The Cavalier, 1915 The Strangler's Waltz Richard Lord, 2013-05-31 Vienna 1913. The capital of a sprawling empire, Vienna is also one of the world's most cultured and vibrant cities. It's a city devoted to the swank, grand pursuit of life's pleasures. But suddenly the city is shaken when a vicious serial killer who targets young attractive women starts a reign of terror. And leaves no useful clues behind. Before long residents of Vienna are terrified that their city has spawned its own Jack the Ripper. Assigned to the case are two of Vienna's top police inspectors, Julian Stebbel and Karl Heinz Dörflner. Both excellent detectives, Stebbel and Dörflner also form an engaging odd couple. Another snag besides this team's unstable chemistry is the fact that this is 1913, when fingerprinting is still a crude forensics tool in its infancy and the typewriter is a high-tech contraption most Viennese try to avoid where possible. The methodology of Stebbel and Dörflner is of necessity much closer to Sherlock Holmes than it is to the work of modern CSI teams with all the tools of modern crime fighting at their disposal. So will these crack Viennese detectives be able to take down this killer before he adds more innocent victims to his gruesome list? With pressure being steadily applied on them by politicians, an unforgiving press corps and their superiors in the police department, Stebbel and Dörflner must finally call upon the skills of two real-life figures who were actually living and working in Vienna at that time: Sigmund Freud, the most famous psychiatrist in the world, and another even more unlikely hero, a young artist toiling in obscurity who will later achieve even greater fame than Freud, albeit in a field other than art. Adventure, 1911 Leonard Maltin's 2009 Movie Guide Leonard Maltin, Luke Sader, Mike Clark, 2008 Offers readers a comprehensive reference to the world of film, including more than ten thousand DVD titles, along with information on performers, ratings, running times, plots and helpful features.

The mysteries of the court of London George William M. Reynolds, 1886 Confession of a Serial Killer Katherine Ramsland, 2017-08-08 Explore the mind and motivations of a serial killer The Campbell Armstrong Collection Volume One Campbell Armstrong, 2018-05-08 A pair of chilling horror novels from the international bestselling author who writes much better than King or Straub. The Village Voice Writing as Campbell Black, international bestselling author Campbell Armstrong proves he's as adept at evoking horror as he is at plotting heart-stopping thrillers. The Wanting When Max and Louise Untermeyer rent a house in a California vacation town, they figure it will be a perfect escape from the city, especially for their twelve-year-old son Denny. Their neighbors, Dick and Charlotte

Summer are a nice elderly couple who dote on Denny with sweets and gifts But as the days go by Louise begins to notice a disturbing change in her son His innocence seems to be draining away replaced by something unhealthy even perverse As Louise tries to reach her son she s about to discover this town holds a terrible secret A superb storyteller obviously every bit as talented as Stephen King Times Record News Letters from the Dead A battered Ouija board promises entertainment for the renters of a broken down beach house on the Virginia shore But when they play thirteen year olds Lindy and Tommy receive sinister messages and their mothers encounter even more disturbing visions in the tiny gloomy town nearby Something evil happened here long ago and one of the vacationers is about to be drawn into the grip of possession by a frightening force that may prevent them all from ever returning home A satisfying dank and creepy chiller about a haunting and possession in and around an isolated beach house Kirkus Reviews
