Tuttle, 2022 Hashknife Hartley and his partner two footloose cowpokes with a reputation for getting things done ended up in Blue Wells Arizona just in time to meet trouble Far from a sleepy town it was a hotbed of criminal activity and Hashknife and Sleepy never could let things rest Hashknife of the Double Bar Eight Wilbur C. Tuttle, 1980-01-01 The Lone House Mystery Edgar Wallace, 1929 The Slip-carriage Mystery Lynn Brock, Alister McAllister, 1928 Playing Safe in Piperock and The Buckaroo of Blue Wells Wilbur Coleman Tuttle, 2022-04-06 Excerpt Magpie says I if my corns wasn't hurting out of me I'd have tears in my eyes from such sentiment I'm all choked up with alkali You've got to admit that she rhymes says Magpie Simpkins spitting out a mouthful of dust and lifting his canteen to his lips I done figured em all out of my own head Ike You better leave off taking things out of your own head says I First thing you know old timer you'll be taking out what prompts you to chew your grub and I'll have to feed you with a stummick pump Then we pokes off the mountain and hits the trail toward Piperock For you who ain't never heard of Piperock I'll say this much Piperock was the place the feller was thinking about when he wrote Let sleeping dogs lie Piperock looks like a siesta settlement but she sure is deceiving Few folks ever get killed in the town The good old village usually invigorates em to a mile a minute clip and we makes it a point never to shoot anybody in the back

The Horsemen of the Americas and the Literature They Inspired Edward Larocque Tinker, 2014-11-11 Wherever cattle have been raised on a large scale horsemen have been there to handle them and wherever these horsemen have existed they have left an indelible mark upon the history of the land Frequently they have been ignorant violent and brutal Always they have been vigorous and individualistic They have taken their herds into frontier areas opened new country fought and driven off earlier inhabitants participated in revolutions battled among themselves and generally lived lives which colorful and somewhat frightening to their contemporaries have become robust legends to those who followed them Edward Larocque Tinker portrays the life of these people in the two Americas the conditions which created them and those that ultimately destroyed or transformed them Ever since I was a small boy when my parents returned from Mexico bringing me a charro outfit complete with saddle and bridle Latin America has beckoned with the finger of romance Mr Tinker recalls As soon as I was old enough I made many trips to Mexico and in the days of Porfirio Diaz learned to know it from the border to the Isthmus of Tehuantepec During the Revolution I was with General Ivar Obregon when he was a Teniente Coronel in his Sonora Campaign and although I was only a lawyer on a holiday took care of his wounded in the battle of San Joaquin Later in Pancho Villa's train I was present at Celaya when he was defeated by Obregon Always an ardent horseman I worked many a roundup with the vaqueros of Sonora and Chihuahua and with the cowboys of our Southwest I saw the similarity between the American cowboy the Argentine Gaucho and the Vaquero of Mexico They all received their gear and technique of cattle handling from Spain and developed the same independence courage and hardihood I thought if these qualities were better known they might serve as a bridge to closer understanding throughout the Americas From his study of the lives of these horsemen Tinker proceeds to an examination of the literature that evolved among and then about them The first and largest part of the book deals with the gaucho of Argentina and Uruguay The second and third sections examine the charro of Mexico and the cowboy of the United States Keeping Up Appearances Rose Macaulay,1928 Daisy and Daphne half sisters are staying with a family of English intelligentsia on holiday in the Mediterranean Daisy shy insecure and working class conceals her shameful work as an author of women s fiction and a journalist with a popular newspaper Daphne attractive confident and sophisticated is approved of by all and she and Raymond the elder son fall in love as does Daisy with him Back in London the sisters resume normal life Daisy visiting her common but loving family and Daphne seeing Raymond who proposes marriage and is accepted on condition the engagement is kept secret to Raymond s consternation As tension mounts the author reveals that Daphne and Daisy are actually different facets of one person and that Raymond in accepting the sophisticated Daphne will have to accept Daisy s lesser qualities as well Daisy Daphne feels she cannot afford to divulge her origins or let him and his cultured family meet her brash common mother and agonises over this But her determined mother decides to see her daughter s betrothed for herself and the truth is out Raymond rather likes mother but his beloved s prevarications and duplicity have somewhat cooled his passion will the engagement triumph or if not who will end it
