Western practices of filmmaking and oral traditions from West Africa Mambety's film Touki Bouki is considered one of the foundational works of African cinema Vlad Dima proposes a new reading of Mambety's entire filmography from the perspective of sound Following recent analytical patterns in film studies that challenge the primacy of the visual Dima claims that Mambety uses voices noise and silence as narrative tools that generate their own stories and sonic spaces By turning an ear to cinema Dima pushes African aesthetics to the foreground of artistic creativity and focuses on the critical importance of sound in world cinema Vlad Dima's close readings of Mambety's films sing His are smart critically sound interpretations of aesthetically rich and thematically resonant works This book will surely be of interest to anyone studying movie soundtracks but it will also interest those who care about the affective dimensions of sound and audition particularly in the global South Noah Tsika author of Nollywood Stars This sophisticated and in depth analysis aptly demonstrates Vlad Dima's grasp of the contentious issues surrounding Mambety's film legacy as well as the overall perspectives on the degree to which Third Cinema and revolutionary filmmaking fit within an analysis of the Senegalese director's oeuvre James E Genova author of Cinema and Development in West Africa French Studies in and for the Twenty-first Century Philippe Lane, Michael Worton, 2011 With contributions from leading scholars across the entire range of French studies this up to date volume examines both the current state of French studies in the United Kingdom as well as its future in an increasingly interdisciplinary world where student demand new technologies and developments in transnational education are changing the ways in which we teach learn research and assess achievements Required reading for French studies scholars worldwide this volume builds upon the findings of the influential Review of Modern Foreign Languages Provision in Higher Education and maps the present and future of the field French Studies in and for the 21st Century Philippe Lane, Michael Worton, 2011-07-07 French Studies in and for the 21st Century draws together a range of key scholars to examine the current state of French Studies in the UK taking account of the variety of factors which have made the discipline what it is The book looks ahead to the place of French Studies in a world that is increasingly interdisciplinary and where student demands new technologies and transnational education are changing the ways in which we learn teach research and assess Required reading for all UK French Studies scholars the book will also be an essential text for the French Studies community worldwide as it grapples with current demands and plans for the future The Cinema of the Dardenne Brothers Philip Mosley, 2013-01-29 The brothers Jean Pierre and Luc Dardenne have established an international reputation for their emotionally powerful realist cinema Inspired by their home turf of Liège Seraing a former industrial hub of French speaking southern Belgium they have crafted a series of fiction films that blends acute observation of life on the social margins with moral fables for the postmodern age This volume analyses the brothers' career from their leftist video documentaries of the 1970s and 1980s through their debut as directors of fiction films in the late 1980s and early 1990s to their six major achievements from The Promise 1996 to The Kid with a Bike 2011 an oeuvre that includes two Golden Palms at the Cannes film festival for Rosetta 1999 and The Child 2005 It argues that the ethical dimension of the Dardennes work complements rather than precludes their sustained expression of a fundamental political sensibility Dictionary of African Filmmakers Roy Armes, 2008-07-11 Chiefly short biographies and filmographies Nationalism in Contemporary Western European Cinema James Harvey, 2018-06-21 This book investigates screen representations of 21st century nationalism arguably the most urgent and apparent phenomenon in the Western world today The chapters explore recurrent thematic and stylistic features of 21st century western European cinema and analyse the ways in which film responds to contemporary developments of mounting tensions and increasing hostilities to difference The collection blends incisive sociological and historical engagement with close textual analysis of many types of screen media including popular cinema art house productions low budget independent work documentary and video installation Identifying motifs of nationhood and indigeneity throughout the contributors of this volume present important perspectives and a timely cultural response to the contemporary moment of nationalism
