Ehresmann, 1993 This reference work covers general works ornament folk art arms and armour ceramics clocks and automata costumes enamels furniture glass leather metalwork musical instruments textiles dolls and more Essentially a new work rather than a revision this annotated bibliography on the history of applied and decorative arts includes over 3000 descriptive entries on books written in western European languages More than 1000 of these entries are new to the second edition and approximately half are titles published since 1977 The remainder represent a significant expansion in breadth and depth of the bibliography with the addition of nearly 500 titles of exhibition and museum catalogues and price guides

The Oxford Handbook of History and Material Culture Ivan Gaskell, Sarah Anne Carter, 2020-04-07 Most historians rely principally on written sources Yet there are other traces of the past available to historians the material things that people have chosen made and used This book examines how material culture can enhance historians understanding of the past both worldwide and across time The successful use of material culture in history depends on treating material things of many kinds not as illustrations but as primary evidence Each kind of material thing and there are many requires the application of interpretive skills appropriate to it These skills overlap with those acquired by scholars in disciplines that may abut history but are often relatively unfamiliar to historians including anthropology archaeology and art history Creative historians can adapt and apply the same skills they honed while studying more traditional text based documents even as they borrow methods from these fields They can think through familiar historical problems in new ways They can also deploy material culture to discover the pasts of constituencies who have left few or no traces in written records The authors of this volume contribute case studies arranged thematically in six sections that respectively address the relationship of history and material culture to cognition technology the symbolic social distinction and memory They range across time and space from Paleolithic to Punk
