Going Postal: More than 'Yes' or 'No' Quinn Eades, Son Vivienne, 2018-11-15 In 2017 the queer and gender diverse community of Australia undertook an incredible campaign of everyday activism around marriage equality As individuals and collectives we shared our personal stories with our networks from social media to workplace to school playground We purged our tears and our rage documented as poems articles photos short stories status updates tweets blog posts political cartoons and short videos Many of us were shocked at the vitriol directed at us to our faces in our letter boxes and online even in secret Facebook groups Many of us were hurt by the unspoken tensions and the conversations we couldn't have with some of our nearest and dearest By the end we were truly exhausted Yes the vote was for equality Yes the legislation went through Yes we can get married now But many of us have been left wondering whether it was worth it Many of us are living with the ongoing grief of having our lives and those of our children be up for public debate Whether you are gay straight black or white or beyond reductive binaries this edited collection guides the reader through the highs and lows of the marriage equality postal vote Combining serious scholarship humour manifestos and simple tales of childhood readers are flung into the emotional melting pot that constitutes a definitive turning point in Australian queer histories These feelings are sticky and sometimes traumatic but there is also catharsis in this compilation This is also a counter archive one that consciously amplifies some of the voices that were drowned out by dominant campaigns including those that questioned the value of marriage as a patriarchal institution or resisted the we are just like you discourses that obscured complex families and queer ways of loving
