Graveyard Position:

The Graveyard Position Robert Barnard, 2005-05-03 From master of mystery Robert Barnard comes a brilliantly witty and piercingly observant new suspense novel featuring one of the most dysfunctional families ever to grace crime fiction Meet the Cantelos of Leeds England To call the Cantelos dysfunctional is actually a wild understatement But is one of them also a killer Clarissa Cantelo a skilled clairvoyant apparently thought so Believing that her sixteen year old nephew Merlyn Docherty was in peril she sent him into hiding in Italy far away from the rest of her family She told them he was dead It was safer that way Now Clarissa herself has died and Merlyn a successful lawyer and civil servant who still lives abroad has returned to Leeds to claim his inheritance First he must prove his identity Is he really Merlyn or as some of his long lost relations say they suspect is he an imposter Merlyn doesn't mind confirming his identity but he'd at least like to move into the house that Aunt Clarissa left him in her will while he gets to know some of his relatives And the house may hold some clues to the Cantelos past What is the dreadful family secret that has upset relations between mothers and daughters husbands and wives filling even the youngest generation with fear If Merlyn discovers the truth buried under decades of deception his life may once again be in danger Merlyn must start at the beginning if he is to find the answers All roads seem to lead back to his grandfather the formidable Merlyn Cantelo renowned in the family as an object of both fear and loathing Though the old man who caused such pain to his family died years ago his malevolence lives on Somebody wants young Merlyn gone With help from police detectives Mike Oddie and Charlie Peace Merlyn must find that person before the Cantelo curse works its evil again Wickedly observant and full of his trademark sly twists The Graveyard Position proves once more that Robert Barnard is in a class of his own FCC Record United States. Bruc ealles well Marc Lodewijckx, 2004 The essays in this book are about the peoples of North West Europe in the first millennium AD They were written by archaeologists from various countries who either reveal the results of their archaeological fieldwork or place the knowledge they have of their particular region in a wider supraregional context It is commonly known that archaeologists prefer to devote their time to fieldwork Considering the limited number of archaeologists and the multitude of opportunities for fieldwork this preference is quite understandable if not even obvious In addition to this essay writing is a cumbersome and exhausting activity The warm and enthusiastic response to our request for contributions made it possible to compose an interesting volume We hope that this publication may encourage many others to remain active in the field of archaeology and that the cooperation among colleagues stimulated by this project may be continued in the future Kinship, Contract, Community, and State Myron L. Cohen, 2005 This is an anthropological exploration of the roots of China's modernity in the country's own tradition as seen especially in economic and kinship patterns Park and Cemetery and Landscape Gardening, 1916 Grave Orientation In The Middle Ages Benjamin Stular, 2022 Namen knjige je prikazati pomen orientacije grobov za srednjeveko arheologijo smrti in pokopov Pri tem sta poudarjeni dve ključni stvari: Prvi orientacija grobov je bila v srednjem veku pomemben in v nekaterih primerih najpomembnejši in izražanje simbolnega pomena pokopov. Drugi da bi arheologi razvozlati ta pomen mora biti analiza izvedena z metodološko strogostjo pri interpretaciji pa je potrebno upoštevati in kontekst. Blejski otok je otoček na Blejskem jezeru, ki ima za sodobne Slovence poseben pomen za lokalno prebivalstvo, pa je imel poseben pomen tudi od prazgodovine dalje. Zato ni presenetljivo, da sta srednjeveški pokopališči in cerkve na otoku pretežno s simboliko. In veliko te simbolike je bilo izraženo z usmeritvijo posameznih grobov skupin grobov in cerkvene stavbe. V knjigi je zbranih deset besedil sedem antropoloških hodopisnih esejev pospremljenih z dvema daljšima uvodnima tekstoma ter epilogom o hoji in pisanju kot dveh utevinih, a na tem mestu vse premišljenih metodah antropološkega in etnološkega raziskovanja. Sedem esejev se sprehodi po obmejnih pokrajinah Istre, Goriške, Porabja, Koroške in Julijskih Alp, predhodi jim dialog, ki razlaga razlike med različnimi raziskovalci, končno pa vseh sedem izriče svojo sled v vmesnem prostoru med znanstvenim tekstom in esejistiko. Z osredotočenjem na korake besede in poti bodisi prehojene ali zapisane poskuša knjiga osvetliti vmesni prostor hoje in pisanja, pa pri tem razume kot spoznavni proces terensko izkušnjo kot del dolgega pogovora, ki med drugim vključuje tudi Gre za hibridno, robno, tudi mejno in drzno meditativno hodopisje, ki bralcu ponudi nedokonane in eksperimentalne antropološke tekste.

Modern Cemetery, 1913 A Fall from Grace Robert Barnard, 2007-05-08 Newly promoted Inspector Charlie Peace must discover who murdered his detested father in law and his pregnant wife is the prime suspect The Neolithic Cemetery at Tell el-Kerkh Akira Tsuneki, Naoko Hironaga, Sari Jammo, 2022-02-03 The Neolithic Cemetery at Tell el Kerkh is the second volume of the final reports on the excavations at Tell el Kerkh northwest Syria focusing on the discovery of a Pottery Neolithic cemetery dating between c 6400 and 6100 BC one of the oldest outdoor communal cemeteries in West Asia.

Trends in Biological Anthropology 1 Karina Gerda-Radonić, Kathleen McSweeney, 2015-06-30 This first volume in the series Trends in Biological Anthropology presents 11 papers. The study of modern baboons as proxies to understand extinct hominin species diet and the interpretation of skeletal degenerative joint disease on the skeletal remains of extant primates are presented as case studies using methods and standards usually applied to human remains. The methodological theme continues with an assessment of the implications for interpretation of different methods used to record Linear Enamel Hypoplasia (LEH) and on the use and interpretation of three dimensional modeling to generate pictures of the content of collective graves. Three case studies on palaeopathology are presented. First is the analysis of a 15th-16th century skeletal collection from the Isle of May compared with one from medieval Scotland in an attempt to ascertain whether the former benefitted from a healing tradition. Study of a cranium found at Verteba Cave, western Ukraine, provides a means to understand interpersonal interactions and burial ritual during the Trypillian culture. A series of skulls from Belgrade, Serbia, displays evidence for beheading. Two papers focus on the analysis of disarticulated human remains at the Worcester Royal Infirmary and on Thomas Henry Huxley's early attempt to identify a specific individual through analysis of skeletal remains.

The concept and definition of perimortem particularly within a Forensic Anthropology context are examined and the final paper presents a collaborative effort between historians archaeologists museum officers medieval re enactors and food scientists to encourage healthy eating among present day Britons by presenting the ill effects of certain dietary habits on the human skeleton

Dover Vera I Evison,2014-02-15 The Anglo Saxon cemetery at Buckland Dover was discovered when a new housing estate was being constructed in 1951 It was excavated by Professor Evison between 1951 and 1953 The cemetery of some 170 graves dates from the late fifth to the middle of the eighth century Professor Evison s expertise in the study of glass jewellery and weapons ensures that there is a penetrating analysis of this important site and interesting ideas are proposed for the layout and phasing of the cemetery A comprehensive discussion of the finds from the graves reveals that although the Buckland cemetery belongs to the period of pagan tradition of burial with grave goods there is some evidence of Christian influences and rites Contact with Frankish territory in France Belgium and the Rhineland seems to have been maintained throughout the period of use of the cemetery and Frankish grave goods formed an important element in the material culture of the people buried there However by the late sixth century local Kentish craftsmen were producing a significant amount of the jewellery found in the graves Professor Evison places the Buckland cemetery in its local context by examining contemporary finds from other sites in the area around Dover

The Roman Cemetery at Lankhills Giles Clarke,2021-12-16 This book considers the cemetery uncovered outside the north gate of Venta Belgarum Roman Winchester and analyses in detail both the graves and their contents There are detailed studies and important re assessments of many categories of object but it is the information about late Roman burial religion and society which is of special interest

Nso and Its Neighbours. Readings in the Social History of the Western Grassfields of Cameroon B Chem-Langhee,V.G. Fanzo,2011-07-26 This is a rich and compelling volume of readings in social history on Nso and its neighbours in the Western Grassfields of Cameroon It consists of 19 essays by some of the leading historians archeologists and ethnographers of the region with seminal contributions by Jean Pierre Warnier Paul Nchoji Nkwi Bongfen Chem Langhee Phyllis Kaberry E M Chilver Miriam Goheen Ian Flower Dan Lantum and V G Fanzo The book covers a broad range of themes from precolonial times to date including trade alliances diplomacy the iron industry colonial impact continuities discontinuities and compromise general persistence ideology and conflict Warnier draws on linguistic and archaeological data to argue that this region has been settled for several millennia very probably continuously and that its landscapes are very ancient and have resulted from many human and natural forces other than the simple clearance of the forest cover of the region at an uncertain date as some authors have postulated Using data on inter group diplomacy and alliances Nkwi puts into question some problematic theses on persistence hostilities and enhances knowledge of the precolonial history of the region Fowler and Chem Langhee show how local conditions and needs fostered the spirit and practice of cooperative ventures in the precolonial period which provided the driving force and the ideological and structural underpinnings for the successful and smooth introduction of modern modes of cooperation in the area during the colonial and postcolonial periods The rest of the studies have a unifying theme or thesis namely that despite the entry and assault of external influences particularly those associated with colonialism Christianity and Islam the traditional institutions customs and value systems of the Nso and their neighbours have resisted major change and their total corrosion is not yet in sight The volume illustrates the proposition that historical research is a continuous process of rediscovery which provides new questions and also that the evidence of other disciplines linguistics archaeology and palaeobotany for example may give rise to many new lines of inquiry and help to correct the documentary record and explain oral tradition Herein lies the most important element of this experimental collection Its editors hope that it will provoke other similar collections

FROM HUNTER-GATHERERS TO FARMERS Monica Mărgărit, Adina Boroneanț, 2024-08-18 It is difficult to capture one's life in a few words a few photographs or even a book The papers in the present volume will hopefully reflect a part of Clive Bonsall's scientific interests during a career that has started some 45 years ago Their diversity is impressive from radiocarbon dating environmental changes human environment interactions funerary behaviour to paleogenetics and stable isotopes reconstruction of ancient diets and obsidian sourcing most of them in close connection to the hunter gatherer and first farmer communities of Europe His studies stretched over a large geographical area focusing recently mainly around the Balkans and the neighbouring regions He has conducted fieldwork in Britain Scotland Romania and Slovenia edited 9 books and published over 160 papers book chapters notes as well as book and paper reviews His main publications include The Mesolithic in Europe 1989 The Human Use of Caves 1997 The Iron Gates in Prehistory 2008 Submerged Prehistory 2011 and Not Just for Show The Archaeology of Beads Beadwork and Personal Ornaments 2017 His substantial work in southeastern Europe is reflected by his long standing collaboration and friendship with many Romanian and Bulgarian archaeologists and has received due recognition Clive Bonsall is an Honorary Member of both the Vasile P. P. P. Institute of Archaeology in Bucharest and the National Institute of Archaeology with Museum in Sofia His contribution to the archaeology of the Iron Gates has earned him the recognition of the Serbian archaeologists working in the area His many other research interests and personal collaborations are also reflected in the present volume We are grateful to all our contributors colleagues and friends new and old former students and collaborators whose archaeological interests met Clive's if only briefly We were happy to see that so many of us were able to mobilize in such a short time We would like to thank all those who answered our call and at a time when every minute of our professional lives is carefully planned in advance helped us put together this volume in less than a year They have endured and complied with our constant deadline reminders and requests checked and re-checked their manuscripts in record times gracefully complying with the comments and suggestions from the reviewers and were most patient with our editorial work Each paper was submitted to a double reviewing We would like to also thank our colleagues from various disciplines who accepted to anonymously review the contributions Their hard and serious work significantly improved the overall content of the volume. The outcome has exceeded our most optimistic expectation: a volume that geographically covers almost the entire European continent from Britain to Russia and Greece and touches on most important issues of hunter-gather adaptations through time. A volume brought together by chronological landmarks: the end of the Pleistocene and the beginning of the Holocene and geographical areas but also by common approaches to issues such as human-animal interactions, exploitation and use of raw materials and subsistence strategies. We chose to organize the papers on three main sections while within the respective theme they follow in chronological succession. The archaeology of the Iron Gates opens the volume, given Clive Bonsall's substantial contribution to the local early prehistory. The eight contributions cover a large range of subjects from physical anthropology: Andrei Soficaru re-interpretation of earlier excavations and the subsequent collections; Adina Boronean: stone artefacts; Dragana Antonovi Vidan Dimi Andrej Starovi and Du'an Bori to the study of faunal remains and subsequent paleo-dietary issues; Adrian Blănescu: Adina Boronean and Valentin Radu: Dragana Filipovi Jelena Jovanovi and Dragana Ranić Ivana Ivaljevi Vesna Dimitrijevi and Sofija Stefanovi and osseous industries; Monica Mergelrit and Adina Boronean: Selena Vitezovi. These studies illustrate the still immense research potential of the Iron Gates region despite the fact that most of the sites have been flooded many decades ago. During the editing of the volume it became obvious that while some of the contributions focused on the evidence from a certain site others were more of a regional synthesis. This latter section begins with a most interesting paper bringing together world history and underwater archaeology: Jonathan Benjamin and Geoff Bailey. The following nine articles deal with subjects such as social inequalities seen through the study of burial practices: Judith M. Grønberg: lifeways, adaptations and subsistence strategies of the early prehistoric communities; Agathe Reingruber: Mihael Budja: Annie Brown and Haskell Greenfield: Kenneth Ritchie: raw materials acquisition and exploitation; Tomasz Ponka: Maria Gurova: Eva David: exploitation, management and trade of exotic goods; Vassil Nikolov. The nine papers focusing on individual sites present case studies that illustrate the nature of the current research, the rich opportunities offered by the growing range of scientific techniques and their applications to existing collections. This series of papers starts at Zemunica Cave on the coast of the Eastern Adriatic: Siniša Radović and Anika Oros: Sršen explores the Mesolithic occupations at Malga Rondenetto: Paolo Biagi: Elisabetta Starnini and Renato Nisbet and Grotta dell'Edera: Barbara Voytek in Italy; the Mesolithic ornamented weapons of Motala in Sweden: Lars Larsson and Fredrik Molin; ending this Mesolithic journey among the shell middens on the western coast of Scotland: Catriona Pickard. The transition to the Neolithic happens among the beaver tools at Zamojste 2 in Russia: Olga Lozovskaya: Charlotte Leduc and Louis Chaix. The Neolithic Age finds us further south into Bulgaria exploring the pitfields of Sarnevo: Krum Bacvarov and John Gorczyk and the gold of Varna: Tanya Dzhanfiezova while during the Bronze Age roe deer hunting is resurrected at Paks Gyapa in Hungary: Leszek Bartosiewicz and Erika Gál. The volume presents altogether new results in recent research and new information resulted from the study of old collections. We also hope it points out directions for future research It is with great joy that we present Clive Bonsall this volume as a token of both our appreciation and friendship for his contributions to the Early Prehistory of Europe in general and of Southeastern Europe in special The Editors

Mortuary differentiation and social structure in the Middle Helladic Argolid, 2000-1500 B.C. Eleni Milka, 2023-04-13 In this volume the archaeological anthropological and radiocarbon data from selected sites of the Middle Helladic period are integrated to determine if there was variation between individual burials groupings and cemeteries and to reconstruct change through time This work was done for selective Argive sites namely Lerna Asine and Aspis The First Farmers of Central Europe Penny Bickle, Alasdair Whittle, 2013-07-09 From about 5500 cal BC to soon after 5000 cal BC the lifeways of the first farmers of central Europe the LBK culture Linearbandkeramik are seen in distinctive practices of longhouse use settlement forms landscape choice subsistence material culture and mortuary rites Within the five or more centuries of LBK existence a dynamic sequence of changes can be seen in for instance the expansion and increasing density of settlement progressive regionalisation in pottery decoration and at the end some signs of stress or even localised crisis Although showing many features in common across its very broad distribution however the LBK phenomenon was not everywhere the same and there is a complicated mixture of uniformity and diversity This major study takes a strikingly large regional sample from northern Hungary westwards along the Danube to Alsace in the upper Rhine valley and addresses the question of the extent of diversity in the lifeways of developed and late LBK communities through a wide ranging study of diet lifetime mobility health and physical condition the presentation of the bodies of the deceased in mortuary ritual It uses an innovative combination of isotopic principally carbon nitrogen and strontium with some oxygen osteological and archaeological analysis to address difference and change across the LBK and to reflect on cultural change in general Dariali: The 'Caspian Gates' in the Caucasus from Antiquity to the Age of the Huns and the Middle Ages Eberhard Sauer, 2020-04-30 The Huns invading through Dariali Gorge on the modern day border between Russia and Georgia in AD 395 and 515 spread terror across the late antique world Was this the prelude to the apocalypse Prophecies foresaw a future Hunnic onslaught via the same mountain pass bringing about the end of the world Humanity's fate depended on a gated barrier deep in Europe's highest and most forbidding mountain chain Centuries before the emergence of such apocalyptic beliefs the gorge had reached world fame It was the target of a planned military expedition by the Emperor Nero Chained to the dramatic sheer cliffs framing the narrow passage the mythical fire thief Prometheus suffered severe punishment his liver devoured by an eagle It was known under multiple names most commonly the Caspian or Alan Gates Featuring in the works of literary giants no other mountain pass in the ancient and medieval world matches Dariali's fame Yet little was known about the materiality of this mythical place A team of archaeologists has now shed much new light on the major gorge blocking fort and a barrier wall on a steep rocky ridge further north The walls still standing today were built around the time of the first major Hunnic invasion in the late fourth century when the Caucasus defenses feature increasingly prominently in negotiations between the Great Powers of Persia and Rome In its endeavor to strongly fortify the strategic mountain pass through the Central Caucasus the workforce erased most traces of earlier occupation The Persian built bastion saw heavy occupation for 600 years Its multi faith medieval garrison controlled Trans Caucasian traffic Everyday objects and human remains reveal harsh living conditions and close connections to the Muslim South as well as the steppe world of the north The Caspian Gates explains how a highly strategic rock has played a pivotal role in world history from Classical Antiquity into the twentieth century
