Krista'S Summer Adventures Eva Zidek,2014-07-18 Krista is about to finish grade three and looking forward to the holiday at her grandparents place when her parents tell her that this year she will be going on her own Krista will miss their parents but she is happy to be spending her holiday with grandma and grandpa She always has a lot of fun at her grandparents place unlike her everyday life during the school year Every time Krista visits her grandparents grandpa prepares different games and activities for her to do This time he invites her to try a game he played in his youth The idea is to win a series of badges each one being a reward for achieving different skills and disciplines Krista is excited and begins the game called a beaver hunt For the first badges Krista has to develop her physical strenght and agility by running jumping and swimming It is not always easy and she finds she had to work hard to get the badges but she enjoys it and wins three badges in first couple weeks The hunts for the next badges are even more exciting She would get one for bravery another for her ability to spend a day alone in the outdoors and so on Kristas grandparents have prepared a further adventure for her They will all go together for a week long hiking trip through the foothills and mountains and they will have a horse to carry their stuff Krista who never slept in a tent has to prepare herself for the trip She is thrilled with the plans for her holidays The hiking trip is beautiful and for Krista her hunt for the badges makes it unforgettable Before her holiday ends she obtains still more badges after some remarkable hunts Just before her departure the seniors organize a big party with games songs and dancing All kids as well as adults have lots of fun and happy memories to recall throughout the year Krista is sad to leave her grandparents place but they help her to make plans for more activities through the school year Kristas parents agree to support her plans and best of all come to realize how much their help means to Krista

Life Among the Piutes Sarah Winnemucca Hopkins,2024-01-18 In Life Among the Piutes Sarah Winnemucca Hopkins presents a compelling autobiographical account that intricately weaves personal narrative with a broader historical context Through her vivid prose Hopkins explores the struggles and resilience of the Northern Paiute people amid the encroachment of Euro American settlers The text serves as both a sociocultural document and a poignant critique of U S government policies impacting Native American tribes thus placing it within the tradition of Indigenous literature that seeks to reclaim voice and agency in the face of colonial injustices Winnemucca s eloquent storytelling is interspersed with cultural teachings providing an educational lens into the rich practices and beliefs of her people Sarah Winnemucca Hopkins an influential figure and one of the first Native American women to publish a book in the United States drew from her own experiences as an educator and advocate for Native American rights Her passion for justice and preservation of her culture stems from her family s history and her firsthand experiences with the devastating consequences of U S territorial expansion Winnemucca s intermingling of memoir and cultural history makes her work not only personal but also representative of the wider Native American narrative I highly recommend Life Among the Piutes for readers interested in Indigenous perspectives historical narratives and the intersection of personal and collective identity This profound work challenges assumptions and enriches understanding of the complexity of Native American experiences making it essential reading for scholars students and anyone seeking to engage with the voices of marginalized communities

The Diary of a Zen Mama Brenda Shoshanna, 2025-01-09 During this startling memoir Rebecca leaves home in Boro Park Brooklyn for the first time at seventeen to go to college and explore the outside world As destiny accompanies her she instantly meets her acting teacher and ten weeks later on her eighteenth birthday runs away with him in a blizzard and gets married Lance from a different culture is forbidden to her though Once news of the marriage gets out Rebecca becomes an outcast and both are thrown out of college as well Now she now must find her true home and where she belongs She and Lance move into his flat in Greenwich village as he tells her that he can never make her happy she must do that for herself

Shocked Rebecca clings to her book on Zen for guidance wondering where her Zen Master could be Incredibly one day he appears Rebecca meets a powerful charismatic Japanese Zen Master with whom she practices for the next forty five years Their unbreakable relationship and his liberating teachings permeate both the memoir and her life Yet the past is waiting to flood back into her life All kinds of danger arise as Rebecca is finally forced to return to her roots and continue at the zendo at the same time We explore her reunion with her family and her mothering her children as her marriage becomes threatened Torn apart by what seems like radical differences between Jewish and Zen practices and worlds she finally experiences the incredible connection between them It becomes clear that Judaism and Zen uplift and empower one another and that like two wings of a bird both are needed to fly And despite insoluble differences with Lance Rebecca is now able to experience a different kind of love One that cannot be threatened no matter what Above all she sees that our children are the true teachers and becoming a real Mamma is enlightenment itself
