Transatlantic Travels in Nineteenth-Century Latin America Adriana Méndez Rodenas,2013-12-12 Transatlantic Travels in Nineteenth Century Latin America European Women Pilgrims retraces the steps of five intrepid lady travelers who ventured into the geography of the New World Mexico the Southern Cone Brazil and the Caribbean at a crucial historical juncture the period of political anarchy following the break from Spain and the rise of modernity at the turn of the twentieth century Traveling as historians social critics ethnographers and artists Frances Erskine Inglis 1806 82 Maria Graham 1785 1842

Flora Tristan 1803-44, Fredrika Bremer 1801-65 and Adela Breton 1849-1923 reshaped the map of nineteenth century Latin America. Organized by themes rather than by individual authors, this book examines European women's travels as a spectrum of narrative discourses ranging from natural history, history and ethnography. Women's social condition becomes a focal point of their travels. By combining diverse genres and perspectives, women's travel writing ushers a new vision of post-independence societies. The trope of pilgrimage conditions the female travel experience, which suggests both the meta-end of the journey as well as the broader cultural frame shaping their individual itineraries.
