Going Up To Sothebys:

Breakfast at Sotheby's Philip Hook, 2014-10-02 A witty journey through the wonderfully tumultuous world of art dealers and markets organized in the style of a dictionary complete with a glossary Interview Two questions are key to experiencing a work of art in a museum or exhibition 1 Do I like it 2 Who's it by You need quite a few more questions if you're in an auction room or dealer's gallery however You'll find yourself asking How much is it worth How much will it be worth in five or ten years And finally what will people think of me if they see it hanging on my wall Breakfast at Sotheby's is not only a guide to finding the answers to such questions but also a glimpse into the rarely discussed financial side of the art world Based on author Philip Hook's thirty-five years of experience in the art market the book explores various shades of artist including isms Gericault and suicides subject and style from abstract art and banality through surrealism and war wall power provenance and market weather Comic revealing piquant splendid and occasionally absurd Breakfast at Sotheby's is a book of pleasure and intelligent observation as engaged with art as it is with the world that surrounds it A breezy whimsical and often wry compendium chock full of hard won wisdom about what makes someone spend millions of dollars to buy an artwork at auction The New York Times A winner Readers will learn more about the modern art market in this simple book than in any college course Kirkus Reviews starred review *Sotheby's ...
