Lasting Poems On Aging:

Lasting Meg Files,2005 An anthology presents a collection of poetic interpretations and depictions of aging and the nearing of death The Disappearing Trick Len Roberts,2010-10-01 In The Disappearing Trick Len Roberts wrestles with the loss of loved ones whether that loss be through death a son moving away to college or simply how people fade from our lives and memories Hybrids of the narrative and lyric form these poems are models of indirect statement that have as Sharon Olds has said emotional courage powerful music and a deep balance Like the light shining on a face or a girl's thigh back in a sixth grade class the poems often come as Proustian flashes lasting just a second but seeming eternal amid an increasing darkness The Progress of Life; Or, Youth, Maturity and Old Age: a Poem ... William Leech,1868 The Living Age ,1846 Littell's Living Age ,1846 Littell's Living Age Eliakim Littell,Robert S. Littell,1891 The Missouri Review ,2006 Stoicism, Politics and Literature in the Age of Milton Andrew Shifflett,1998-08-28 This 1998 book examines key seventeenth century writers in the context of their common interest in the philosophical tradition of Stoicism The Living Age ,1941 Lectures on the Literature of the Age of Elizabeth ; and Characters of Shakespear's [sic.] Plays William Hazlitt,1895 Age of the Passions John Dwyer,2001-01-01 The eighteenth century is often described as the age of reason This book argues that it should also be considered the age of the passions Eighteenth century writers recognised the passions as the springs of human life and actions They began to explore self interest sociability and love in ways that would have momentous consequences for the development of western culture The century's philosophes did not merely acknowledge the existence of the passions they sought to manipulate them for the good of society When carefully cultivated self interest led to prudent behaviour and national improvement sociability contributed to inter group harmony and national identity the powerful attraction between the sexes metamorphosed into politeness and altruism This book explores the eighteenth century language of the passions in its specifically Scottish context suggesting that Scottish writers such as Allan Ramsay James Fordyce and James Macpherson were cultural pioneers whose significance goes far beyond the transitory popularity of the literary products they created It also examines thinkers like Adam Smith and John Millar from a radically different perspective And it constructs new connections between the philosophy social thought sermons letters poetry and epic literature of enlightened Scottish society The Scottish contribution to modern consciousness was nothing short of profound The Scots brought the passions into the centre of discourse so they could no longer be ignored only exploited or repressed SLAM! You're Gonna Wanna Hear This Nikita Gill,2020-09-03 It's time to reclaim poetry Collected by international poetry sensation Nikita Gill SLAM You're Gonna Wanna Hear This is a joyful celebration of the ground breaking poets making their voices heard in the spoken word scene Empowering inspiring and often hilarious SLAMs are a platform for well known and emerging talent from all walks of life where every style of poetry has a home With poets such as Raymond Antrobus Sophia Thakur and Dean Atta guest starring alongside up and coming poets this is the perfect introduction to the

A Poetic Language of Ageing Olga V. Lehmann, Oddgeir Synnes, 2023-05-18 Exploring the potential of poetry and poetic language as a means of conveying perspectives on later life this book examines questions such as how can we understand ageing and later life and how can we capture the ambiguities and complexities that the experiences of growing old in time and place entail As poetic language illuminates transfigures and enchants our being in the world it also offers insights into the existential questions that are amplified as we age including the vulnerabilities and losses that humble us and connect us This volume suggests a path towards the poetics of ageing by means of presenting analyses of published poetry on ageing ranging from William Shakespeare to George Oppen the use of reading and writing poetry among lay people in old age including persons living with dementia and the poetic nuances that emerge from other literary practices and contexts in relation to ageing counting personal poetic reflections from many of the contributing authors

Age in Love Jacqueline Vanhoutte, 2019-06-01 The title Age in Love is taken from Shakespeare's sonnet 138 a poem about an aging male speaker who by virtue of his entanglement with the dark lady vainly performs the role of some untutored youth Jacqueline Vanhoutte argues that this pattern of age in love pervades Shakespeare's mature works informing his experiments in all the dramatic genres Bottom Malvolio Claudius Falstaff and Antony all share with the sonnet speaker a tendency to flout generational decorum by assuming the role of the lover normally reserved in Renaissance culture for young men Hybrids and upstarts cross dressers and shape shifters comic butts and tragic heroes Shakespeare's old men in love turn in boundary blurring performances that probe the gendered and generational categories by which early modern subjects conceived of identity In Age in Love Vanhoutte shows that questions we have come to regard as quintessentially Shakespearean about the limits of social mobility the nature of political authority the transformative powers of the theater the vagaries of human memory or the possibility of secular immortality come to indelible expression through Shakespeare's artful deployment of the age in love trope Age in Love contributes to the ongoing debate about the emergence of a Tudor public sphere building on the current interest in premodern constructions of aging and ultimately demonstrating that the Elizabethan court shaped Shakespeare's plays in unexpected and previously undocumented ways
