 Vincent Millay, Holly Peppe, 2016-01-01 More than sixty years after her death the Pulitzer Prizewinning poet Edna St Vincent Millay continues to captivate new generations of readers The twentieth century American author was catapulted to fame after the publication of Renaissance her first major work and a poem written while she was still a teenager Millays frank attitude toward sexuality along with immortal lines such as My candle burns at both ends solidified her reputation as the quintessential liberated woman of the Jazz Age In this authoritative volume Timothy F Jackson has compiled and annotated a new selection that represents the full range of her published work alongside previously unpublished manuscript excerpts poems prose and correspondence The poems appearing as they were printed in their first editions are complemented by Jacksons extensive illuminating notes which draw on archival sources and help situate her work in its historical and literary context Two introductory essays one by Jackson and the other by Millays literary executor Holly Peppe also help critically frame the poets work      Ain't Got No Home Erin Royston Battat, 2014 Ain't Got No Home Americas Great Migrations and

Wine is a collective book composed of 18 chapters that address different issues related to the technological and biotechnological management of vineyards and winemaking It focuses on recent advances hot topics and recurrent problems in the wine industry and aims to be helpful for the wine sector Topics covered include pest control pesticide management the use of innovative technologies and biotechnologies such as non thermal processes gene editing and use of non Saccharomyces the management of instabilities such as protein haze and off flavors such as light struck or TCAs the use of big data technologies and many other key concepts that make this book a powerful reference in grape and wine production The chapters have been written by experts from universities and research centers of 9 countries thus representing knowledge research and know how of many regions worldwide      Wines of Eastern North America Hudson Cattell, 2014-01-15 In 1975 there were 125 wineries in eastern North America By 2013 there were more than 2 400 How and why the eastern United States and Canada became a major wine region of the world is the subject of this history Unlike winemakers in California with its Mediterranean climate the pioneers who founded the industry after Prohibition 1933 in the United States and 1927 in Ontario had to overcome natural obstacles such as subzero cold in winter and high humidity in the summer that favored diseases devastating to grapevines Enologists and viticulturists at Eastern research stations began to find grapevine varieties that could survive in the East and make world class wines These pioneers were followed by an increasing number of dedicated growers and winemakers who fought in each of their states to get laws dating back to Prohibition changed so that an industry could begin Hudson Cattell a leading authority on the wines of the East in this book presents a comprehensive history of the growth of the industry from Prohibition to today He draws on extensive archival research and his more than thirty five years as a wine journalist specializing in the grape and wine industry of the wines of eastern North America The second section of the book adds detail to the history in the form of multiple appendixes that can be referred to time and again Included here is information on the origin of grapes used for wine in the East the crosses used in developing the French hybrids and other varieties how the grapes were named and the types of wines made in the East and when Cattell also provides a state by state history of the earliest wineries that led the way
