When her father dies suddenly she returns to Mississippi for the funeral and to spend a month in the hated duplex as her mother comes to terms with her husband's passing. But as she sorts through the strange detritus of her father's life the author comes to understand that he was far more complex than the angry man she thought she knew. And as she draws closer to her surprisingly resilient mother affected by stroke but full of blunt country talk she finds that her mother is also far from the naive helpless creature she remembers. Through a series of surprising and oddly humorous discoveries the author and her mother will begin to unravel her father's poignant secrets together in this graceful and generous exploration of the intermingling of shame and love that lie at the heart of family life.

Ma Grandmere M. Mulholland Joel M. Mulholland, Joel M. Mulholland, 2009-11 Joel Mulholland recounts the heartening story of her very memorable grandmother. Between the ages of twelve and thirteen her grandmother received Christ as her Savior. He would serve as her rock of strength for all her days. The death of someone close to your heart leaves an overwhelming sense of void. Suddenly a life is taken the body is lifeless and the soul is gone. As a Christian there is the struggle between knowing that they are truly at peace and the natural human selfishness of wanting to keep them close. But with the sting of each death comes new growth and maturity the realization of how much their love was needed and how much was shared with others. The author's grandma left many treasures years of letters journal entries endless personal writings and remembered fellowship with family and friends will give a complete understanding of her journey. Then the tributes from others and the impressions she left upon their own lives gives proof to her aspirations. Through the tragic death of her father marriage to a young GI raising five boys and two girls and college at eighty two as Grandmere put it I am ready to see my Jesus.

Of Octopuses and Men Misha Bell, 2022-04-05 My grandparents grumpy neighbor is as hot as the lethal Florida sun. And like the sun he's bad for me. My taste in men is the worst just ask my ex and his restraining order. What am I doing in Florida with my grandparents you wonder. Well my best friend is an octopus and he needs a bigger tank so I took a job at an aquarium in the Sunshine State. I didn't expect that sexy long haired grump to try to buy my octopus for some nefarious purpose. Nor did I expect to make out with him during a late night swim at the beach. And the last thing I expected was to run into him on my first day at my new job where he's my boss. NOTE This is a standalone raunchy slow burn romantic comedy featuring a sun phobic marine biologist her scorching hot grump of a boss and an octopus who likes to go on walks in his mobile tank. If any of the above is not your cup of tea run far far away. Otherwise buckle in for a laugh out loud feel good ride.
