Gray Wolfs Woman:

The Spirit of Sustainability Willis Jenkins, Whitney Bauman, 2009-11-01 The Spirit of Sustainability helps readers navigate the moral worlds and ethical concepts and social and religious practices related to sustainability In collaboration with the Forum on Religion and Ecology an established network of leading scholars it explores a wide range of topics and perspectives from the promise and problems of approaching sustainability through global and indigenous religions to major theories in philosophy and environmental ethics and professional practices and social movements This volume presents the various goals of sustainability ecological integrity economic health human dignity fairness to the future and social justice and provides a framework for reasoning through many interrelated environmental challenges for both current and future generations

Pioneer Women Joanna Stratton, 2013-05-28 From a rediscovered collection of autobiographical accounts written by hundreds of Kansas pioneer women in the early twentieth century Joanna Stratton has created a collection hailed by Newsweek as uncommonly interesting and a remarkable distillation of primary sources Never before has there been such a detailed record of women's courage such a living portrait of the women who civilized the American frontier Here are their stories wilderness mothers schoolmarm Indian squaws immigrants homesteaders and circuit riders Their personal recollections of prairie fires locust plagues cowboy shootouts Indian raids and blizzards on the plains vividly reveal the drama danger and excitement of the pioneer experience These were women of relentless determination whose tenacity helped them to conquer loneliness and privation Their work was the work of survival it demanded as much from them as from their men and at last that partnership has been recognized These voices are haunting The New York Times Book Review and they reveal the special heroism and industriousness of pioneer women as never before Queer Politics in Contemporary Turkey

Paul Gordon Kramer, 2022-03-23 Drawing on the words and stories of queer Turkish activists this book aims to unravel the complexities of queer lives in Turkey In doing so it challenges dominant conceptualizations of the queer Turkish experience within critical security discourses The book argues that while queer Turks are subjected to ceaseless forms of insecurity in their governance opportunities for emancipatory resistance have emerged alongside these abuses It identifies the ways in which the state the family Turkish Islam and other socially mediated processes and agencies can expose or protect queers from violence in the Turkish community Fieldiana, 1903 Minnesota Statutes Minnesota, 2010 Animals and Women

Carol J. Adams, Josephine Donovan, 1995-11-14 Animals and Women is a collection of pioneering essays that explores the theoretical connections between feminism and animal defense Offering a feminist perspective on the status of animals this unique volume argues persuasively that both the social construction and oppressions of women are inextricably connected to the ways in which we comprehend and abuse other species Furthermore it demonstrates that such a focus does not distract from the struggle for women's rights but rather contributes to it This wide ranging multidisciplinary anthology presents original material from scholars in a variety of fields as well as a rare early article by Virginia Woolf Exploring the leading edge of the species gender boundary it addresses such issues as the relationship between abortion rights and animal rights the connection between woman battering and animal abuse and the speciesist basis for much sexist language Also considered are the ways in which animals have been regarded by science literature and the environmentalist movement A striking meditation on women and wolves is presented as is an examination of sexual harassment and the taxonomy of hunters and hunting Finally this compelling collection suggests that the subordination and degradation of women is a prototype for other forms of abuse and that to deny this connection is to participate in the continued mistreatment of animals and women      Publication ,1903 Abstracts p 419 475      Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of

Office for Subject Cataloging Policy, 1991      The Ladies' Repository ,1874 The idea of this women's magazine originated with Samuel Williams a Cincinnati Methodist who thought that Christian women needed a magazine less worldly than Godey's Lady's Book and Snowden's Lady's Companion Written largely by ministers this exceptionally well printed little magazine contained well written essays of a moral character plenty of poetry articles on historical and scientific matters and book reviews Among western writers were Alice Cary who contributed over a hundred sketches and poems her sister Phoebe Cary Otway Curry Moncure D Conway and Joshua R Giddings and New England contributors included Mrs Lydia Sigourney Hannah F Gould and Julia C R Dorr By 1851 each issue published a peice of music and two steel plates usually landscapes or portraits When Davis E Clark took over the editorship in 1853 the magazine became brighter and attained a circulation of 40 000 Unlike his predecessors Clark included fictional pieces and made the Repository a magazine for the whole family After the war it began to decline and in 1876 was replaced by the National Repository The Ladies Repository was an excellent representative of the Methodist mind and heart Its essays sketches and poems its good steel engravings and its moral tone gave it a charm all its own Cf American periodicals 1741 1900
