My Life in Focus Gianni Bozzacchi, 2017-01-10 When Gianni Bozzacchi accepted an assignment as a photographer on the set of The Comedians 1967 he didn't know that his life was about to change forever His ability to capture the beauty of candid moments drew the attention of the film's star Elizabeth Taylor and prompted her to hire him as her personal photographer. Not only did he go on to enjoy a jet set life as her friend and confidant preserving unguarded moments between the violet-eyed beauty and Richard Burton as they traveled the world but Bozzacchi also became an internationally renowned photographer and shot some of the biggest celebrities of the 1960s and 1970s. In My Life in Focus Bozzacchi traces his journey from humble beginnings to the sphere of the rich and famous. As a child he cultivated his skills by working with his father a photographer for the Italian government. Following in his parent's footsteps was not something Bozzacchi had foreseen for his future but his passion for taking pictures and his ability to put his subjects at ease enabled him to capture stunning images of some of the greatest stars of the twentieth century including Audrey Hepburn, Steve McQueen, Raquel Welch, Mia Farrow, Clint Eastwood and the royal family of Monaco. Beautifully illustrated with many of the photographer's most iconic images, this lively memoir reveals private moments in the Taylor-Burton love story and provides an invaluable behind-the-scenes look at the business of filmmaking and the perils of celebrity.

Michelangelo Antonioni
Seymour Chatman, 2004. Containing many illustrations from Michelangelo Antonioni's own archives, this text explores his life and career from his earliest documentaries to his latest collaborations. Publisher's description.

Secret Violences
Slawomir Maslon, 2023-04-06. Although Michelangelo Antonioni became one of the icons of modernist cinema in the 1960s, his position in the pantheon of great directors has never been quite secure. Unlike his famous contemporaries such as Ingmar Bergman and Luchino Visconti whose essential contribution to the art of cinema is hardly ever questioned, Antonioni's work has been repeatedly denigrated from many angles for both aesthetic and political reasons. Though the historical importance of some of Antonioni's films as an incarnation of certain attitudes and problems characteristic of the 1960s and 70s is not denied, they are often considered passé, artificial and boring. Contesting prevalent readings which focus on existential and psychological motifs involving anxiety and the malady of sentiments, this book offers a re-evaluation of Antonioni's most important films interpreted as political cinema engaged with issues which are still crucial in the 21st century. Far from being politically neutral, Antonioni's oblique and abstract approach makes possible the prising open and devaluation of the morally and politically constrictive organic narrative structures. His approach overthrows the primacy of character and plot on the one hand by showing them to be emanations of the spectral materiality of capital and on the other hand by allowing for an opening into the utopian dimension implying engagement in the rethinking of our attachments to the world.

The Routledge Encyclopedia of Films
Sabine Haenni, Sarah Barrow, John White, 2014-09-15. The Routledge Encyclopedia of Films comprises 200 essays by leading film scholars analysing the most important influential innovative and interesting films of all time. boundaries and genres The encyclopedia thus provides an introduction to the historical range and scope of cinema produced throughout the world

The Foreign Film Renaissance on American Screens, 1946–1973 Tino Balio, 2010-11-05 Largely shut out of American theaters since the 1920s foreign films such as Open City Bicycle Thief Rashomon The Seventh Seal Breathless La Dolce Vita and L'Avventura played after World War II in a growing number of art houses around the country and created a small but influential art film market devoted to the acquisition distribution and exhibition of foreign language and English language films produced abroad Nurtured by successive waves of imports from Italy Great Britain France Sweden Japan and the Soviet Bloc the renaissance was kick started by independent distributors working out of New York by the 1960s however the market had been subsumed by Hollywood From Roberto Rossellini's Open City in 1946 to Bernardo Bertolucci's Last Tango in Paris in 1973 Tino Balio tracks the critical reception in the press of such filmmakers as François Truffaut Jean-Luc Godard Federico Fellini Michelangelo Antonioni Tony Richardson Ingmar Bergman Akira Kurosawa Luis Buñuel Satyajit Ray and Milos Forman Their releases paled in comparison to Hollywood fare at the box office but their impact on American film culture was enormous The reception accorded to art house cinema attacked motion picture censorship promoted the director as auteur and celebrated film as an international art Championing the cause was the new cinephile generation which was mostly made up of college students under thirty The fashion for foreign films depended in part on their frankness about sex When Hollywood abolished the Production Code in the late 1960s American made films began to treat adult themes with maturity and candor In this new environment foreign films lost their cachet and the art film market went into decline

Levinas and the Cinema of Redemption Sam B. Girgus, 2010-04-13 In his philosophy of ethics and time Emmanuel Levinas highlighted the tension that exists between the ontological adventure of immediate experience and the ethical adventure of redemptive relationships associations in which absolute responsibility engenders a transcendence of being and self In an original commingling of philosophy and cinema study Sam B. Girgus applies Levinas's ethics to a variety of international films His efforts point to a transnational pattern he terms the cinema of redemption that portrays the struggle to connect to others in redeeming ways Girgus not only reveals the power of these films to articulate the crisis between ontological identity and ethical subjectivity He also locates time and ethics within the structure and content of film itself Drawing on the work of Luce Irigaray Tina Chanter Kelly Oliver and Ewa Ziarek Girgus reconsiders Levinas and his relationship to film engaging with a feminist focus on the sexualized female body Girgus offers fresh readings of films from several decades and cultures including Frank Capra's Mr. Smith Goes to Washington 1939 Federico Fellini's La dolce vita 1959 Michelangelo Antonioni's L'Avventura 1960 John Huston's The Misfits 1961 and Philip Kaufman's The Unbearable Lightness of Being 1988
