Frederick Douglass Domingo F Sarmiento W E B Du Bois and Jos Vasconcelos her book will be the first to bring African American and Latin American political thought into conversation Hooker stresses that Latin American and U S ideas about race were not developed in isolation but grew out of transnational intellectual exchanges across the Americas In so doing she shows that nineteenth and twentieth century U S and Latin American thinkers each looked to political models in the other America to advance racial projects in their own countries Reading these four intellectuals as hemispheric thinkers Hooker foregrounds elements of their work that have been dismissed by dominant readings and provides a crucial platform to bridge the canons of Latin American and African American political thought
