Exploring Japanese University English Teachers' Professional Identity Diane Hawley Nagatomo, 2012-01-30 This book contributes to the growing field of EFL teacher identity which is now recognized to influence numerous aspects of classroom teaching and of student learning It focuses on an under researched and yet highly influential group of teachers that shape English language education in Japan Japanese university English teachers In three interrelated narrative studies it examines how four relatively new teachers develop professional identity as they become members of the community of practice of university English teachers how gender impacts the professional identity of seven female professors ranging in age from their early 30s to their 60s and how one teacher's teaching practices and beliefs reflect her personal and professional identity

Native-Speakerism in Japan Stephanie Ann Houghton, Damian J. Rivers, 2013-02-19 The relative status of native and non native speaker language teachers within educational institutions has long been an issue worldwide but until recently the voices of teachers articulating their own concerns have been rare Existing work has tended to focus upon the position of non native teachers and their struggle against unfavourable comparisons with their native speaker counterparts However more recently native speaker language teachers have also been placed in the academic spotlight as interest grows in language based forms of prejudice such as native speakerism a dominant ideology prevalent within the Japanese context of English language education This innovative volume explores wide ranging issues related to native speakerism as it manifests itself in the Japanese and Italian educational contexts to show how native speaker teachers can also be the targets of multifarious forms of prejudice and discrimination in the workplace

Asia as Method in Education Studies Hongzhi Zhang, Philip Chan, Jane Kenway, 2015-02-11 Unlearning and re-inventing the theoretical frameworks of Intercultural and Asian Studies is central to this book as it is to Chen Kuan Hsing's evocative Asia as Method this book's inspirational source Chen insists that studies of Asia move beyond their paralysing fixation on the West as either a positive or negative referent and that they develop their own standpoints reference points and research agendas Asia as Method in Education Studies is therefore a provocative and suggestive exploration of educational ideas imported from the West Chen's challenge provokes the writers in this collection to consider the implications of colonial and imperialist forces for education systems policies and practices as well as for educational research itself The writers offer examples of what it means to rethink and re-examine education in Asia beyond both the Western imperialist eye and the post-colonial politics of resentment Asia as Method in Education Studies combines the diverse research of scholars from various countries of Asia as they consider for example Struggles to Construct New Research Imaginations in Response to Chen's Challenges East West Dialogue Three Cases in Chinese Educational Research Asia as a method of Complexity and Dialogue Generalizing the Self Asianizing Perspectives on International Education and the Formation of Self Against Asia-centric Methods Australia China Theoretic linguistic Knowledge Co-production Highly anticipated for its novel contemporary perspectives this book offers researchers specialising in educational studies and policy making fresh practices of thought
