Grave Images Kathy Tolsma Hettinga, 2009 Historic photographs of Chaco Canyon from the late nineteenth century to the 1970s are juxtaposed with contemporary rephotographs The Athenians and Their Graves (1000-300 BC) Elena Walter-Karydi, 2024-07-22 This book offers the first in depth study of Attic funerary monuments during the geometric archaic and classical period The analysis of forms images and inscriptions shows from an anthropological perspective the Athenian attitude towards death in its fundamental difference to Christian occidental views The book which was originally published in German is revised An Anthropology of Images Hans Belting, 2022-07-12 A compelling theory that places the origin of human picture making in the body In this groundbreaking book renowned art historian Hans Belting proposes a new anthropological theory for interpreting human picture making Rather than focus exclusively on pictures as they are embodied in various media such as painting sculpture or photography he links pictures to our mental images and therefore our bodies The body is understood as a living medium that produces perceives or remembers images that are different from the images we encounter through handmade or technical pictures Refusing to reduce images to their material embodiment yet acknowledging the importance of the historical media in which images are manifested An Anthropology of Images presents a challenging and provocative new account of what pictures are and how they function The book demonstrates these ideas with a series of compelling case studies ranging from Dante s picture theory to post photography One chapter explores the tension between image and medium in two media of the body the coat of arms and the portrait painting Another central chapter looks at the relationship between image and death tracing picture production including the first use of the mask to early funerary rituals in which pictures served to represent the missing bodies of the dead Pictures were tools to re embody the deceased to make them present again a fact that offers a surprising clue to the riddle of presence and absence in most pictures and that reveals a genealogy of pictures obscured by Platonic picture theory Grave Images Jenny Goebel, 2013-10-29 A stylish debut mystery with the perfect balance of sweetness and scares Thirteen year old Bernie s summer is looking pretty grim It s hard to make friends when your family runs a monument company and your backyard is littered with tombstones It s even harder when your mother suddenly refuses to leave her room To make matters worse her father has just hired a new artist to engrave the headstones the creepy Mr Stein Bernie has a bad feeling about him right from the start and after snooping around his cottage she discovers an engraved portrait of their neighbor a woman who promptly dies the next day And it s not just a weird coincidence The pattern continues and Bernie realizes that Mr Stein has begun engraving headstones before people die which forces Bernie to ask a horrifying question Is Mr Stein predicting the deaths or causing them Traces of Old Sharpsville Ralph C. Mehler, 2024-04-05 Though just a small town Sharpsville has had an outsized influence on the American iron industry This book tells that story plus many more the canal that gave the town its start its railroads the personalities who lived here the churches and clubs its ethnic heritage sports heroes long gone landmarks and institutions and the traditions that make Sharpsville unique Events whether of local note or part of national trends are here recounted More than just an account of town lore this is a thoroughly researched book that gives the reader an insight into life here in years past from a variety of perspectives Anyone who lives in the Shenango Valley will find interest in these pages as will someone who has since moved away but whose heart still remains here The short articles contained within this book are grouped into themed chapters With many not seen before photos it makes for an enjoyable and readable account of this little burg in times past Funerary Practices in the Netherlands Brenda Mathijssen, Claudia

Venhorst, 2019-09-19 This book explores the funerary culture in the Netherlands through a mixture of photographs figures and case studies The nine chapters demonstrate the process of funeralising and ideas about death in the Netherlands providing an overview of contemporary funerary practices and their changes over time Driven to the Field David A. Davis, 2023-02-21 Driven to the Field traces the culture of sharecropping crucial to understanding life in the southern United States from Emancipation to the twenty first century By reading dozens of works of literature in their historical context David A Davis demonstrates how sharecropping emerged endured for a century and continues to resonate in American culture Following the end of slavery sharecropping initially served as an expedient solution to a practical problem but it quickly developed into an entrenched power structure situated between slavery and freedom that exploited the labor of Blacks and poor whites to produce agricultural commodities Sharecropping was the economic linchpin in the South s social structure and the region s political system race relations and cultural practices were inextricably linked with this peculiar form of tenant farming from the end of the Civil War through the civil rights movement Driven to the Field analyzes literary portrayals of this system to explain how it defined the culture of the South revealing multiple genres of literature that depicted sharecropping such as cotton romances agricultural uplift novels proletarian sharecropper fiction and sharecropper autobiographies important works of American literature that have never before been evaluated and discussed in their proper context Shaped by Stories Marshall Gregory, 1997-09-01 In his latest book Marshall Gregory begins with the premise that our lives are saturated with stories ranging from magazines books films television and blogs to the words spoken by politicians pastors and teachers He then explores the ethical implication of this nearly universal human obsession with narratives Through careful readings of Katherine Anne Porter s The Grave Thurber s The Catbird Seat as well as David Copperfield and Wuthering Heights Gregory asks and answers the question How do the stories we absorb in our daily lives influence the kinds of persons we turn out to be Shaped by Stories is accessible to anyone interested in ethics popular culture and education It will encourage students and teachers to become more thoughtful and perceptive readers of stories

Dolls and Puppets Max Von Boehn, 2020-09-17 Many of the earliest books particularly those dating back to the 1900s and before are now extremely scarce and increasingly expensive We are republishing many of these classic works in affordable high quality modern editions using the original text and artwork Religious Chastity John Main, 1913 How to Do Things with Dead People Alice Dailey, 2022-06-15 How to Do Things with Dead People studies human contrivances for representing and relating to the dead Alice Dailey takes as her principal objects of inquiry Shakespeare's English history plays describing them as reproductive mechanisms by which living replicas of dead historical figures are regenerated in the present and re-killed Considering the plays in these terms exposes their affinity with a transhistorical array of technologies for producing reproducing and interacting with dead things technologies such as literary doppelgangers photography ventriloquist puppetry X-ray imaging glitch art capital punishment machines and cloning By situating Shakespeare's historical drama in this intermedial conversation Dailey challenges conventional assumptions about what constitutes the context of a work of art and contests foundational models of linear temporality that inform long-standing conceptions of historical periodization and teleological order Working from an eclectic body of theories pictures and machines that transcend time and media Dailey composes a searching exploration of how the living use the dead to think back and look forward to rule to love to wish and create

American Representations of Post-Communism Andaluna Borcila, 2014-07-11 With the televised events of 1989 territories of Eastern and Central Europe that had been marked as impenetrable and inaccessible to the Western gaze exploded into visibility As the narratives of the Cold War crumbled new narratives emerged and new geographies were produced on and by American television Using an understudied archive of American news broadcasts and tracing their flashes and echoes through travel guides and narratives of return written by Eastern European Americans this book explores American ways of seeing and mapping communism's disintegration and the narratives articulated around post-communist sites and subjects

The Megalithic Architectures of Europe Luc Laporte, Chris Scarre, 2015-12-31 Megalithic monuments are among the most striking remains of the Neolithic period of northern and western Europe and are scattered across landscapes from Pomerania to Portugal Antiquarians and archaeologists early recognized the family resemblance of the different groups of tombs attributing them to maritime peoples moving along the western seaways More recent research sees them rather as the product of established early farming communities in their individual regions Yet the diversity of the tombs their chronologies and their varied cultural contexts complicates any straightforward understanding of their origins and distribution Megalithic Architectures provides new insight by focusing on the construction and design of European megalithic tombs on the tomb as an architectural project It shows how much is to be learned from detailed attention to the stages and the techniques through which tombs were built modified and enlarged and often intentionally dismantled or decommissioned The large slabs that were employed often unshaped may suggest an opportunistic approach by the Neolithic builders but this was clearly far from the case Each building project was unique and detailed study of individual sites exposes the way in which tombs were built as architectural social and symbolic undertakings Alongside the manner in which the materials were used it reveals a store of knowledge that sometimes differed considerably from one structure to another even between contemporary monuments within a single region The volume brings together regional specialists from Scandinavia Germany Britain France Belgium and Iberia to offer a series of uniquely authoritative studies Results of recent fieldwork are fully incorporated and much of the material is published here for the first time in English It provides an invaluable overview of the current state of research on European megalithic tombs

Art and Architecture in Neolithic Orkney Antonia Thomas, 2016-09-26 This book offers a groundbreaking analysis of Neolithic art and architecture in Orkney focussing upon the incredible collection of hundreds of decorated stones being revealed by the current excavations at the Ness of Brodgar

Image of Africa Philip D. Curtin, 1965-06-18 The Image of Africa Philip D. Curtin, 1964 In this encyclopedic work of intellectual history Philip D. Curtin sought to discover the British image of Africa for the years 1780-1850

Fandom, Image and Authenticity Jennifer Otter Bickerdike, 2014-10-05 Kurt Cobain and Ian Curtis Through death they became icons However the lead singers have been removed from their humanity replaced by easily replicated and distributed commodities bearing their image This book examines how the anglicised singers provide secular guidance to the modern consumer in an ever more uncertain world

Modelling Identities Catalin Nicolae Popa, 2018-05-26 This volume investigates the construction of group identity in Late La Tène South East Europe using an innovative statistical modelling method Death and burial theory underlies the potential of mortuary practices for identity research The sample used for this volume's research consists of 370 graves organized in a specially created database that records funerary ritual and grave good information In the case of grave goods this involved found hierarchically organized categorical variables which serve to describe each item by combining functional and typological features The volume also aims to show the compatibility of archaeological theory and statistical modelling The discussions from archaeological theory rarely find methodological implementations through statistical methods In this volume theoretical issues form an integrative part of data preparation method development and result interpretation
