Kaplan, 1999-11-30 The search for one s identity is an ancient quest reflected throughout history in stories where human glory and conquest are often layered with great pain and self doubt meant to help people discover themselves and who they are Today this quest is found prevalently in young adult novels where characters wrestle with modern dilemmas in order to find themselves This reference resource provides a link for teachers media specialists parents and other adults to those novels and how to use them effectively Educators and therapists explore the literature where common identity issues are addressed in ways intriguing to teens Using fictional characters these experts provide guidance on how to encourage adolescents to cope while improving their reading and writing skills Twelve novels are examined from both a literary and psychological perspective allowing the readers to meet the central figures as if they were living human beings Each chapter is written by a literature specialist who has teamed up with a therapist and confronts a different identity issue examining such dilemmas as body image the father son relationship bigotry and peer relations This pair of experts tries to define the central character s struggle in each novel to discover who they are and to become self actualized individuals Each chapter also provides an annotated bibliography of other works both fiction and nonfiction that explore these same issues to give readers not only the insight into helping teenagers with similar problems but also the tools with which to get teenagers reading and addressing these problems This innovative approach is meant to provide the opportunity for adults and adolescents to better understand each other Twenty One Days Trevor Richens,2019-06-25 The story is set in Byron Bay an iconic tourist township in the Northern Rivers district of New South Wales the author s home district and drawing on the cultural experience of working and living in that area and the Gold Coast Queensland the story evolved All the characters and shops are fictional although similarities exist throughout the Gold Coast and Tweed Byron districts Likewise the story reflects the similarities in people anyone working closely with people as a counsellor would find The need for friendship and a sense of well being are universal desires and just as common are the many fears and anxieties that restrict these desires This story aims at facing these fears and finding strength and growth as an individual to reach a greater degree of fulfilment in oneself and in any relationship Eight Ball Boogie Declan Burke,2014-03-15 Harry Rigby likes a smoke the easy life and Robert Ryan playing the bad guy in late night black and whites Sweet But when the wife of a prominent politician is murdered in her best nightie Rigby finds himself caught in a crossfire between rogue paramilitaries an internal police inquiry and the heaviest blizzard of coke ever to hit the Northwest If all this wasn t bad enough his relationship with girlfriend Denise is on the rocks and he s hitting the bottle Then there s Rigby s psychotic brother Gonzo back on the streets and meaner than a jilted shark Flying Magazine ,1974-11 'Flying from My Mind' David G.
