W.E.B. Du Bois and the Africana Rhetoric of De-alienation Monique Leslie Akassi, 2018-11-02

As the rich words from the African proverbs resonate into the twenty first century regarding the importance of identity and telling the stories of people of African descent through the eyes of the people the grand rhetorician and griot of the twentieth century Dr William Edward Burghardt Du Bois's infamous problem remains so today the problem of the colour line After the election of Barack Hussein Obama the first African American president of the United States after the Civil Rights Movement after Brown versus the Board of Education after the students right to their own language after Plessy versus Ferguson and the murders of innocent young African American males including Emmett Till Timothy Thomas Trayvon Martin John Crawford III Tamir Rice Jordan Davis Eric Garner and Mike Brown people of African descent are still battling with being labelled a problem in one's own country while the USA continues to strive for a post racial era W E B Du Bois's rhetoric and motives in general are more relevant today than ever in reassessing what he so eloquently describes and unveils through the phrase double consciousness in Souls of Black Folk 1903 through which he reveals the feeling of a problem This ground breaking volume featuring contributions from W E B Du Bois's great grandson Arthur McFarlane II among others is organized into three parts Part I focuses on the foundation of Du Bois's Africana Rhetoric through the origins of Africana Studies Pan Africanism and Africana Critical Theory Part II focuses on Du Bois's rhetorical strategies and rhetorical analyses in his scholarship and life Part III focuses on gender and sexuality in Du Bois's selected works This work the first of its kind devoted exclusively to Du Bois's rhetoric and motives can serve as a blueprint for today as the struggle toward a post racial society continues

Irony in the Matthean Passion Narrative InHee C. Humanism and the Rhetoric of Toleration Gary Remer, 2010-11-01 Religious toleration is much discussed these days But where did the Western notion of toleration come from In this thought provoking book Gary Remer traces arguments for religious toleration back to the Renaissance demonstrating how humanist thinkers initiated an intellectual tradition that has persisted even to our present day Although toleration has long been recognized as an important theme in Renaissance humanist thinking many scholars have mistakenly portrayed the humanists as proto Enlightenment rationalists and nascent liberals Remer however offers the surprising conclusion that humanist thinking on toleration was actually founded on the classical tradition of rhetoric It was the rhetorician's commitment to decorum the ability to argue both sides of an issue and the search for an acceptable epistemological standard in probability and consensus that grounded humanist arguments for toleration Remer also finds that the primary humanist model for a full fledged theory of toleration was the Ciceronian rhetorical category of sermo conversation The historical scope of this book is wide ranging Remer begins by focusing on the works of four humanists Desiderius Erasmus Jacobus Acontius William Chillingworth and Jean Bodin Then he considers the challenge posed to the humanist defense of toleration by Thomas Hobbes and Pierre Bayle Finally he shows how humanist ideas have continued to influence arguments for toleration even after the passing of humanism from John Locke to contemporary American discussions of freedom of speech

Classical Rhetoric in English Poetry Brian Vickers, 1989 Back in print after 17 years this is a concise history of rhetoric as it relates to structure genre and style with special reference to English literature and literary criticism from Ancient Greece to the end of the 18th century The core of the book is a quite original argument that the figures of rhetoric were not mere mechanical devices were not as many believed a nuisance a quite sterile appendage to rhetoric to which unaccountably teachers pupils and writers all over the world devoted much labor for over 2 000 years Rather Vickers demonstrates rhetoric was a stylized representation of language and human feelings Vickers supplements his argument through analyses of the rhetorical and emotional structure of four Renaissance poems He also defines 16 of the most common figures of rhetoric citing examples from the classics the Bible and major English poets from Chaucer to Pope

Cosmology and Character Naoto Kamano, 2014-12-02 In this rhetorical critical study of Ecclesiastes the author elucidates how Qoheleth teaches in his discourse paying particular attention to the use of the cosmological texts 1 4 11 and 3 1 8 and the first person speeches

Literate Culture Ruben Quintero, 1992 Rhetorical strategies explored in some detail are Pope's use of generic expectations in either traditional poetic kinds or in his own metamorphosed versions underlying structures of argument patterned after classical oratorical models his methods of appeal through rational argument character or emotion his reliance on personae and his variations of expressive transparency and opacity correlating with classical views of formalistic refinement and poetic distance of light and shadow The Dunciad Variorum 1729 roughly divides Pope's poetical career In 1729 Pope began his serious planning for an opus magnum which later became his Moral Essays and An Essay on Man and shortly thereafter he turned his attention to the composition of his Horatian satires It appears that the satirical muse of his Moral Essays prepared him for the crucial inspiration of his friend Lord Bolingbroke around 1733 Between Worlds William Pallister,2013-05-24 John Milton's Paradise Lost has long been celebrated for its epic subject matter and the poet's rhetorical fireworks In Between Worlds William Pallister analyses the rhetorical methods that Milton uses throughout the poem and examines the effects of the three distinct rhetorical registers observed in each of the poem's major settings Heaven Hell and Paradise Providing insights into Milton's relationship with the history of rhetoric as well as rhetorical conventions and traditions this rigorous study shows how rhetorical forms are used to highlight and enhance some of the poem's most important themes including free will contingency and probability Pallister also provides an authoritative discussion of how the omniscience of God in Paradise Lost affects Milton's verse and considers how God's speech applies to the concept of the perfect rhetorician An erudite and detailed study of both Paradise Lost and the history of rhetoric Between Worlds is essential reading that will help to unravel many of the complexities of Milton's enduring masterpiece A God So Near Brent A. Strawn,Nancy R. Bowen,2003-06-30 Patrick Miller is widely known as an educator editor President of the Society of Biblical Literature and academic who is concerned to ensure that academics and the life of the church are not torn asunder in this era of fragmentation As the editors note The depths of Miller's contributions to church and academy are reflected in the depth of his relationships with family friends and colleagues This volume honors him for his life's work presenting 24 essays by students and colleagues on themes dear to Miller 1 the Psalms and God's nearness to his people and 2 Torah Deuteronomy in particular and God's connection with his people in their lives together A bibliography of Miller's writings is also included Ekphrasis, Memory and Narrative after Proust Leonid Bilmes,2022-12-15 This book explores the relationship between ekphrasis and memory in the novel Drawing on la recherche du temps perdu Leonid Bilmes considers how Vladimir Nabokov W G Sebald Ben Lerner Ali Smith and Lydia Davis have employed and reshaped Proust's way of depicting the recollected past In Ada Austerlitz 10 04 How to Be Both and The End of the Story memory images are variously transposed into intermedial descriptions that inform the narrator's story just as they serve to shape the reader's own remembrance of each of these narratives Ekphrasis in the novel after Proust Bilmes argues acts as a distinct site within the text where past and present self and other image and text seeing and hearing are ever on the brink of reconciliation The book surveys a wide field of critical inquiry encompassing classical theorizations of ekphrasis philosophical explorations of memory and visuality as well as seminal studies of image text relations by among others W J T Mitchell Jean Luc Nancy and Liliane Louvel Bilmes's compelling dialogue with theory and literature evinces the underexplored bond between ekphrasis and memory in the contemporary novel Dying, Death, Burial and Commemoration in Reformation Europe Elizabeth C. Tingle,Jonathan Willis,2016-03-09 In recent years the rituals and beliefs associated with the end of life and the commemoration of the dead have increasingly been identified as of critical importance in understanding the social and cultural impact of the Reformation. The associated processes of dying, death and burial inevitably generated heightened emotion and a strong concern for religious propriety; the ways in which funerary customs were accepted, rejected, modified and contested can therefore grant us a powerful insight into the religious and social mindset of individuals, communities, Churches and even nation states in the post reformation period. This collection provides an historiographical overview of recent work on dying, death and burial in Reformation and Counter Reformation Europe and draws together ten essays from historians, literary scholars, musicologists and others working at the cutting edge of research in this area. As well as an interdisciplinary perspective, it also offers a broad geographical and confessional context ranging across Catholic and Protestant Europe from Scotland, England and the Holy Roman Empire to France, Spain and Ireland. The essays update and augment the body of literature on dying, death and disposal with recent case studies pointing to future directions in the field. The volume is organised so that its contents move dynamically across the rites of passage from dying to death, burial and the afterlife. The importance of spiritual care and preparation of the dying is one theme that emerges from this work, extending our knowledge of Catholic ars moriendi into Protestant Britain. Mourning and commemoration, the fate of the soul and its post mortem management, the political uses of the dead and their resting places emerge as further prominent themes in this new research. Providing contrasts and comparisons across different European regions and across Catholic and Protestant regions, the collection contributes to and extends the existing literature on this important historiographical theme.
