Fridericus A Novel:

Fridericus Frederic F. Flach, Stephen Churchill, 1980-01-01 From Caligari to Hitler Siegfried Kracauer, 2019-04-02

An essential work of the cinematic history of the Weimar Republic by a leading figure of film criticism First published in 1947 From Caligari to Hitler remains an undisputed landmark study of the rich cinematic history of the Weimar Republic Prominent film critic Siegfried Kracauer examines German society from 1921 to 1933 in light of such movies as The Cabinet of Dr Caligari M Metropolis and The Blue Angel He explores the connections among film aesthetics the prevailing psychological state of Germans in the Weimar era and the evolving social and political reality of the time Kracauer makes a startling and still controversial claim films as popular art provide insight into the unconscious motivations and fantasies of a nation With a critical introduction by Leonardo Quaresima which provides context for Kracauer's scholarship and his contributions to film studies this Princeton Classics edition makes an influential work available to new generations of cinema enthusiasts The Ufa Story Klaus Kreimeier, 1999-01-01 On the Ufa the German movie Company German Film & Literature Eric Rentschler, 2013-10-15 First Published in 1986 This collection of essays by an international team of scholars is the first sustained investigation in any language of the historical interactions between German film and literature It is a book about adaptations and transformations about why filmmakers adapt certain material at certain times The major impetus at work is the desire to expand the field of adaptation study to include sociological theoretical and historical dimensions and to bring a livelier regard for intertextuality to the studies of German film and literature It is concerned with the ways in which filmmakers in Germany from Pabst and von Sternberg to Fassbinder Herzog and Sanders Brahms have engaged and been engaged by literary history The Cinema's Third Machine Sabine Hake, 1993-01-01 The improvements in the technology artistry and distribution of motion pictures coincided with the traumas of modern Germany It is hardly to be wondered that filmmakers frequently turned their cameras on Germany's social and political problems that propagandists regularly sought to manipulate them that entrepreneurs tried to exploit them and that German thinkers brooded upon the relationship between German society politics and the films that represented them all From these tangled motives a rich discourse on film emerged that paralleled or anticipated discourses in the other film centers of the world The Cinema's Third Machine reproduces the diversity of perspectives and the intensity of controversies of early German film within the broad context of German social and political history from the aesthetic rapture of the first years to the institutionalization of film by the national socialist state Many texts have been rediscovered and are now presented to modern scholars for the first time Hake treats all aspects of the medium production promotion education journalism aesthetics and political activism following throughout the various forms criticism assumed The Bookman ,1924 Catalogue of the Printed Books in the Library of the Faculty of Advocates ...: England-Homem. 1874 Faculty of Advocates (Scotland).
