French by Association Michael Gruneberg, 1994-02-01 Introduces a basic French vocabulary and the first principles of French grammar through word association techniques Newsletter (Association for French Language Studies).

Association for French Language Studies, Assimilation and Association in French Colonial Theory, 1890-1914

Raymond F. Betts, 2005-01-01 Until the close of the nineteenth century French colonial theory was based on the idea of assimilation which gave France the responsibility for civilizing its colonies by absorbing them administratively and culturally. By the turn of the twentieth century this idea had given way to the theory of association which held that France's new empire could be better served by a more flexible policy in which the colonized become partners with France in the colonial project. Raymond F. Betts examines the pivotal shift in colonial theory within the metropole, the debate that it generated and its intellectual origins. A landmark book in the field of French colonial theory, Assimilation and Association in French Colonial Theory, 1890-1914 has served as the central point of reference for every major colonial historian during the four decades since its original publication in 1961. Available in paperback for the first time with a new preface by the author, this edition will interest all students of colonialism and introduce many younger scholars to what remains the best and most original book in the field. Raymond F. Betts is a professor of history emeritus at the University of Kentucky and an expert in modern European imperialism. His many books include Decolonization and A History of Popular Culture: More of Everything, Faster and Brighter. The French in Singapore Maxime Pilon, Danièle Weiler, 2011 In 1819 when Sir Stamford Raffles founded Singapore, he was accompanied by two French naturalists. Ever since, French missionaries, merchants, planters and other pioneers have contributed to its economic, educational and cultural development. Discover the colourful stories of personalities such as J. Casteleyns who built the first hostelry, the Hotel de l'Europe in 1857; Father Jean Marie Beurel who constructed the Cathedral of the Good Shepherd; and Alfred Clout who started the well-known Ayam Brand canned sardines business. Superbly illustrated with photographs, paintings, sketches, old documents and maps, The French in Singapore is an invaluable resource for anyone seeking to discover the little-known history of the French in the Singapore we know today.

Cameroon is a land of much promise but a land of unfulfilled promises It has the potential to be an economically developed and democratic society but the struggle to live up to its potential has not gone well Since independence there have been only two presidents of Cameroon the current one has been in office since 1982 Endowed with a variety of climates and agricultural environments numerous minerals and substantial forests and a dynamic population this is a country that should be a leader of Africa Instead we find a country almost paralyzed by corruption and poor management a country with a low life expectancy and serious health problems and a country from which the most talented and highly educated members of the population are emigrating in large numbers To all of this is recently added a serious terrorism problem Boko Haram in the north a separatist movement in the Anglophone west refugee influxes in the north and east and bandits from the Central African Republic attacking eastern villages This fifth edition of Historical Dictionary of the Republic of Cameroon contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 300 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the Republic of Cameroon The Quarterly of the Texas State
