French Popular Lithographic Imagery 181:

French Popular Lithographic Imagery, 1815-1870 Beatrice Farwell, 1981      The Invention of the Model Susan Waller, 2017-07-05 Although mastery of the representation of the human figure was central to art making as early as the fifteenth century in Europe in the nineteenth century French imagination the artist's model became identified as a distinct social type and cultural trope This study of the artist's model in Paris between 1830 and 1870 incorporates three histories a social history of professional models a cultural history of models as social types and an art history of representations of the model in elite and popular visual culture It takes as its starting point the artist model transaction demonstrating that stereotypes of the model that figured in the public imagination were framed both by gender and ethnicity the book develops a nuanced typology of different types of models Interwoven with the analysis of the constructed identities of models are accounts of the lives of particular models and the histories of the urban population groups from which they emerged The Invention of the Model Artists and Models in Paris 1830 1870 is an adept exploration of a major issue in nineteenth century art which will be of interest not only to art historians but also to social and French cultural historians      Picturing Children Marilyn R. Brown, 2017-07-05 The representation of children in modern European visual culture has often been marginalized by Art History as sentimental and trivial For this reason the subject of childhood in relation to art and its production has largely been ignored Confronting this dismissal this unique collection of essays raises new and unexpected issues about the formation of childhood identity in the nineteenth century and makes a significant contribution to the development of inter disciplinary studies within this area Through a range of stimulating and insightful case studies the book charts the development of the Romantic ideal of childhood starting with Rousseau's Emile and attends to its visual social and psychological transformations during the historical period from which Freud's psychoanalytic theories eventually emerged Foremost scholars such as Anne Higonnet Carol Mavor Susan Casteras and Linda A Pollock uncover the means by which children became an important conduit for prevailing social anxieties and demonstrate that the apparently timeless images of them that proliferated at the time should be understood as complex cultural documents Over 50 illustrations enhance this rich and fascinating volume      Nineteenth-century French Studies, 1981      Art Books 1980-1984 R.R. Bowker Company, 1985      Popular French Romanticism James Smith Allen, 1981-01-01 Focusing on the Paris book world of this period Allen reveals how the rise of a new popular literature jolly chansonniers the roman feuilletons or serial novels melodramas gothic and sentimental novels dramatic nationalistic histories by such authors as Dumas Sand Lamennais Ancelot Desnoyer and de Kock coincided with remarkable developments in the production distribution and consumption of books Allen's research ranges from a survey of the then popular romantic titles and authors and the trade catalogs of booksellers and lending libraries to the police records of their activities diaries and journals of working people and military conscript records and ministerial literacy statistics The result is a remarkable picture of the exchange between elite and popular culture the interaction between ideas and their material reality and the relationship between the literature and the history of France in the romantic period      Subject Catalog, 1982 Library of Congress, 1982      Subject Catalog Library of Congress,      Art Books ,1950 Including an international directory of museum permanent collection catalogs      French Images from the Greek War of Independence (1821-1830) Nina Athanassoglou-Kallmyer, Nina M. Athanassoglou-Kallmyer, 1989-01-01 The Greek struggle against Ottoman rule was a crucial event in the history and politics of nineteenth century Europe In particular it had a strong impact on the political and cultural life of France during the Bourbon Restoration where it was appropriated and promoted as the symbolic spearhead of liberal ideas and of the growing Romantic rebellion This book by Nina Athanassoglou Kallmyer examines the French paintings prints and sculptures inspired by the Greek War of Independence Athanassoglou Kallmyer reinterprets important works by the foremost exponents of the Romantic movement including Delacroix Gericault Horace Vernet Ary Scheffer and David d Angers showing how they viewed the Greek struggle as a setting for the opposing forces of conservatism and liberalism She explains that far from being mere pictorial records of specific war episodes such as the massacre at Chios or the fall of Missolonghi images of the clashes between Greeks and Turks reflected the mottos and arguments of the French liberal propaganda echoed as well by contemporary newspapers parliamentary debates broadsides pamphlets popular plays and poems      A Bibliography of Sources in Christianity and the Arts Daven Michael Kari, 1995 Works have been selected primarily for their utility to those conducting research in the fine arts relating to Christianity and religion General categories covered include bibliographies of bibliographies aesthetics architecture cinema dance and mime drama and rhetoric electronic communications radio TV and video fabric arts literature music photography visual arts calligraphy to sculpture wit and humor      Fine Lithographs and Etchings by 19th and 20th Century French and German Masters William Weston Gallery, 1993      The Roman Catholic Church Edward R. Norman, 2007 The history of the Roman Catholic Church is a gateway to understanding 2 000 years of Western civilization Norman s lavishly illustrated incisive account tells the story of the multifarious ways in which the Church has shaped the lives and beliefs of Christians and non Christians alike      Keith Haring | Jean-Michel Basquiat Dieter Buchhart, Ricardo Montez, Rene Ricard, Linda Yablonsky, Larry Warsh, 2022-02-08 An exploration of the personal and artistic connections between two icons of twentieth century art Keith Haring 1958 1990 and Jean Michel Basquiat 1960 1988 changed the art world of the 1980s through their idiosyncratic imagery radical ideas and complex sociopolitical commentary Each artist invented a distinct visual language employing signs symbols and words to convey strong messages in unconventional ways and each left an indelible legacy that remains a force in contemporary visual and popular culture Offering fascinating new insights into the artists work Keith Haring Jean Michel Basquiat reveals the many intersections among Haring and Basquiat s lives ideas and practices This lavishly illustrated volume brings together more than two hundred images works created in public spaces paintings sculptures objects works on paper photographs and more These rich visuals are accompanied by essays and interviews from renowned scholars artists and art critics exploring the reach and range of Haring and Basquiat s influence Keith Haring Jean Michel Basquiat provides a valuable look at two artistic peers and boundary breakers whose tragically short but prolific careers left their marks on the art world and beyond Distributed for the National Gallery of Victoria in association with No More Rulers Downcast Eyes Martin Jay,1993 Long considered the noblest of the senses vision has increasingly come under critical scrutiny by a wide range of thinkers who question its dominance in Western culture These critics of vision especially prominent in twentieth century France have challenged its allegedly superior capacity to provide access to the world They have also criticized its supposed complicity with political and social oppression through the promulgation of spectacle and surveillance Martin Jay turns to this discourse surrounding vision and explores its often contradictory implications in the work of such influential figures as Jean Paul Sartre Maurice Merleau Ponty Michel Foucault Jacques Lacan Louis Althusser Guy Debord Luce Irigaray Emmanuel Levinas and Jacques Derrida Jay begins with a discussion of the theory of vision from Plato to Descartes then considers its role in the French Enlightenment before turning to its status in the culture of modernity From consideration of French Impressionism to analysis of Georges Bataille and the Surrealists Roland Barthes s writings on photography and the film theory of Christian Metz Jay provides lucid and fair minded accounts of thinkers and ideas widely known for their difficulty His book examines the myriad links between the interrogation of vision and the pervasive antihumanist antimodernist and counter enlightenment tenor of much recent French thought Refusing however to defend the dominant visual order he calls instead for a plurality of scopic regimes Certain to generate controversy and discussion throughout the humanities and social sciences Downcast Eyes will consolidate Jay s reputation as one of today s premier cultural and intellectual historians
