Thinking Spiritually in Small Groups Dann Wigner,2022-05-09 Mystical experiences are happening every day yet as amazing as the experiences can be it is often difficult to integrate these experiences into the rest of life In light of this difficulty I have created mystical reflection as a simple method for sharing one s own mystical experiences in a group setting and listening to the experiences of others in a non judgmental way The theological principle at work here is that if God speaks then everyone can benefit from it Mystical reflection takes this principle seriously and offers a method of application for integrating the spiritual insights into each person s spirituality

Streng,2007-04-01 The essays in this volume focus on philosophical theological and structural aspects of contemporary Buddhist Christian dialogue in an effort to assess its potential as a source for the renewal and transformation of both traditions Writing from differing assumptions academic disciplines and religious world views the nine Christian and two Buddhist contributors are nevertheless agreed that interreligious dialogue can contribute meaningfully to our understanding of some of the profound issues arising out of modern self consciousness Believing that the human community and its survival are threatened everywhere by secularism they seek to show that the dialogue between Buddhists and Christians can provide not only insights but a conceptual framework for authentic living in the present age of religious pluralism Each writer shares the conclusion that Buddhist

Christian encounter is vitally important for a larger understanding of contemporary issues of self identity evil communication and fulfillment
