The Reference Catalogue of Current Literature, 1888 Irish Anglican Literature and Drama David Clare, 2021-05-19 This book discusses key works by important writers from Church of Ireland backgrounds from Farquhar and Swift to Beckett and Bardwell in order to demonstrate that writers from this Irish subculture have a unique socio political viewpoint which is imperfectly understood The Anglican Ascendancy was historically referred to as a middle nation between Ireland and Britain and this book is an examination of the various ways in which Irish Anglican writers have signalled their Irish British hybridity British elements in their work are pointed out but so are manifestations of their proud Irishness and what Elizabeth Bowen called her community s subtle anti Englishness Crucially this book discusses several writers often excluded from the truly Irish canon including among others Laurence Sterne Elizabeth Griffith and C S Lewis
