Latino And Latina Writers:

Latino and Latina Writers Alan West, 2004 A two volume bio bibliographical and critical examination of numerous Cuban Dominican Chicano and Puerto Rican writers Includes only authors who have published since 1960 Latina Writers Ilan Stavans, 2008-06-30 Latina literature is one of the fastest growing areas of American literature today and the impact Latina writers have had on the literary scene is undeniable This volume features the most significant articles including peer review essays interviews and reviews to bring together the best scholarship on Latina writers ever compiled Learn about these authors lives and extraordinary careers as well as the social and political issues their works address 10 signed articles essays and interviews are included in the volume which encourage readers to examine Latina writers from a wide variety of theoretical perspectives including feminism postmodernism postcolonialism gender border linguistic and pan American studies Also featured is an introduction by Ilan Stavans one of the foremost authorities on Latino culture to provide historical background and cultural context and suggestions for further reading to aid students in their research Reading U.S. Latina Writers A. Quintana, 2003-03-18 This essential teaching guide focuses on an emerging body of literature by U S Latina and Latin American Women writers It will assist non specialist educators in syllabus revision new course design and classroom presentation The inclusive focus of the book that is combining both US Latina and Latin American women writers is significant because it introduces a more global and transnational way of approaching the literature The introduction outlines the major historical experiences that inform the literature the important genres periods movements and authors in its evolution the traditions and influences that shape the works and key critical issues of which teachers should be aware The collection seeks to provide readers with a variety of Latina texts that will guarantee its long term usefulness to teachers and students of pan American literature Because it is no longer possible to understand U S Latina literature without taking into consideration the histories and cultures of Latin America the volume will through its organization argue for a more globalized type of analysis which considers the similarities as well as the differences in U S and Latin American women s cultural productions In this context the term Latina evokes a diasporic transnational condition in order to address some of the pedagogical issues posed by the bicultural nature which is inherent in pan American women s literature Camino del Sol Rigoberto González, 2022-09-20 Since 1994 the Camino del Sol series has been one of the premier vehicles for Latina o literary voices Launched under the auspices of Chicana o luminary Ray Gonzalez it quickly established itself in both the Latina o community and the publishing world as it garnered awards for its outstanding writing Featuring both established writers and first time authors Camino del Sol has published poetry and prose that convey something about the Latina o experience works that tap into universal truths through a distinct cultural lens This volume celebrates fifteen years of books by bringing together some of the series best work such as poetry from Francisco X Alarc n fiction from Christine Granados and nonfiction from Luis Alberto Urrea These voices echo the entire spectrum of Latina o writing from Chicana o to Puerto

Rican to Brazilian American and take in themes ranging from migration to gender Awards bestowed upon Camino del Sol titles include the PEN Beyond Margins Award to Richard Blanco's Directions to the Beach of the Dead Before Columbus Foundation American Book Awards to Diana Garc'a's When Living Was a Labor Camp and Luis Alberto Urrea's Nobody's Son International Latino Book Awards to Pat Mora's Adobe Odes and Kathleen Alcal's The Desert Remembers My Name the Premio Aztlan literary prize to Sergio Troncoso's The Last Tortilla and the PEN Oakland Josephine Miles National Literary Award to Kathleen de Azevedo's Samba Dreamers All of these works are represented in this outstanding collection In a short span of time Camino del Sol has cultivated an admirable and sizeable list of distinguished contemporary authors and even garnered the first National Book Critics Circle Award for a Chicana o for Juan Felipe Herrera's Half of the World in Light Camino del Sol Fifteen Years of Latina and Latino Writing is a benchmark for the series and a wonderful introduction to the world of Latina o literature
