and Hurley sustained colonial fantasies about people of color and the environment as endless resources to be plundered As Elias demonstrates their reckless treatment of the sea prefigured attitudes that caused the environmental crises that the oceans and reefs now face Showman Julian Thomas,1990 Repatriation, Exchange, and Colonial Legacies in the Gulf of Papua Lara Lamb,Christopher Lee,2023-01-01 This book explores the people of the Kikori River Delta in the Gulf of Papua as established historical agents of intercultural exchange One hundred years after they were made Frank Hurley s colonial era photographic reproductions are returned to the descendants of the Kerewo and Urama peoples whom he photographed The book illuminates how the movement use and exchange of objects can produce distinctive and unrecognised forms of value To understand this exchange a nuanced history of the conditions of the exchange is necessary which also allows a reconsideration of the colonial legacies that continue to affect the social and political worlds of people in the twenty first century Australia's Wild Places Roger McDonald,2009 Drawing on the extensive collection of the National Library of Australia this book highlights the fingerprints humans have left on the landscape through the lenses of Australia s greatest photographers Roger Mcdonald has written an insightful introductory essay as well as extended captions describing his response Official Register of the United States United States.
