have Been More Fun" Sinclair Ross, 2010-07-15 The peculiar struggles of Canadian authors are writ large in the letters of Sinclair Ross. The Canadian Encyclopedia James H. Marsh, 1999 This edition of The Canadian Encyclopedia is the largest, most comprehensive book ever published in Canada for the general reader. It is COMPLETE every aspect of Canada from its rock formations to its rock bands is represented here. It is UNABRIDGED all of the information in the four red volumes of the famous 1988 edition is contained here in this single volume. It has been EXPANDED since 1988 teams of researchers have been diligently fleshing out old entries and recording new ones as a result.

the text from 1988 has grown by 50% to over 4 000 000 words It has been UPDATED the researchers and contributors worked hard to make the information as current as possible Other words apply to this extraordinary work of scholarship AUTHORITATIVE RELIABLE and READABLE Every entry is compiled by an expert Equally important every entry is written for a Canadian reader from the Canadian point of view The finished work many years in the making and the equivalent of forty average sized books is an extraordinary storehouse of information about our country This book deserves pride of place on the bookshelf in every Canadian Home It is no accident that the cover of this book is based on the Canadian flag For the proud truth is that this volume represents a great national achievement From its formal inception in 1979 this encyclopedia has always represented a vote of faith in Canada in Canada as a separate place whose natural worlds and whose peoples and their achievements deserve to be recorded and celebrated At the start of a new century and a new millennium in an increasingly borderless corporate world that seems ever more hostile to national distinctions and aspirations this Canadian Encyclopedia is offered in a spirit of defiance and of faith in our future The statistics behind this volume are staggering The opening sixty pages list the 250 Consultants the roughly 4 000 Contributors all experts in the field they describe and the scores of researchers editors typesetters proofreaders and others who contributed their skills to this massive project The 2 640 pages incorporate over 10 000 articles and over 4 000 000 words making it the largest some might say the greatest Canadian book ever published There are of course many special features These include a map of Canada a special page comparing the key statistics of the 23 major Canadian cities maps of our cities a variety of tables and photographs and finely detailed illustrations of our wildlife not to mention the colourful informative endpapers But above all the book is encyclopedic which the Canadian Oxford Dictionary describes as embracing all branches of learning This means that with rare exceptions there is satisfaction for the reader who seeks information on any Canadian subject From the first entry A mari usque ad mare from sea to sea which is Canada s motto and a good description of this volume s range to the Zouaves who mustered in Quebec to fight for the beleaguered Papacy there is the required summary of information clearly and accurately presented For the browser the constant variety of entries and the lure of regular cross references will provide hours of fascination The word encyclopedia derives from Greek expressions alluding to a grand circle of knowledge Our knowledge has expanded immeasurably since the time that one mind could encompass all that was known Yet now Canada s finest scientists academics and specialists have distilled their knowledge of our country between the covers of one volume The result is a book for every Canadian who values learning and values Canada CM ,1985 Moose Jaw John Larsen, Maurice Richard Libby, 2001 In dramatic writing and numerous archival and contemporary photos this accessible and lively coffee table book tells the story of the small prairie city with the big big reputation Despite its odd name or maybe even partially because of it Moose Jaw has had a history that is rich beyond that of most of its sister prairie cities This new and comprehensive book charts the events that make up both the city s history and its mythology the infamous River Street red light district the time

half the police force threw the other half in jail the coming of the air force training base And of course those mysterious tunnels Extensive interviews with Moose Jaw people who were witness to many of its historical highlights give the book a conversational immediacy Numerous photos from past and present along with reproductions of letters posters handbills and interesting documents present the visual record to complement the text International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2004 Europa Publications,2003 Accurate and reliable biographical information essential to anyone interested in the world of literature TheInternational Who s Who of Authors and Writersoffers invaluable information on the personalities and organizations of the literary world including many up and coming writers as well as established names With over 8 000 entries this updated edition features Concise biographical information on novelists authors playwrights columnists journalists editors and critics Biographical details of established writers as well as those who have recently risen to prominence Entries detailing career works published literary awards and prizes membership and contact addresses where available An extensive listing of major international literary awards and prizes and winners of those prizes A directory of major literary organizations and literary agents A listing of members of the American Academy of Arts and Letters West-words Moira Jean Day,2011 West words gives the reader a bird s eye view of the contemporary theatre scene across the prairies
