chosen to enter this world of particles and form From our place of origin in ways that we don't readily comprehend now we knew what we were coming here to accomplish and we participated in setting this life process in motion So why not think along these same lines Why put the responsibility or blame on any one or any thing that's not a part of us On Earth we have the capacity of volition we can choose so let's assume that we had the same capacity when we resided in the spiritual realm We chose our physical body and we chose the parents we needed for the trip It doesn't seem too great a stretch to move into the idea that we chose this life in concert with our Source Inspiration can be cultivated and be a driving force throughout life rather than showing up every now and then and just as mysteriously disappearing seemingly independent of our desires Inspiration is for everyone It isn't reserved for high profile creative geniuses in the arts and sciences it's inherent in our Divine birthright The problem is that as children we're gradually taught to believe exclusively in the world of phenomena where ego is dominant and inspiration diminished As you read each chapter in this book you'll find specific suggestions for living in Spirit From a very personal viewpoint Wayne offers a blueprint through the world of inspiration your ultimate calling
