Gettin' High David Bourns,2024-06-05 The stories in Getting High take place mainly in New York City and Puerto Rico though three are set in rural Michigan where the author grew up They take place by and large during the turbulent decade of the 1960 s As the title suggests many characters smoke marijuana and experience its eerie pleasurable effects That is one current running through several stories though not a major theme Rather the thematic anchor is the search for love and meaning in a changing transient world The characters are generally involved with music as performers or students and what it means to become a professional musician Music as a means to communicate truly with another person is also an important facet of the plot lines in the stories whether this is on a river tour or on a formal concert stage and the characters strive to find the essence of their art in various ways Of course music goes beyond words and this musical quest is what propels many of the characters lives and loves Also the real life business of music is another salient aspect for character development Three of the stories are set in the rural landscape of the author s youth Here the theme of the demise of the family farm is set forth against the backdrop of the long transition from an agrarian to an urban life style which has taken place throughout the 20th century All of the stories in Getting High were written many years ago while the author himself was working as a professional musician in the Puerto Rico Symphony As such they may seem somewhat dated since this was a time before iphones the internet Tik Tok and social media People needed to communicate more directly with one another in a more personal manner And this is reflected in the plots and dialogue of the stories The roles of men and women were also for better or worse more clearly defined and this perspective undoubtedly finds its way into the portrayal of the characters as they seek to explore new boundaries and experiences from the farm to the concert stage to smoking weed a long trajectory set against the backdrop of the Vietnam war Though these stories were mostly written over 50 years ago the author believes that they are still relevant in today s modern world The subject of abortion figures in A Love Story as well as interracial love And the racism still lingering in the South of the early 60 s and which America is still struggling to truly confront plays a role in Milly A Fantasy Undoubtedly the transformative potential of music has not diminished over the years whether it be jazz folk music Hip Hop Rap or the classical music of the formal concert stage Humanity still thrives on music s inherent message of hope and its curative power Finally it is the author s hope that at the very least readers will find something of themselves in the characters of these tales as they seek out life s ephemeral joys happiness and fulfillment in today s challenging world

Woods, 2015-04-03 Miles From Home is a deeply personal story and a narrative of the American dream Born to a devoted mother and severely alcoholic father Phillip Lee Woods was sent as an 11 year old to live with a taciturn grandfather on a lonely farm in Indianas countryside Doing backbreaking chores from daybreak to dark and walking a long deserted road to catch the bus Woods school years were marked by toil embarrassment about his circumstances and a yearning to reunite with his mother and sister Living in an isolated farmhouse with no indoor plumbing no phone and little heat Woods and his grandfather helped each other to survive These challenging early experiences helped the young Woods become a determined perseverant man Woods started out as a postal clerk and despite not having a college education he went on to found his own successful insurance business Woods Grooms Inc Along the way he married his favorite post office patron and had a family of his own His climb to ultimate success was riddled with many failures including near bankruptcies and unsuccessful forays into raising horses and running a flight school But more than a story of the American dream of a man who like many started with nothing and went on to achieve success and serve his community this is a love story not just between Woods and his wife of more than 50 years but between Woods and America At the age of 66 he decided to walk across the country from east to west determined to see its roads again close up and meet its inhabitants in person He wanted to see the country not as politicians and lobbyists were formulating it but see it as a land of individuals who had their own values their own opinions In 2010 Woods again walked across the Unites States from north to south a testament to what a stout heart a devoted wife and a few good pairs of sneakers could accomplish This is the tale of a long winding journey Readers of Woods story respond to the at times heartbreakingly honest narrative to the tale of a life of struggle triumphs failures and tragedies but most of all they are inspired by the can do spirit of a man who insists we all keep moving Continent ,1924
