Latest Sealings From The Palace Houses:

The Latest Sealings from the Palace and Houses at Knossos Mervyn R. Popham, Margaret Anne Violet Gill, 1995 Sir Arthur Evans only ever published around a tenth of the sealings he found during excavations of the destruction levels at the Palace of Knossos Moreover the drawings that he and other scholars did of the sealings are scattered over the four volumes of his Palace of Knossos and in obscure publications All the sealings of known and unknown context are illustrated here Margaret Gill s original study of the sealings made in the 1960s has been updated following more recent work on material in the Heraklion Museum This is the first publication in a new scholarly series from the British School and will be followed later this year by conference proceedings on Post Minoan Crete and on Palaeolithic Greece

The Art and Archaeology of the Aegean Bronze Age Jean-Claude Poursat, 2022-06-09 The Art and Archaeology of the Aegean Bronze Age offers a comprehensive chronological and geographical overview of one of the most important civilizations in human history Jean Claude Poursat s volume provides a clear path through the rich and varied art and archaeology of Aegean prehistory from the Neolithic period down to the end of the Bronze Age Charting the regional differences within the Aegean world his study covers the full range of material evidence including architecture pottery frescoes metalwork stone and ivory all lucidly arranged by chapter With nearly 300 illustrations this volume is one of the most lavishly illustrated treatments of the subject yet published Suggestions for further reading provide an up to date entry point to the full richness of the subject Originally published in French and translated by the author s collaborator Carl Knappett this edition makes Poursat s deep knowledge of the Aegean Bronze Age available to an English language audience for the first time

1995 Massimo Mastrogregori, 2014-02-21 Annually published since 1930 the International bibliography of Historical Sciences IBOHS is an international bibliography of the most important historical monographs and periodical articles published throughout the world which deal with history from the earliest to the most recent times The works are arranged systematically according to period region or historical discipline and within this classification alphabetically The bibliography contains a geographical index and indexes of persons and authors

A Research Guide to the Ancient World John M. Weeks, Jason de Medeiros, 2014-11-25 The archaeological study of the ancient world has become increasingly popular in recent years A Research Guide to the Ancient World Print and Electronic Sources is a partially annotated bibliography The study of the ancient world is usually although not exclusively considered a branch of the humanities including archaeology art history languages literature philosophy and related cultural disciplines which consider the ancient cultures of the Mediterranean world and adjacent Egypt and southwestern Asia Chronologically the ancient world would extend from the beginning of the Bronze Age of ancient Greece ca 1000 BCE to the fall of the Western Roman Empire ca 500 CE This book will close the traditional subject gap between the humanities Classical World Egyptology and the social sciences anthropological archaeology Near East in the study of the ancient world This book is uniquely the only bibliographic resource available for such holistic coverage The volume consists of 17 chapters and seven appendixes arranged according to the traditional types of library research materials bibliographies dictionaries atlases etc The appendixes are mostly subject specific including graduate programs in ancient studies reports from significant archaeological sites numismatics and paleography and writing systems These extensive author and subject indexes help facilitate ease of use Reading the Body Alison E.

Rautman,2016-11-11 Classical and anthropological archaeologists share many of the same interests and confront many of the same problems studying extinct cultures Despite differences in background and training scholars in these disciplines are all engaged in analyzing and interpreting the archaeological record Traditionally however there have been few opportunities for classical archaeologists and anthropologists to discuss mutually beneficial perspectives in method and theory The study of gender and its representations affords an opportunity for archaeologists and anthropologists to share information and increase our understanding of how people lived in the past Reading the Body contains current anthropological and archaeological research about the body and the archaeological record both physical remains and artistic representations from sites all over the world ranging in time from the European Upper Paleolithic to the Pueblo societies of the recent past Essay topics include the reconstruction of the lives of Etruscan women from skeletal remains gender symbolism in Inuit burials the erotic clothing of Crete s Minoan culture and gender identities in Maya ceramic paintings The Board Game on the Phaistos Disk H. Peter Aleff,2002-11 ebook Cultural Identity in Minoan Crete Ellen Adams,2017-09-07 A comprehensive account of the Palaces control networks and spatial dynamics of Neopalatial Crete the floruit of the Minoan civilization Kingship in the Mycenaean World and Its Reflections in the Oral Tradition Ione Mylonas Shear,2004-12-31 During the last few decades there has been great interest in the problems of defining the extent and nature of kingship in the Mycenaean world Questions concerning the degree of economic and religious power held by the king have been given special emphasis This book surveys the conclusions drawn by individual scholars studying the Linear B tablets contrasts their theories with our knowledge of the Mycenaean kingdoms as derived from the archaeological record and finally compares this evidence with possible reflections in the oral tradition specifically in the Iliad and Odyssey This approach leads to the suggestion that the king in the Mycenaean period had only limited power over the society and its economy Although the king appears to have controlled a large segment of the economy it is argued here that other individuals and family groups within the kingdom also had a certain degree of economic independence The House of Prisoners Andrea Seri,2013-07-31 This book deals with the house of prisoners bit asiri at the city of Uruk during the revolt against king Samsu iluna of Babylon Hammurabi s son The political history of this brief period ca 1741 1739 BC is not widely known and until now there has been no comprehensive treatment of the bit asiri This book includes autograph copies transliterations and translations of 42 unpublished cuneiform tablets from various collections collations and detailed tables and catalogues The analysis comprises some 410 documents dated or attributable to king Rim Anum one of the insurgents who attained relative independence as the ruler of Uruk The study of this corpus reveals details about diplomatic dealings between the central power and rebel rulers about the functioning of the house of prisoners of war and about the individuals who participated in different echelons of the local administration This monograph investigates what kind of organization the house of prisoners was how it worked how it interacted with other institutions the composition of its labor force and state management of captive and enslaved individuals
