REENVENTING THE CALIFORNIA RANCH
HOUSE FOR THE HILLS OF MALIBU

Interior Design by Ray M. Holden
Built by Paul Goldberger
Photography by Grant Kessler

The house was designed to be a modern interpretation of the California Ranch House, a style that Frank Israel and his team have been exploring for years. The house is a blend of traditional and modern architecture, with a focus on natural materials and a connection to the landscape. The design is a response to the need for a new type of house in the Malibu Hills, one that is both modern and timeless.

Herbert Muschamp, 2013-12-11 From the late Herbert Muschamp the former architecture critic of The New York Times and one of the most outspoken and influential voices in architectural criticism a collection of his best work The pieces here from The New Republic Artforum and The New York Times reveal how Muschamp s views were both ahead of their time and timeless He often wrote about how the right architecture could be inspiring and uplifting and he uniquely drew on film literature and popular culture to write pieces that were passionate and often personal changing the landscape of architectural criticism in the process These columns made architecture a subject accessible to everyone at a moment when because of the heated debate between modernists and postmodernists architecture had become part of a larger public dialogue One of the most courageous and engaged voices in his field he devoted many columns at the Times to the lack of serious new architecture in this country and particularly in New York and spoke out against the agenda of developers He departed from the usual dry didactic style of much architectural writing to playfully for example compare Frank Gehry's Guggenheim Bilbao to the body of Marilyn Monroe or to wax poetic about a new design for Manhattan's manhole covers One sees in this collection that Muschamp championed early on the work of Frank Gehry Rem Koolhaas Zaha Hadid Thom Payne Frank Israel Jean Nouvel and Santiago Calatrava among others and was drawn to the theoretical writings of such architects as Peter Eisenman Published here for the first time is the uncut version of his brilliant and poignant essay about gay culture and Edward Durrell Stone's museum at 2 Columbus Circle Fragments from the book he left unfinished whose title we took for this collection A Dozen Years Metroscope and Atomic Secrets are also included Hearts of the City is dazzling writing from a humanistic thinker whose work changed forever the way we think about our cities and the buildings in them Critical Architecture and Contemporary Culture William J. Lillyman, Marilyn F. Moriarty, David J. Neuman, 1994-02-17 The third volume in the University of California Humanities Research Institute Series this book brings together prominent literary theorists and architects to offer a variety of perspectives on the relation between postmodernism and architecture The contributors include such luminaries from the forefront of literary studies as J Hillis Miller Jacques Derrida and Jean Francois Lyotard the architects Peter Eisenman Frank Gehry and Robert Stern offer their perspectives on the critical role of architecture and contemporary culture The high caliber of the discourse and the variety of approaches included will draw a scholarly audience from a wide range of disciplines

Illustrated History of Nebraska Julius Sterling Morton, 1913 Annual Report Jewish foster home and orphan asylum, Philadelphia, 1908 Fortress Israel Patrick Tyler, 2012-09-18 Once in the military system Israelis never fully exit writes the prizewinning journalist Patrick Tyler in the prologue to Fortress Israel They carry the military identity for life not just through service in the reserves until age forty nine but through lifelong expectations of loyalty and secrecy The military is the country to a great extent and peace will only come Tyler argues when Israel's military elite adopt it as the national strategy Fortress Israel is an epic portrayal of Israel's martial culture of Sparta presenting itself as Athens From Israel's founding in 1948 we see a leadership class engaged in an intense ideological struggle over whether to become the light unto nations as envisioned by the early Zionists or to embrace an ideology of state militarism with the objective of expanding borders and exploiting the weaknesses of the Arabs In his first decade as prime minister David Ben Gurion conceived of a militarized society dominated by a powerful defense establishment and capable of defeating the Arabs in serial warfare over many decades Bound by self reliance and a stern resolve never to forget the Holocaust Israel s military elite has prevailed in war but has also at times overpowered Israel s democracy Tyler takes us inside the military culture of Moshe Dayan Yitzhak Rabin Ariel Sharon and Benjamin Netanyahu introducing us to generals who make decisions that trump those of elected leaders and who disdain diplomacy as appeasement or surrender Fortress Israel shows us how this martial culture envelops every family Israeli youth go through three years of compulsory military service after high school and acceptance into elite commando units or air force squadrons brings lasting prestige and a network for life So ingrained is the martial outlook and identity Tyler argues that Israelis are missing opportunities to make peace even when it is possible to do so The Zionist movement had survived the onslaught of world wars the Holocaust and clashes of ideology writes Tyler but in the modern era of statehood Israel seemed incapable of fielding a generation of leaders who could adapt to the times who were dedicated to ending Israel s isolation or to changing the paradigm of military preeminence Based on a vast array of sources declassified documents personal archives and interviews across the spectrum of Israel s ruling class FortressIsrael is a remarkable story of character rivalry conflict and the competing impulses for war and for peace in the Middle East Proceedings ...
