Late Augustan Prose:

Late Augustan Prose Patricia Ann Meyer Spacks, 1971-01-01 The Poetics of Late Latin Literature Jaś Elsner, Jesús Hernández Lobato, 2017 For a host of reasons traditionalist scholarship has failed to give a full and positive account of the formal aesthetic and religious transformations of ancient poetics in Late Antiquity This collection of new essays attempts to capture the vibrancy of the living ancient tradition reinventing itself in a new context in the hands of a series of great Latin writers of the fourth and fifth centuries AD The Blueprint of History of English Literature (As Per NEP-2020 Model Syllabus) Dr. Samir Kumar Hui, 2025-04-21 The Epistulae Morales of Seneca in Relation to the Text and Interpretation of Virgil Alma Olive Carlton, 1925 The Broadview Anthology of Expository Prose - Third Canadian Edition Laura Buzzard, Don LePan, Nora Ruddock, Alexandria Stuart, 2017-08-08 The third Canadian edition of this anthology has been substantially revised and updated for a contemporary audience a selection of classic essays from earlier eras has been retained but the emphasis is very much on twenty first century expository writing There is also a focus on issues of great importance in twenty first century Canada such as climate change the Truth and Reconciliation Commission the Jian Ghomeshi trial Facebook police discrimination trans rights and postsecondary education in the humanities Works of different lengths and levels of difficulty are represented as are narrative descriptive and persuasive essays and new to this edition lyric essays For the new edition there are also considerably more short pieces than ever before a number of op ed pieces are included as are pieces from blogs and from online news sources The representation of academic writing from several disciplines has been increased and in some cases the anthology also includes news reports presenting the results of academic research to a general audience Also new to this edition are essays from a wide range of the most celebrated prose writers of the modern era from Susan Sontag Eula Biss and Michel Foucault to Anne Carson and Ta Nehisi Coates The anthology also offers increased diversity of representation including for example a larger proportion of First Nations writers and women writers than previous Canadian editions Unobtrusive explanatory notes appear at the bottom of the page and each selection is preceded by a headnote that provides students with information regarding the context in which the piece was written Each reading is also followed by questions for discussion A unique feature is the inclusion of a set of additional notes on the anthology's companion website notes designed to be of particular help to EAL students and or students who have little familiarity with Canadian culture The anthology is accompanied by two companion websites The student website features additional readings and interactive writing exercises as well as the additional notes The instructor website provides additional discussion questions and for a number of the anthology selections background information that may be of interest

The Broadview Anthology of Expository Prose - Third Edition Laura Buzzard, Don LePan, Nora Ruddock, Alexandria Stuart, 2016-08-29 The third edition of this anthology has been substantially revised and updated for a contemporary American audience a selection of classic essays from earlier eras has been retained but the emphasis is very much on twenty first century expository writing Works of different lengths and levels of difficulty are represented as are narrative descriptive and persuasive essays and new to this edition lyric essays For the new edition there are also considerably more short pieces than ever before a number of op ed pieces are included as are pieces from blogs and from online news sources The representation of academic writing from several disciplines has been increased and in some cases the anthology also includes news reports presenting the results of academic research to a general audience Also new to this edition are essays from a wide range of the most celebrated essayists of the modern era from James Baldwin Susan Sontag Joan Didion and Annie Dillard to Eula Biss and Ta Nehisi Coates The anthology remains broad in its thematic coverage but certain themes receive special emphasis notably issues of race class and culture in twenty first century America For the new edition the headnotes have been expanded providing students with more information as to the context in which each piece was written Questions and suggestions for discussion have been moved online to the instructor website The Broadview Anthology of Expository Prose: Second Edition Tammy Roberts, Mical Moser, Don LePan, Julia Gaunce, Laura Buzzard, 2011-05-25 A substantial selection of classic essays allows readers to trace the history of the essay from Swift to Woolf and Orwell and beyond A selection of the finest of contemporary essays from Witold Rybcynski to David Sedaris and Elizabeth Kolbert provides a broad sample of the genre in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries The academic essays begin with classic selections from such writers as Darwin and Charles Lyell but the emphasis is on recent decades Emphasized as well are academic papers or essays that have been especially influential or controversial from Luis and Walter Alvarez's suggestion that an asteroid caused the extinction of the dinosaurs to Judith Rich Harris's argument that the influence of peers may be at least as influential in the formation of personality as that of parents Works of different lengths levels of difficulty and subject matter are all represented as are narrative descriptive and persuasive essays Also included in the text is a range of questions and suggestions for discussion The text selections are numbered by paragraph for ready reference Added to the second edition are new selections by Malcolm Gladwell Doris Lessing Eric Schlosser Binyavanga Wainaina and over twenty others This new edition also provides pairings of informal and academic articles that address the same topic allowing readers to consider contrasting approaches Humanistica Lovaniensia Gilbert Tournoy, 1988-02-15 Volume 37 Argument Structure in Flux Elly van Gelderen, Jóhanna Barðdal, Michela Cennamo, 2013-06-15 The present volume is centered around five linguistic themes argument structure and encoding strategies argument structure and verb classes unexpressed arguments split intransitivity and existential and presentational constructions The articles also cover a variety of typologically different languages and they offer new data from under researched languages on the issues of event and argument structure In some cases novel perspectives from widely discussed languages on highly debated topics are offered also addressing more theoretical aspects concerning the predictability and derivation of linking Several contributions apply current models of the lexicon syntax interface to synchronic data Other contributions focus on diachrony and are based on extensive use of corpora

A History of Roman Literature (2 vols.) M. von Albrecht, 2019-09-16 Michael von Albrecht s A History of Roman Literature originally published in German can rightly be seen as the long awaited counterpart to Albin Lesky s Geschichte der Griechischen Literatur In what will probably be the last survey made by a single scholar the whole of Latin literature from Livius Andronicus up to Boethius comes to the fore Literature is taken here in its broad antique sense and therefore also includes e g rhetoric philosophy and history Special attention has been given to the influence of Latin literature on subsequent centuries down to our own days Extensive indices give access to this monument of learning The introductions in Von Albrecht s texts together with the large bibliographies make further study both more fruitful and easy

Greek and Latin Literature of the Roman Empire Albrecht Dihle, 2013-02-01 Professor Dihle sees the Greek and Latin literature between the 1st century B C and the 6th century A D as an organic progression He builds on Schlegel s observation that art customs and political life in classical antiquity are inextricably entwined and therefore should not be examined separately Dihle does not simply consider narrowly defined literature but all works of cultural socio historical significance including Jewish and Christian literature philosophy and science Despite this major authors like Seneca Tacitus and Plotinus are considered individually This work is an authoritative yet personal presentation of seven hundred years of literature The Sewanee Review ,1912 The Development of English Prose Style Charles Robert Leslie Fletcher,1881 Magic in the Literature of the Neronian Period Konstantinos Arampapaslis,2024-04-22

Neronian representations of magic a practice prevalent in the everyday life of the period and a central topic in its literary production are characterized by unprecedented accuracy and detail The similarities of witchcraft depictions in Seneca s Medea Lucan s book 6 and Petronius Satyricon with spells of the PGM the defixiones as well as with Pliny s quasi magical recipes underscore realism as the distinctive trait of Neronian magic scenes which has often been considered the authors means to differentiate themselves from their Augustan predecessors However such high degree realism is not merely an ornamental feature but transforms into a tool that influences the reader s response toward magic according to each author s worldview and aims The cross generic examination of the motif of magic in the major Neronian authors shows how realism forms a link between reader contemporary experience and text that encourages more active participation on the part of the reader At the same time images of destruction the horrific and the ridiculous further enhance the negative view of magic as an ineffective Lucan Petronius or destructive force Seneca simultaneously eliciting the reader s critical response
