

The Seven Laws of The Harvest

We Harvest:

- Only what has been planted.
- The same kind as we plant.
- In a different season than we plant.
- More than we plant.
- In proportion to what we plant.
- The good only by perseverance and hard work.
- Not from a previous years harvest.

*“So then neither he who plants is anything, nor he who waters, but God who gives the increase.”
(1 Co. 3:7)*

“Do not be deceived, God is not mocked; for whatever a man sows, that he will also reap. For he who sows to the flesh will of the flesh reap corruption, but he who sows to the Spirit will of the Spirit reap everlasting life. And let us not grow weary while doing good, for in due season we will reap if we do not lose heart.” (Ga. 6:7-9)

The Alien in Israelite Law Christiana van Houten,1991-01-01 One of the first systematic and critical reconstructions of the history of the social class of aliens in ancient society this study develops new insights gained from the sociological approach to biblical literature As Israel developed from tribal society to state from state to confessional community and from confessional community to province the identity and legal status of the alien developed in a concomitant way Laws which initially afforded the alien only partial social and cultic inclusion in the pre exilic period eventually required complete equality between the alien and Israelite in the postexilic period The King's Keeper Gary Everett,2019-03-29 When I think of all my possessions to include any wealth in savings or retirement funds my home and cars my health the strength of my body and mind all that I have accomplished my talents titles or degrees is there anything that I can claim aside from the magnificent grace of God Anything For me there is nothing that I can claim Since I came into this world with nothing and will leave with nothing I am but a steward of God the One who owns it all I am the King s keeper and accountable to the King This King is my precious Savior Jesus To gain a better understanding of my role as steward it is necessary for me to renew my mind and reflect upon what God's Word says about stewardship To prepare for His return the King's Keeper will help me discover 1 those characteristics of the life of a good steward that are pleasing to the King and that will help me demonstrate faithful service without reason for question 2 how I can steward God's creation 3 how to steward myself and understand the proper alignment of the body soul and spirit for kingdom service 4 how I can steward my time so that it is pleasing to my heavenly Father being all about His business 5 how I can take an honest look at my attitude and behavior concerning my possessions and come into alignment with the desires of the King 6 how I can steward God's Word and be found faithfully administering the mysteries of the Word of God in love always giving the glory to Him 7 how I can steward God's manifold grace and be found fully operating in the gifts in which I have been given for kingdom service 8 how I can engage my community as a kingdom representative and 9 how I can tend to the precious relationships in which I have been trusted A steward must always be ready for the master's return and the King may return at any time From Hectic to Healthy
