Insight Into Adoption What Adoptive Parents Need To Know About The Fundamental Differences Between:

Insight Into Adoption Barbara Taylor Blomquist, 2001      20 Things Adoptive Parents Need to Succeed Sherrie Eldridge, 2009-10-27 Do I have what it takes to be a successful adoptive parent Does my child consider me a successful parent Will I ever hear my rebellious teen say I love you What tools do I need to succeed In her groundbreaking first book Twenty Things Adopted Kids Wish Their Adoptive Parents Knew Sherrie Eldridge gave voice to the very real concerns of adopted children whose unique perspectives offered unprecedented insight In this all new companion volume Eldridge goes beyond those insights and shifts her focus to parents offering them much needed encouragement and hope Speaking from her own experience as an adoptee and an expert in the field of adoption Eldridge shares proven strategies and the moving narratives of nearly one hundred adoptive families helping parents gain a deeper understanding of what is normal both for their children and themselves By first strengthening yourself as a parent you ll be able to truly listen to your child and to connect with him on every level by opening the channels of communication and keeping them open forever Then you and your child can grow closer through the practical exercises at the end of every chapter Discover how to be confident that your role in your child s life is vital and irreplaceable pass on the legacy of healthy self care by assessing and regulating your stress communicate unconditional love to your child talk candidly with your child about her adoption and her birth family teach your family how to respond positively to insensitive remarks about adoption connect with other adoptive families and build a support network plus learn to become a warrior parent settle the real parent question cope with emotional triggers what to do when you lose it celebrate the miracle of your family and much more      Brothers and Sisters in Adoption Arleta James, 2012-02-15 What about the kids already there How do they do when a child with a challenging past joins a family by adoption When experienced parents decide to adopt an older child or a sibling group they jump through all kinds of bureaucratic hoops background checks interviews group meetings reading assignments classes etc But most often the typically developing children these adults are already parenting whether through birth or adoption are left out of the process informed that a new kid is coming and simply expected to adjust to the addition of another sibling The addition of a child with a history of neglect or trauma cannot be a seamless transition The expectations of everyone involved parents new siblings and yes professionals facilitating the adoption must be realistic taking into account that the new child will need special attention that may take away time and attention from the already resident kids that family life is likely to be turned topsy turvy until appropriate counseling and support are in place that relationships will change Therapist Arleta James is certainly not the first person to recognize this but she is the first to do something about it Brothers and Sisters in Adoption offers insights and examples and sturdy practical proven tools for helping newly configured families prepare accept react and mobilize to become a new and different family meeting the practical physical and emotional needs of all its members These well prepared and supported families are the ones who thrive      Kinship by Design Ellen Herman, 2009-08-01 What constitutes a family Tracing the dramatic evolution of Americans answer to this question over the past century Kinship by Design provides the fullest account to date of modern adoption s history Beginning in the early 1900s when children were still transferred between households by a variety of unregulated private arrangements Ellen Herman details efforts by the U S Children s Bureau and the Child Welfare League of America to establish adoption standards in law and practice She goes on to trace Americans shifting ideas about matching children with physically or intellectually similar parents revealing how research in developmental science and technology shaped adoption as it navigated the nature nurture debate Concluding with an insightful analysis of the revolution that ushered in special needs transracial and international adoptions Kinship by Design ultimately situates the practice as both a different way to make a family and a universal story about love loss identity and belonging In doing so this volume provides a new vantage point from which to view twentieth century America revealing as much about social welfare statecraft and science as it does about childhood family and private life Journal of Education for Social Work ,2004 Journal of Social Casework ,2005 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2001-08 Performing Metaphoric Creativity across Modes and Contexts Laura Hidalgo-Downing,Blanca Kraljevic Mujic,2020-06-15 The creative potentiality of metaphor is one of the central themes in research on creativity The present volume offers a space for the interdisciplinary discussion of the relationship between metaphor and creativity by focusing on re contextualization across modes and socio cultural contexts and on the performative dimension of creative discourse practices The volume brings together insights from Conceptual Metaphor Theory Critical Discourse approaches to metaphor and Multimodal discourse analysis Creativity as a process is explored in how it emerges in the flow of experience when talking about or reacting to creative acts such as dance painting or music and in subjects responses to advertisements in experimental studies Creativity as product is explored by analyzing the choice occurrence and patterning of creative metaphors in various types of multimodal and multisensorial discourses such as political cartoons satire films children s storybooks music and songs videos scientific discourse architectural reviews and the performance of classical Indian rasa Adoption in a Color-blind Society Pamela Anne Quiroz,2007 Adoption in a Color blind Society illustrates how the political economy of private domestic adoption intersects with the political economy of racism to generate quite different demands for infants and children of different races and how the private adoption arena responds to these demands This book argues that rather than moving towards a color blind democracy we instead live in a context where race continues to matter substantially particularly in arenas closest to home Family Storytelling Jody Koenig Kellas,2013-09-13 Stories and storytelling are one of the primary ways that families and family members make sense of both everyday and difficult events create a sense of individual and group identity remember connect generations and establish guidelines for family behavior With so many important functions storytelling is a significant but still understudied communicative process for the family Family Storytelling focuses on the ways in which stories are told in and about family in order to provide insight into the processes functions and consequences of family storytelling This collection of empirical articles illuminates various ways in which family storytelling affects and reflects the negotiation of individual and relational identity in the family teaches important family lessons and helps members make sense of and cope with difficulty Each of these functions is explored through both scientific and interpretive investigations thus showcasing the contributions that research on family storytelling from different paradigms make to our understanding of the family This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Family Communication Voices from the Silent Cradles Mariela Neagu,2021-07-30 In 1990 disturbing television footage emerged showing the inhumane conditions in which children in Romanian institutions were living Viewers were shocked that the babies were silent The so called Romanian orphans became subjects of several international research studies In parallel Romania had to reform its child protection system in order to become a member of the European Union This book sheds light on the lived experiences of these children who had become adults by the time the country joined the EU Uniquely the book brings together the accounts of those who stayed in institutions those who grew up in foster care and those who were adopted both in Romania and internationally Their narratives challenge stereotypes about these types of care

Techno-Orientalism 2.0 David S. Roh,Betsy Huang,Greta Aiyu Niu,Christopher T. Fan,Greta A. Niu,2025-07-15 Building on the groundbreaking Techno Orientalism Imagining Asia in Speculative Fiction History and Media published by Rutgers University Press in 2015 Techno Orientalism 2 0 New Intersections and Interventions addresses the impact of a volatile post pandemic present on speculative futures by and about Asians The backdrop of this highly anticipated follow up is a world that is radically different than in 2015 COVID 19 threats of a new cold war with China Russia s invasion of Ukraine and the reemergence of strong man politics around the world An essential volume for this new critical juncture in Asian American history Techno Orientalism 2 0 catalogs intersectional dialogue with discourses such as Afrofuturism Indigenous futurities environmentalism and disability studies It also engages with recent high profile and lesser known works of Asian and Asian American speculative fiction film television anime art music journalism architecture state sponsored policies and infrastructural projects and the now dominant China Panic Child Survivors of Genocide Shirley A. Heying,2022-06-27 Child Survivors of Genocide Trauma Resilience and Identity in Guatemala presents mixed method comparative ethnographic research conducted with orphaned child survivors who are now adults These survivors were orphaned during Guatemala s thirty six year internal armed conflict and particularly during the heightened period of genocide from 1978 to 1983 referred to as la violencia Raised for the majority of their childhoods in a family style permanent residential home in the highlands region the author examines the long term consequences that these individuals have faced not only from grieving the loss of their parents and family members but also because of their orphan status While they suffer from lasting trauma these child survivors have become resilient well adapted adults with a strong internalized sense of ethnic identity They also engage in creative and transformative practices regarding ethnic identity and belonging that have contributed to their abilities to adapt to their life circumstances in positive constructive ways and have expanded what it means to be Maya Indigenous Guatemalans today Child survivors experiences offer inspiration justify expanded research with child survivors as their own distinct survivor group and warrant reconsideration of in country residential care when other forms of loving nurturing in country care are unavailable      Encyclopedia of Social Work ,1965      Fifth International Congress of Chinese Mathematicians Lizhen Ji,2012 This two part volume represents the proceedings of the Fifth International Congress of Chinese Mathematicians held at Tsinghua University Beijing in December 2010 The Congress brought together eminent Chinese and overseas mathematicians to discuss the latest developments in pure and applied mathematics Included are 60 papers based on lectures given at the conference      Resources in Education ,1998      Idea Industry ,2008      Child Welfare Services United States.
