The Film Edge Eduardo Angel Russo, 2010 What does it mean to make films in Latin America The landscape today is as complex as it is dynamic New directors and new projects are constantly emerging film festivals appear one after another in what could only be described as an explosion of cinema in the region And yet inherent to this panorama both so vital and so difficult to define there is a troubling sense of uncertainty This book which brings together the writing of directors producers scholars and critics examines the current state of Latin American cinema Exploring tendencies and possibilities for the future of the audiovisual arts within the context of recent changes in methods of production and circulation the authors address a number of key issues including the role of independent filmmaking in the market and in relation to alternative modes of production the formation of new regional and global identities means of support for filmmakers in Latin America and the question of new formats categories and genres The result is less a mosaic of fragments than it is a tapestry whose interwoven threads create complex and changing shapes that constitute the fabric itself This tapestry allows us to glimpse beyond their particularities the points of contact between different parts of the region This book is an abridged and revised edition of HACER CINE Produccion Audiovisual en America Latina published in 2008 by Fundacion TyPA and Editorial Paidos This new book edited by Eduardo A Russo and translated from the Spanish by Heather Cleary Wolfgang was made possible by the support of the Rockefeller Foundation

Arab Brazil Wail S. Hassan, 2024 Until recently Arab Brazilian relations have been largely invisible to area studies and Comparative Literature scholarship Yet Arabs have left a permanent imprint on Brazil from the Moorish legacy of Muslim Iberia transmitted by Portuguese settlers to waves of Arab immigrants since the late nineteenth century to the prominence today of Brazilians of Arab descent in politics the economy literature and culture The first book of its kind Arab Brazil Fictions of Tertiary Orientalism argues that representations of Arab and Muslim immigrants in Brazilian literature and popular culture since the early twentieth century reveal anxieties and contradictions in the country's ideologies of national identity Author Wail S Hassan analyzes those representations in a century of Brazilian novels short stories and telenovelas to show how the Arab East works paradoxically as a site of otherness different language culture and religion and solidarity cultural historical demographic and geopolitical ties What explains this contradiction argues Hassan is a Brazilian variety of Orientalism distinct from the British French and U S varieties analyzed by Edward Said that problematizes the idealized image of Brazil as a country built on mistura ethnic and racial mixing and cultural anthropophagy or the digestion and incorporation of diverse cultural influences

Reimagining Brazilian Television Eli Carter, 2018-04-26 The Brazilian television industry is one of the most productive and commercially successful in the world At the forefront of this industry is TV Globo and its production of standardized telenovelas which millions of Brazilians and viewers from over 130 countries watch nightly Eli Lee Carter examines the field of television production by focusing on the work of one of Brazil's greatest living directors Luiz Fernando Carvalho Through an emphasis on Carvalho's thirty-plus year career working for TV Globo his unique mode of production and his development of a singular aesthetic as a reaction to the dominant telenovela genre Carter sheds new light on Brazilian television's history its current state and where it is going as new legislation and technology push it increasingly toward a post network era Minimalist Essays on Brazilian Portuguese Syntax Jairo Nunes, 2009 This collection of papers discusses some of the major syntactic properties of Brazilian Portuguese from a minimalist perspective The volume focuses on movement and empty category issues and brings new empirical material on a variety of topics null subjects and finite control possessive and existential constructions factive constructions relative clauses null objects and stress shift preposition duplication VP topicalization and ellipsis The book is of interest to a wide spectrum of linguists working on theoretical and comparative syntax One World Periphery Reads the Other Ignacio López-Calvo, 2009-12-14 While Said focused on the perceptions and stereotypes of the Near East Oriental in England France and the United States most of these essays study the decentering interplay between peripheral areas of the Third World semiperipheral areas Spain and Portugal since the second part of the seventeenth century and marginalized social groups of the globe Chicanos African Americans and Filipino Americans They explore for example how China and the Far East in general are imagined and represented in Latin America and the Caribbean or how ethnic minorities in the United States such as Chicanos and African Americans incorporate Filipino characters in their novels or creolize their music with Chinese influences As the title of this book suggests sometimes these peripheral areas and social groups talk back to the metropolitan centers of the former empires or look for their mediation while others they avoid the interference of the First World or of hegemonic social groups altogether in order to address other peripheral peoples directly thus creating rich South South cross cultural flows and exchanges The main difference between the imperialistic orientalism studied by Said and this other type of global cultural interaction is that while in their engagement with the Orient they may be reproducing certain imperialistic fantasies and mental structures typically there is not an ethnocentric process of self idealization or an attempt to demonstrate cultural ontological or racial superiority in South South intellectual and cultural exchanges This way to de center or to provincialize Europe pace Dipesh Chakrabarty disrupts the traditional center periphery dichotomy bringing about multiple and interchangeable centers and peripheries whose cultures interact with one another without the mediation of the European and North American metropolitan centers To the left of the father (Lavoura Arcaica) Luiz Fernando Carvalho, 2002 The Oxford Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions Wail S.
