From the Heart Kathryn Jane Bell, 2003 It can be frustrating demoralising even to be too afraid or intimidated to express either in speech or in writing what is going on in one's mind It's one thing to write enough to complete a class assignment or to please a teacher it's another to really use and take ownership of one's language and express oneself from one's heart The main goal of From the Heart is to encourage just that The exercises are designed to give students the opportunity to develop language skills while at the same time using their own individual creative talents The activities were selected with several goals in mind To help students explore their own creativity in a supportive environment To help them discover that inspiration for writing is everywhere To build their confidence in voicing their own heartfelt ideas To provide abundant opportunities to practice their newly acquired skills To help them feel comfortable about getting and giving feedback that improves writing As they achieve these goals they will find themselves more confident and comfortable with their new language producing texts that are much more interesting than standard classroom fare and really writing from their hearts      Revision Strategies for Adolescent Writers Jolene Borgese, Dick Heyler, Stephanie Romano, 2012 Supported by the Common Core State Standards the 30 strategies in this book include pre writing planning peer conferencing modeling effective revision and using technology
