Adolescent Portraits Andrew Garrod, 1999 A case book for students in courses on adolescent development Each case was written and revised by an undergraduate or very recent graduate recalling their adolescence Cases represent a cross section of ethnicities class backgrounds and experiences This third edition includes three new cases

Adolescent Portraits Andrew C. Garrod, Robert Kilkenny, 2022-04-25 Adolescent Portraits introduces contemporary theories and research that surround adolescent development today through eighteen first person accounts written by young adults The case study approach of the book illustrates the complexity of the individual experience and the interactions among an individual s needs ideas relationships and context Each case taken alone helps us begin to know one more adolescent and his or her experience taken together the cases provide a rich overview of the wide diverse and complex range of adolescent experiences This edition also includes three follow up essays written five or more years after their original memoir The authors of these follow ups reflect on their original story written in late adolescence from the more mature point of view of full fledged adulthood These retrospectives provide a poignant and lifespan developmental perspective on the ways in which the adolescent themes of identity and challenges transform for better or worse with the tasks of adulthood With contributions from adolescents from a range of racial class and family backgrounds the book provides a diverse introduction to the adolescent experience It is a must read for any student of adolescent development Crossing Customs Jay Davis, Andrew Garrod, 2013-09-13 In this collection of essays 13 foreign exchange students write their compelling stories detailing their experiences studying at Dartmouth College They not only convey their own joys and sorrows but illuminate U S culture from a perspective not seen by many American students or citizens Balancing Two Worlds Andrew Garrod, Robert Kilkenney, 2007 Balancing Two Worlds highlights themes surrounding the creation of Asian American identity This book contains fourteen first person narratives by Asian American college students most of whom have graduated during the first five years of the twenty first century Their engaging accounts detail the students very personal struggles with issues of assimilation gender religion sexuality family conflicts educational stereotypes and being labeled the model minority Some of the students relate stories drawn from their childhood and adolescent experiences while others focus more on their college experiences at Dartmouth Teaching Social Studies in Middle and Secondary Schools Candy Beal, Cheryl Mason Bolick, Peter H. Martorella, 2009 In the tradition of social studies innovator Peter Martorella this readable accessible text offers prospective teachers a comprehensive introduction to teaching social studies to middle and secondary school students With the purpose of social studies being the development of reflective competent concerned citizens the text first examines the origins and evolution of social studies and citizenship education across the United States Following this targeted chapters address the art science and craft of social studies teaching as a means for engaging learners in knowledge construction In the final section the authors look at ways to improve social studies instruction through the incorporation of emerging technologies and explore the implications of the rich cultural diversity within our nation American Book Publishing Record Cumulative 1998 R R Bowker Publishing, 1999-03 Teaching Social Studies in Middle and Secondary Schools Peter H. Martorella, Candy Beal, Cheryl Mason Bolick, 2005 This readable accessible book offers prospective teachers a comprehensive introduction to teaching social studies to middle and secondary school students With the purpose of social studies being the development of reflective competent concerned citizens the book first examines the origins and evolution of social studies and citizenship education across the United States Following this targeted chapters address the art science and craft of social studies teaching as a means for engaging learners in knowledge construction In the final section the authors look at ways to improve social studies instruction through the incorporation of emerging technology into the social studies curriculum For middle and secondary school social studies teachers Resources in Education ,1998 Adolescent Female Portraits in the American Novel 1961-1981 Jane S. Bakerman,Mary Jean DeMarr,2019-10-01 Originally published in 1983 this title lists and annotates reference sources which will help readers select primary materials useful in studies of the literary portraits of women and their societal roles The years 1961 to 1981 were set as boundaries for this volume because the author s initial research revealed that a twenty year span was a manageable unit because the novels published between those dates yielded abundant materials for such a reference work and because significant changes in the way portraits of adolescent females were being drawn took place during the period for example sex role stereotyping became a shade less prevalent young women s sexuality was discussed more forthrightly and some topics such as single women s pregnancies and lesbianism were treated more overtly sometimes less judgementally Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print 1997 Bowker Editorial Staff,R R Bowker Publishing,1996-09 Family Therapy ,1993 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1997 Cumulated Index to the Books ,1999 Book Review Index ,2006 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation
