Crime Fiction in the City Lucy Andrew, Catherine Phelps, 2013-04-30. Crime Fiction in the City: Capital Crimes expands upon previous studies of the urban space and crime by reflecting on the treatment of the capital city, a repository of authority, national identity, and culture within crime fiction. This wide-ranging collection looks at capital cities across Europe, from the more traditional centres of power (Paris, Rome, and London) to Europe's most northern capital (Stockholm) and also considers the newly devolved capitals (Dublin, Edinburgh, and Cardiff). The texts under consideration span the nineteenth-century city mysteries to contemporary populist crime fiction. The collection opens with a reflective essay by Ian Rankin and aims to inaugurate a dialogue between Anglophone and European crime writing to explore the marginalised works of Irish and Welsh writers alongside established European crime writers and to interrogate the relationship between fact and fiction, creativity and criticism within the crime genre.
