A Sculpture Garden of Fantasy Eugene F. Fairbanks, 2001 Hollywood's Hawaii Delia Malia Caparoso Konzett, 2017-03-01 Whether presented as exotic fantasy a strategic location during World War II or a site combining postwar leisure with military culture Hawaii and the South Pacific figure prominently in the U S national imagination Hollywood's Hawaii is the first full length study of the film industry's intense engagement with the Pacific region from 1898 to the present Delia Malia Caparoso Konzett highlights films that mirror the cultural and political climate of the country over more than a century from the era of U S imperialism on through Jim Crow racial segregation the attack on Pearl Harbor and WWII the civil rights movement the contemporary articulation of consumer and leisure culture as well as the buildup of the modern military industrial complex Focusing on important cultural questions pertaining to race nationhood and war Konzett offers a unique view of Hollywood film history produced about the national periphery for mainland U S audiences Hollywood's Hawaii presents a history of cinema that examines Hawaii and the Pacific and its representations in film in the context of colonialism war Orientalism occupation military buildup and entertainment Possessing Polynesians Maile Renee Arvin, 2019-11-08 From their earliest encounters with Indigenous Pacific Islanders white Europeans and Americans asserted an identification with the racial origins of Polynesians declaring them to be racially almost white and speculating that they were of Mediterranean or Aryan descent In Possessing Polynesians Maile Arvin analyzes this racializing history within the context of settler colonialism across Polynesia especially in Hawaii i Arvin argues that a logic of possession through whiteness animates settler colonialism by which both Polynesia the place and Polynesians the people become exotic feminized belongings of whiteness Seeing whiteness as indigenous to Polynesia provided white settlers with the justification needed to claim Polynesian lands and resources Understood as possessions Polynesians were and continue to be denied the privileges of whiteness Yet Polynesians have long contested these classifications claims and cultural representations and Arvin shows how their resistance to and refusal of white settler logic have regenerated Indigenous forms of recognition American Dreamers Clarice Stasz, 2000-01-26 Jack London's stories of adventure in the frozen landscapes of the Yukon and the steamy islands of the South Seas have captured the imaginations of readers all over the world Born into the working class London was a major force in the lively Socialist movement of his day In 1903 he shocked the morals of his country when he left his wife and two young daughters for a spunky spinster five years his senior A new breed of woman Charmian Kitteridge was notorious in the Bay area for daring to ride her horse astride and work in an office unlike proper women of the day As his Mate Woman Charmian contributed to Jack's accomplishments she was his editor transcriber confidante as well as the model for many of Jack's female characters Together they overcame threats to their love that stemmed from Jack's alcoholism infidelities and illness This is a compelling portrait that challenges the long-held view of London as a rough hard drinking womanizer and of Charmian as a passive childish dependent Instead this is a love story and a fascinating portrait of a couple whose courage passion and vitality remain a model of love fulfilled The Legend of the Laughing Gecko ,1989 Moki a gecko that laughs a lot ruins his family s chances to be chosen as sacred guardian animal but in the end things work out

Opera 1925 The Magician 1926 and Seven Footprints to Satan 1929 were among the unusual and startling films containing story elements that went far beyond the realm of highly unlikely Using surviving documentation and their combined expertise the authors catalog and discuss these departures from the norm in this encyclopedic guide to American horror science fiction and fantasy in the years from 1913 through 1929 Critique of Fantasy, Vol. 3 Laurence A. Rickels, 2020-01-14 In The Block of Fame Edmund Bergler like the thirteenth fairy in the Sleeping Beauty uninvited because there wasn't an extra place setting crashes the psychoanalytic poetics of daydreaming with a curse He charges that the overview according to which art making rarefies daydreaming and delivers omnipotence overlooks the underlying defense contract We are hooked to creativity because it offers the best defense against acknowledging the ultimate and untenable masochistic wish to be refused Bergler's bleak view which Gilles Deleuze alone acknowledged in his study of Sacher Masoch doesn't make any overall contribution to the aesthetics of fantasizing that this critique addresses However it is a good fit with the centerpiece of the final volume the wish for fame or rather the recoil of the wish in the wreckage that success brings Following the opening season of mourning and the experience of phantoms there is the second death which is murder In addition to the deadening end that can only be postponed the killing off of the dead until dead dead there is another second death that concludes the wish for fame with a ritual stripping of badges and insignia Not only are the medals thrown to the ground and the sword broken but a life's work passes review At the close of his career Freud returned to the environs of the wish the cornerstone of his science While his disciples Otto Rank and Hanns Sachs carried out his 1907 insights regarding the poetics of daydreaming to illuminate respectively the mythic origin of the hero and the evolution of art out of the mutual daydream Freud batted down for the end of his world by revisiting the so-called primal fantasy the myth of the primal father in Moses and Monotheism The animal setting that was a given of its premier articulation in Totem and Taboo was a wrap this time around with Freud's translation of Marie Bonaparte's transference gift a memoir recounting her premature mourning for her sick chow and the dog's recovery from cancer of the jaw In Bergler's unconscious system plagiarism is the conscious variation on the block basic to authorship Theodor Adorno interpreted the ascendancy of the culture industry leading to and through the Third Reich in terms of the theft of modernism's critical strategies for promoting the transformation of wish fantasy into the social relation of art In the course of writing his essay Notes on Kafka between 1942 and 1952 Adorno was able to reclaim for aesthetic theory after Auschwitz the constellation that he and Benjamin had originally developed to outlast the culture industry's depravation of the hopefulness of wishing Adorno gives the sense or direction of the constellation's recovery when he argues that Kafka's work stages the final round of the contest between fantasy and science fiction by extrapolating doubling and dj vu as the portals to a collective future The wish for fame or to be refused it and the wish to steal this book or undo the delinquency demarcate the final movement of the third volume which follows out beginning with Susan Sontag and Gidget a veritable Bildungsroman of the post-war era's star the teenager Fantasizing to make it big time means to be in training for big ideas and big feelings The romance of fantasizing was also reconfigured out of a station break The Nazi elevation of youth to superego in the Heimat of the Teen Age neutralized adolescent innovation by forgoing the Hamletian stage of metabolization of the death wish Switching to the other patient the other teenager at heart no longer the German but now the American or Californian this study enters the termination phase of the analysis in the environs of a reach for the stars that is legend It is the legend to the final volume s mapping of our second nature as daydreamer believers
